PREFACE

THE BIBLE

The Bible is the word of God so far as it is translated correctly. Personally, the belief that the Bible is infallible shows a clear lack of understanding and education since the Bible is rife with poor translations, mistranslations, and even typos. However, having the Bible in as good of condition as we have it today is a miracle — one for which I thank the Lord.

TRANSLATION PHILOSOPHY

Growing up with the King James Version of the Holy Bible was a two-edged sword: on one hand, it's a beautifully written and well-accepted version; on the other hand, it's a poetic translation. Personally, non-idiomatic translations show a lack of understanding on the translator's part as to how language works. Poetic translations are difficult to render, but read beautifully; however, they are non-intuitive and not properly suited for most audiences. This translation is a rather idiomatic translation. Only a few liberties were taken, all of which are marked in the footnotes.

This project is also partly a work of scholarship. There are certainly theological points discussed as well as matters of textual criticism. None of this is meant to prove anything, merely to lend credence to beliefs. As Professor Ricks said, “Scholarship isn’t improving a point, it’s enhancing probabilities” (2015-01-26).

THE TETRAGRAMMATON

The Tetragrammaton¹ is the holy name of God, written יהוה. In Orthodox Hebrew culture it is unlawful for this word to be uttered by man but once a year by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement in the Holy of Holies. Traditionally, the Tetragrammaton is rendered “the LORD” or GOD (in small caps). This tradition has been adhered to in this edition except in the case of אֲדֹנָי יְהוִה¹ where it is usually rendered as “the Lord GOD.”² See further in Appendix A.6.

¹lit., a word having four letters

TEXTUAL BASIS

This text was translated from the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia. Inspiration for this translation was taken from the Darby English Bible, La Bible Segond, and Young’s Literal Translation. The lexicons used were The Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon, Holladay’s A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament, and Koehler and Baumgartner’s Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament.

FOOTNOTES AND APPENDIX

Footnotes are used to show alternate renderings and to provide historical, symbolical, and other, expository notes. An appendix appears in the back of the book and contains notes too long for inclusion in footnotes.

GENESIS

God creates the world — the various acts of the creation enumerated — man and woman created in God's image — dominion of the earth given to man.

¹ In the beginning, God¹ created² the Heavens and Earth. ² The earth was formless and void — darkness moved upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. ³ God said, “Let there be light!” And there was light. ⁴ And God saw the light that³ it was good, so God divided the light from the darkness. ⁵ And God called the light, Day; and the darkness, Night. And there was an evening and a morning: the first day.

⁶ And God said, “Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters: let it separate the waters.”⁴ ⁷ So God made the expanse. And it separated between the waters which are under the expanse and the waters which are above the expanse — and thus it was. ⁸ And God called the expanse Heaven. And there was an evening and a morning: the second day.

⁹ God said, “Collect the waters under Heaven unto one place, and let the dry land appear⁵ — and thus it was.” ¹⁰ And God called the dry land, Earth; and the collection of waters He called, Seas. ¹¹ God said, “Let Earth yield tender grass, seed producing herbs, and fruit trees yielding fruit after their kind (the seed of which is in them) on Earth:” and thus it was. ¹² So Earth brought forth grass, seed producing herbs after its kind, and trees yielding fruit (the seed being⁶ in them) after their kind — and God saw that it was good. ¹³ And there was an evening and a morning: the third day.

¹It is not “the Gods” because every verb is conjugated for the third masculine singular, not plural. אֱלֹהִים is the plural of majesty for God. Theologically, Christ created the Universe under the direction of the Father. Although He had help throughout the planning and construction phases, the honor and glory go to Him and the Father solely, not the rest of the Gods that assisted.

²This verb, בָּרָא, means to create. It does not carry with it the notion of ex nihilo creation, but rather to organize. This can only be done by Deity — mortals cannot בָּרָא.

Let them be for signs and for seasons, for days and for years, ¹⁵ for² lights in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate³ Earth:” and thus it was. ¹⁶ So God made the two great lights: the greater⁴ light to rule the day and the lesser⁵ light (and the stars) to rule the night; ¹⁷ and God placed them in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate Earth, ¹⁸ to rule during the day and night, and to separate the light from the darkness — and God saw that it was good. ¹⁹ And there was an evening and a morning: the fourth day.

²⁰ God said, “Let the waters teem with life⁶ and let fowls fly on the earth and before the Heavens.” ²¹ God created the great sea monsters and every living, teeming creature⁷ which are innumerable in the waters after their kind and all the winged birds after their kind. And God saw that it was good. ²² God blessed them, saying, “Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the waters in the sea and let the birds multiply in the earth.” ²³ And there was an evening and a morning: the fifth day.

²⁴ God said, “Let living souls come forth from the earth⁸ after their kind, wild animals,⁹ reptiles,¹⁰ and the wild, untamed animals¹¹ of the earth, after their kind.” And thus it was. ²⁵ God made the wild, untamed animals of the earth after their kind, the wild animals after their kind, the ground reptiles after their kind. And God saw that it was good. ²⁶ God said, “Let Us make Adam^{12,13} in Our image and according to Our likeness. Give them dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, the wild animals — over the whole earth. And give them dominion¹⁴ over all the reptiles which creep upon the earth.” ²⁷ So God created Adam in His image. In the image of God created He him. Male and female created He them. ²⁸ God blessed them and He¹ said to them, “Be fruitful. Multiply. Replenish the earth. Subdue² it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, and on all life that moves on the earth.” ²⁹ And God said, “Look, I have given you every seed-bearing herb in the whole world and every tree which has tree-producing seeds. These shall be your food.”³ ³⁰ Every wild animal on the earth, every bird in the sky, all the reptiles in the world — in which is a living soul — and every green herb: these shall be for food.⁴ And thus it was. ³¹ God saw everything that He had made and it was good, very good. And there was an evening and a morning: the sixth day.

¹²ALT man, Man, mankind

¹³God is not here making the physical bodies for all of mankind — that task is soon delegated to Adam and Eve and their posterity. God is here making the body of Adam (not even Eve yet) so it would be incorrect to say “Let Us make Man in Our image.”

God completes His work and sanctifies the seventh day — the rivers of Eden are described — God places Adam in the Garden and commands him to not eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil — Eve is created, given to Adam, and they are married.

¹ The heavens, the earth, and their hosts were completed.⁵ ² God completed His work⁶ that he'd done by⁷ the seventh day and, on the seventh day, stopped⁸ all His work that he'd been doing. ³ God blessed the seventh day — He sanctified it — because on it he stopped all⁹ His work that God had created¹⁰ to do.¹¹

⁴ These are the origins of the heavens and the earth, when they were created, in the day the LORD God made the earth and the heavens,

LORD God had not yet^o let it rain on the earth and there was no man to till and cultivate¹ the ground. ⁶ The subterranean fresh-water stream² rose up from the earth and watered the entire surface³ of the ground. ⁷ The LORD God created⁴ Adam^{5,6} — loose soil⁷ from the ground — and breathed the breath of life into his nostrils: and man became a living soul. ⁸ The LORD God planted, in the east, a garden in Eden; He there put the man whom He had created. ⁹ The LORD God made every tree that is excellent⁸ to behold and good for food to⁹ sprout from the ground; the tree of life to sprout^o in the midst of the Garden; and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.¹⁰ ¹⁰ A river went out of Eden to water the Garden. It there forked¹¹ and became four river branches. ¹¹ The name of one is Pison. That one surrounds the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.¹² ¹² The gold in¹³ that land is good. There is also bdellium¹⁴ and onyx¹⁵ stone. ¹³ The name of the second river is Gihon. That one surrounds the entire land of Cush. ¹⁴ The name of the third river is Hiddekel. That one flows east toward Asshur.¹⁶ The fourth river is the Euphrates. ¹⁵ The LORD God took Adam and settled¹⁷ him in the Garden of Eden to work in^o it and to guard it. ¹⁶ The LORD God gave an order to Adam, saying, “From every tree of the Garden you can definitely eat; ¹⁷ however, from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat¹⁸ because in the day you eat from it you will certainly die.”¹⁸ The LORD God said, “It is not good that Adam¹ should be alone. I will create a helper for him, to be his counterpart.”²¹⁹ From the ground, the LORD God formed every field animal and every bird of the sky, and brought them to Adam to see what he would call them. And everything that Adam called each of the living creatures, so was its name.²⁰ Adam named³ all of the animals⁴ and the birds of the sky and every field animal. But regarding⁵ Adam, there was not found a helper to be his counterpart.²¹ So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he fell sleep. And God^o took one of his ribs, and He closed up the skin in its place.²² The LORD God built the rib that He had taken from Adam into a woman, and he brought her to Adam.²³ Adam said:

“At last!”⁶ Bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh.

She⁶ shall be named ‘woman’ because from a man she has been taken.

The snake convinces Eve to eat the forbidden fruit — she does so and then convinces Adam to do likewise — they are reproved by the Lord — the snake is cursed — curses are given to Adam and Eve — they are driven out of the Garden of Eden — the Lord has cherubim protect the tree of life.

¹ The snake was subtler¹ than all the other field animals that the LORD God had created. He² said to the woman, “Has God really said that you shall not eat from every tree of the Garden?” ² The woman replied to the snake, “We may eat the fruit of the trees³ of the garden, ³ ‘but from the fruit of the tree that’s in the middle of the garden,’ God said, ‘don’t eat it and don’t touch it or else you’ll die.’” ⁴ The snake said to the woman, “You won’t certainly die ⁵ because God knows that⁴ when⁵ you⁶ eat from it, your eyes will be opened and you’ll be like God, knowing good and evil.” ⁶ The woman saw that the tree was good for food, that it is wanting⁷ to the eyes — that the tree is pleasurable to make one wise. So she took some of its fruit and ate. She also gave some of it^o to her husband who was^o with her, and he ate. ⁷ Both of their eyes were opened and they knew that they were naked. They sewed together fig leaves and made loincloths⁸ for themselves. ⁸ They heard the voice of the LORD God, walking in the breeze of day.⁹ Adam and his wife were hiding themselves from the face of the LORD God who^o was in the midst of the Garden. ⁹ The LORD God called to Adam and said to him, “Where are you?” ¹⁰ And he replied, “I heard your voice in the Garden and I was afraid because I’m naked — that’s why^o I hid.”¹⁰ ¹¹ He said, “Who told you that you’re naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you to not eat from?”¹¹ ¹² Adam said, “The woman, whom you gave to me, she gave me fruit^o from the tree and I ate.” ¹³ The LORD God said to the woman, “What is this that you’ve done?” And the woman said, “The snake tricked¹² me and I ate.” ¹⁴ The LORD God said to the snake, “Because you’ve done this, you shall be cursed more than every animal,¹³ and more than every field animal.

However, the first definition (which HALOT doesn’t explicitly say refers to Gen 4:7) gives: “elevation, exaltation (to which one raises oneself), ascent sbj. לִיָּתֶן Jb 41:17.”

After all this time and after all the marvelous things that the Lord has given him, when presented with being given more his first thought turns to being childless. For Abram, having a child is his ultimate wish. He’s been promised countless things before — and has even seen some of those promises fulfilled — but his ultimate desire, especially in his older age, is to have a child. Additionally, he’s been promised seed beyond measure. His hopes have been lifted this whole time, yet he and Sarai have never had success in having a child. How heartbroken he must be! To be promised things from God and not see them fulfilled. Did he feel empty? Forsaken? Or did he know that God would eventually fulfill that promise? And maybe he even knew that it might only be a promise to be fulfilled after this life (which doesn’t really work because the promise that he received would require having children while alive in order to be fulfilled). But these things have stayed with him, festered in his mind, to the point that when God promises him a very great reward, he immediately asks how that can be because he is childless.

¹⁵ God said to Abraham, “Your wife will no longer be known as Sarai, but Sarah. ¹⁶ I will bless her. Additionally, I will give you a son from her. I will bless her that she shall become a nation — people’s kings will be among her posterity.” ¹⁷ And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. He said in his heart, “Shall a son be born to a hundred year old man? And shall a ninety year old woman bear him?”⁶ ¹⁸ Abraham said to God, “O that Ishmael might live in Your presence!” ¹⁹ And God said, “On the contrary, your wife, Sarah, shall bear a son. However, it is interesting that Lot says that they are virgins since they’re married. Did Lot have more daughters that we have record? Verse 15 states “the two daughters who are present,” but were there others or did these two (and only) daughters just happen to be present? And why then would the men say, “who are present?” Possibly he was referring to other daughters. Also, was he lying as a last-ditch ploy to save his family? But, if the men of the city did accept, what would he have done? Would he have actually given his daughters to them and let them be raped? Was he going to physically defend his family?

Israel to be a peculiar treasure, a kingdom of priests, a holy nation — they are sanctified — the Lord appears in Sinai.

¹ In the third month since the departure of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, ¹they came into the Sinai wilderness. ² They left Rephidim, came into the Sinai wilderness, and camped² before the mountain. ³ And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus shall you say to the children of Jacob and tell to the sons of Israel: ⁴ ‘You — you’ve seen what I’ve done to the Egyptians, how I bear you on eagles’ wings, and how I have brought you to Myself. ⁵ And now, if you will truly obey Me and keep³ My commandments, you shall be a treasure^{4,5} from among all people:⁶ for all the earth is Mine. ⁶ You shall be⁷ a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you shall say to the children of Israel.” ⁷ So Moses entered in⁸ and called the elders of the people. He laid before them all these things that the LORD had commanded him. ⁸ Then all the people answered together, saying, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses returned to tell the LORD what the people had said.⁹ ⁹ The LORD said to Moses, “I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear my words when I speak with you. So shall they believe you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. ¹⁰ And the LORD said unto Moses, “Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow. Let them wash their clothes ¹¹ because on the third day the LORD will descend in the eyes of all the people before Mount Sinai. ¹² You shall set bounds around the people, saying, ‘Hearken to these words¹⁰ and don’t go up into the mountain. And the smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace. The whole mountain shook. ¹⁹ The sound of the trumpet grew continually louder⁹ while Moses spoke and God answered.¹⁰ ²⁰ The LORD descended on the summit of Mount Sinai and He¹¹ called unto Moses.¹² And Moses went up. ²¹ The LORD said to Moses, “Go down and solemnly charge the people, otherwise many of them will break through, see the LORD, and perish.”¹³ ²² Also, the priests who come near the LORD shall sanctify themselves, otherwise the LORD will tear them down. ²³ Moses said to the LORD, “The people will not be able to come up to Mount Sinai because You have charged us, saying, ‘Make a border around the mount and sanctify it.’” ²⁴ The LORD said unto him, “Go down — you and Aaron with you — and the priests will come up. ¹ These are the judgments¹ that you shall set before them.² ² If you acquire a Hebrew slave³ six years, he shall serve thee; in the seventh year he shall go free without having to pay.⁴ ³ If he comes alone, alone shall he go out. If he is married,⁵ his wife shall go with him. ⁴ If his master giveth him a wife and she bears sons or daughters to him, their⁶ offspring⁷ shall belong to the master and the man shall go forth by himself. ⁵ If the servant actually says, “I love my master, my wife, my children — I will not be freed.” ⁶ Then his master will bring him⁸ to the presence of God, to the door, and his master shall pierce his ear with an awl and he shall be his⁹ slave forever.

⁷ If a man sells his daughter to be a handmaid, then she shall not go out as the bondsmen do. ⁸ However, if she is unacceptable to her buyer¹⁰ (who has taken her for himself), then he shall let her be ransomed. However, because he has dealt with her unfairly, he shall not have power to sell her to foreigners. ⁹ If he designates¹¹ her to his son, then it shall be done to her according to the law of daughters. ¹⁰ If he takes another for himself, then her food, clothing, and right to motherhood^{12,13} shall not be taken away. ¹¹ But if he doesn't do these three things for her, she shall go free without money.

How to deal with lepers — repentance necessary for forgiveness — dealing with women accused of immorality.

¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ² “Command the people of Israel that they send everyone outside the camp who has a skin disease, a discharge,¹ or who has become ritualistically unclean from coming in contact with^o a corpse. ³ Send both men and women outside — send them out of the camp so that they don’t make the camp wherein I live ritualistically unclean.” ⁴ The people of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp. The people of Israel did just as the LORD had told Moses.

⁵ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ⁶ “Speak to the people of Israel. When a man or a woman commits any human sin by being unfaithful² to the LORD and that person is guilty: ⁷ they shall confess the sin that they’ve committed, he shall restore his wrong³ by its total amount plus one fifth, and give it to the person he wronged. ⁸ But if the man doesn’t have a redeemer to give the compensating gift to, then the guilt shall be recompensed to the LORD shall be the priest’s in addition to the reconciliatory ram by which the priest makes an atonement for the man. ⁹ Every tribute offering of any of the holy things of the people of Israel which they present to the priest, these shall be his. ¹⁰ Everyone’s sacred things shall be his. Whatever people give to the priest shall be his.”

²⁹ And Moses said to Hobab,¹ the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, “We are setting off to the same place that the LORD said, ‘I will give to you.’ Come with us and we will treat you kindly because the LORD hath dealt kindly with Israel.” ³⁰ But he said, “I will not go; rather, I will go unto mine own land and to mine own home country.” ³¹ And he² said, “Please don’t leave me because you know how we should encamp in the desert — you shall be our eyes. ³² “If you will go with us, it will be good to you in the same measure as the LORD will be³ with us.” ³³ So they set out from the mountain of the LORD a journey of three days, and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD went before them three days to seek out a place of rest for them. ³⁴ And the LORD, as a cloud, went over them by day when they journeyed from the camp.

³⁵ And when the Ark went forth, Moses said, “Rise up, O LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; yea, let thine haters flee from before thy face.” ³⁶ And when it rested he said, “Return, O LORD, to the tens of thousands of Israelites.”⁴

The Lord destroys the rebels with fire — Israel complains about manna — Moses cannot take the burden alone — the Lord commands Moses to call the Seventy — meat will be given until it is loathsome — Seventy are called and chosen — Eldad and Medad prophesy — the people lust — many are destroyed by a plague.

¹ And the people complained that which is evil⁵ in the ears of the LORD, and the LORD heard it and was angry;⁶ and the LORD’s fire burned against them and consumed the outer part of the camp. ² Then the people complained to Moses, so Moses prayed unto the LORD and the fire was quenched. ³ He called the name of the place Taberah for the fire of the LORD burned there among them. ⁴ And the crowd that was in its midst⁷ as well as the children of Israel lusted and cried again, saying, “Who shall give us flesh to eat? ⁵ We remember the fish that we would eat in Egypt for no cost;⁸ and the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic — ⁶ now our souls are dried up for there is nothing that we can see besides manna!” ⁷ The manna was like coriander¹ and was the color of bdellium.² ⁸ The people roamed and they gathered the manna and they ground with millstones, beat in a mortar, and cooked,³ or made round loafs. Its taste was like the taste of a cake with olive oil. ⁹ When the dew descended on the camp at night the manna would likewise descend upon it. ¹⁰ Moses heard the people crying according to their tribes⁴ — every man at the opening of his tent — and the anger of the LORD was great. And Moses was displeased. ¹¹ Moses said to the LORD, “Why have you afflicted your servant? How have I not found favor in your sight in that you lay the burden of all this people on me? ¹² Have I conceived all this people? Have I given birth to them? You say to me, ‘Carry them in your bosom as a nursing father the infant,’ to the land which you swore by oath to their fathers. ¹³ Where am I supposed to get⁵ meat to give to this entire people? Because they bemoan to me, saying, ‘Give us meat to eat!’ ¹⁴ I am not able to bear all this people alone because they are too heavy for me. ¹⁵ If you deal thusly with me, just kill me — please — if I have found favor in your eyes, that I may not dwell on my displeasure.”

¹⁶ The LORD said to Moses, “Gather seventy men for me among the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders and overseers of the people. Take them unto the meeting tent⁶ and cause them to stand there with you. ¹⁷ I will come down and converse with you there. I will take from the spirit that is upon you⁷ and shall put it upon them. They shall bear the load with you — you shall not bear it alone. ¹⁸ You shall say to the people, ‘Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow. You shall eat meat because you have whined in the ears of the LORD, saying “Who will give us meat to eat? Because we had it good in Egypt.” The LORD will give you meat to eat.’ ¹⁹ You shall not eat meat⁸ for one day, neither two days, nor five, ten, or twenty days,⁸ ²⁰ but for an entire month until it comes out your nose and becomes nauseating to you. is among you and cried in front of Him, saying, ‘Why did we come out of Egypt?’” ²¹ Moses said, “There are six hundred thousand footman among this people and I am in their midst.¹ And now You say, ‘I will give them meat which they shall eat for a month’? ²² Shall we slay all the flock and cattle for them? That would suffice. Or should we gather all the fish in the sea for them? That would be enough to satisfy them.”

²³ But the LORD said to Moses, “Is the hand of the LORD shortened? You shall see whether or not My word shall come to pass.” ²⁴ Moses went forth and he spoke the LORD’s words unto the people. He gathered up seventy of the elders of the people and caused them to stand surrounding the tent.² ²⁵ The LORD went down in the cloud and spoke unto them. He took of the spirit that was on Moses and he conferred it on the seventy elders and they prophesied without ceasing. ²⁶ Two men remained in the camp. One was named Eldad and the other Medad. They were in the register, but did not go to the tent. When the spirit rested upon them they went into the camp and prophesied. ²⁷ And a youth ran and told Moses, saying, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.” ²⁸ Joshua, the son of Nun and the servant of Moses, answered saying, “My lord, Moses, restrain them!” ²⁹ But Moses said unto him, “Are you jealous on my behalf? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would so place His spirit upon them all.” ³⁰ So Moses gathered himself and the elders of Israel ³¹ and the spirit of the LORD went forth and drove quails from the sea who passed over and fell on the camp: a day’s journey this way and about a day’s journey that way round about the camp: ten cubits above the face of the earth. ³² The people arose all that day, that night, and the morrow to gather quail. The least gathered ten homers³ and they spread out for themselves a place surrounding the camp. ³³ While the flesh was still in between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people and the LORD smote the people with a great plague. ³⁴ He called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah⁴ because there they buried the people who had lusted. ³⁵ The people traveled from this place to Hazeroth and they stayed there.

Miriam and Aaron complain against Moses — Miriam is cursed with leprosy — Moses prays and Miriam is healed.

¹ Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Kushite¹ woman whom he married; for he had taken a Kushite woman in marriage. ² They said, “Has the LORD only spoken through Moses? Hasn’t He also spoken through us?” And the LORD heard it. ³ Now, the man (Moses) was incredibly unassuming² — more than any other man on the face of the earth.³

⁴ The LORD spoke suddenly unto Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “The three of you shall go forth unto the tent of meeting.” So the three of them went forth. ⁵ Then the LORD went down in the pillar of a cloud and stood in the door of the tent. He called for Aaron and Miriam and they both came out. ⁶ He said, “Heed my words: if you have a prophet the LORD will reveal Himself unto him in a vision. I will speak unto him in a dream. ⁷ Is it not true that Moses is My servant? That of all My house he is faithful? ⁸ I speak to him face to face: visibly. Not in riddles. He has seen the form of the LORD. Why weren’t you hesitant to speak against my servant Moses?” ⁹ The LORD grew angry with them and He left. ¹⁰ The cloud turned away from the tent⁴ and Miriam was leprous⁵ as snow. Aaron turned to face Miriam and she was leprous. ¹¹ Moses said, “My LORD, please do not lay this sin that we foolishly sinned upon us. ¹² Please, don’t let her look like⁶ a stillborn, half of whose skin is eaten when it comes out of its mother’s womb.”⁷ ¹³ Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, “Oh God, please heal her!”⁸

¹⁴ So the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had spat in her face, would she not be in disgrace for seven days? Let her be removed from the rest of the people and after that⁹ she shall be received.”⁹ ¹⁵ Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not travel until she was received back Scouts are sent to do reconnaissance in Canaan — they perform their duties, return, and give a false report of the land.

¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ² “You shall send men to do reconnaissance in the land of Canaan — the land¹ that I shall give to the people² of Israel. You shall send one man — just one man — for each father’s tribe, each of whom is a prince among these men.”³ ³ And Moses sent them from the desert of Paran according to the commandment of the LORD. All of the men were chiefs of the tribes of Israel. ⁴ These are their names: for the tribe of Reuben: Shammua, the son of Zaccur. ⁵ For the tribe of Simeon: Shaphat, the son of Hori. ⁶ For the tribe of Judah: Caleb, the son of Jephunneh. ⁷ For the tribe of Issachar: Igal, the son of Joseph. ⁸ For the tribe of Ephraim: Hoshea, the son of Nun. ⁹ For the tribe of Benjamin: Palti, the son of Raphu. ¹⁰ For the tribe of Zebulun: Gaddiel, the son of Sodi. ¹¹ For the tribe of Joseph: for, the tribe of Manasseh, Gaddi the son of Susi. ¹² For the tribe of Dan: Ammiel, the son of Gemalli. ¹³ For the tribe of Asher: Sethur, the son of Michael. ¹⁴ For the tribe of Naphtali: Nahbi, the son of Vophsi. ¹⁵ For the tribe of Gad: Geuel, the son of Machi. ¹⁶ Here are the names of the men whom Moses sent to do reconnaissance in the land. Moses renamed Hoshea the son of Nun, Jehoshua. ¹⁷ Moses sent them to explore the land of Canaan, and said to them, “Go up by the south and go up into the mountains. ¹⁸ You shall examine the land, what it is; the people who live there, if they’re strong or feeble, few or numerous; ¹⁹ what the land that they live in is like, if it’s good or bad; what cities they live in, if they’re camps or fortified cities; ²⁰ what the land is like, if it’s fertile or lean; whether or not there are trees in it.⁴ Show some courage and bring back the fruit of the land.” It was the time of⁵ the first grapes. ²¹ And they went up and did reconnaissance from the Zin Desert to Rehob where you enter Hamath. ²² They went up in the south and came into Hebron where were the children of Anak: Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmi. They also brought some pomegranates and figs. ²⁴ That place was called the Wadi Eschol because of the bunch of grapes that the people of Israel cut down from there. ²⁵ They returned after forty days of reconnaissance in the land. ²⁶ They came and went in to Moses and Aaron and the entire congregation of the people of Israel (to the Paran Desert and to Kadesh). They brought back word to them¹ and to the entire congregation and showed them the fruit of the land. ²⁷ They proclaimed to the people and said, “We came into the land that you sent us to. Additionally, it flows with milk and honey and here is its fruit. ²⁸ However,² the people who live in the land are strong,³ the cities are inaccessible and very great. Furthermore, we have seen Anak’s descendants there. ²⁹ Amalek lives in the land to the south. The Hittites, Jebusites, and Amorites live in the mountain range. The Canaanites live by the sea and by the Jordan River.”^o ³⁰ Caleb hushed the people about Moses, and said, “We will definitely go up and possess it because we are totally capable of doing so.” ³¹ But the men who went up with him said, “We actually⁴ aren’t able to go up against the people because they’re stronger than us.” ³² They discredited^{5,6} the land that they had done reconnaissance in to the people of Israel, saying, “The land that we passed through to do reconnaissance is a land that devours its inhabitants. Everyone we saw who lives there is huge. ³³ We saw giants there, the sons of Anak. We were grasshoppers in our own estimation —their’s, too!”

The people of Israel complain to Moses and Aaron, wishing to have died in Egypt — Joshua speaks up in favor of the land of Canaan — the Lord and Moses discuss the future of Israel — the men who gave a false report are reproved by Moses.

Wouldn't it be better for us to return to Egypt?" ⁴ Everyone said to their brother, "We will choose a leader and return to Egypt." ⁵ So Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire congregation of the people of Israel. ⁶ Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, from among the explorers of the land, rent their clothes. ⁷ They said to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, saying, "The land that we have explored is really good. ⁸ If the LORD is pleased with us and brings us to this land, then He will give it to us: the land that is flowing with milk and honey. ⁹ Only, don't rebel against the LORD. Do not fear the people of the land for they shall be our food. Their shadow is turned away and the LORD is with us. Don't be afraid of them." ¹⁰ All the congregation said to stone them¹ with stones. JOSHUA

Joshua commands the Israelites regarding how to follow the Ark — the people are commanded to be pure — priests and Levites commanded to enter the Jordan — the Jordan River is stopped in its course.

¹ Joshua got up early in the morning. He, and all the children of Israel, journeyed from Shittim until they came to Jordan where^o they passed the night¹ before passing through. ² At the end of three days, the officers² passed through into the midst of the camp ³ and commanded the people, saying, “When you see the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD your God with the priests and Levites carrying it, and they journey from where you are:³ you shall follow them. ⁴ However, there shall be a distance between you and ⁴them — by measurement, about 2 000 cubits.⁵ In order for you to know the way that you’re supposed to go — because you’ve never passed over this way before now — don’t come near it.”

⁷ The LORD said to Joshua, “Today⁷ I will begin to make you great in the opinion of all of Israel, so that they will know that I am with you even as I was with Moses.⁸ ⁸ You shall command the priests to carry the Ark of the Covenant, saying, ‘When you come to the edge of the waters of Jordan, stand in the Jordan.’”

⁹ Joshua said to the children of Israel, “Come here and hear the words of the LORD your God.” ¹⁰ And Joshua said, “By this you know that the living God is in your midst. He will certainly take possession of the Canaanites’, Hittites’,

JUDGES

Gideon brings the Israelites to the River Jordan — through revelation, Gideon dismisses men until only three hundred remain — they surround the Midianite camp, wreak havoc, and are miraculously protected through combat.

⁴ And the LORD saith unto Gideon, "Still, the people are too many. Bring them down to the water and I shall refine⁵ them for you there. It shall be that he to whom I say to thee, 'This man shall go with you,' shall go with you; and any that I say unto you, 'This man shall not go,' shall not go." ⁵ So he brought the people down to the water.

And the LORD said unto Gideon, "Any who laps water with his tongue (like a dog), you shall set by himself. Likewise with those that kneel down to drink." ⁶ The number of those who lapped — putting their hands to their mouth — was 300 men; but all the rest of the people knelt down to drink water.

⁷ And the LORD saith unto Gideon, "I will deliver you with the 300 men who lapped; and I will give the Midianites into your hand. Let all the rest go unto their homes." ⁸ They took the people's provisions⁶ and trumpets into their hands.

⁶צִדָּה, from the root צוּד, is not attested in the KB. However, Davidson includes a Hithpael rendering which can mean to furnish oneself with provision (641) from which we can ascertain the root to have something to do with provisions. YLT renders it as "provision" and DARBY renders it as "victuals" so this seems to be verified.

And he sent every male Israelite away, every man to his tent; but he held onto the three hundred men. The Midianites' camp was in the valley below him.

⁹ That night, the LORD said to him, "Get up. Go down into the camp because I have delivered the camp into your hand. ¹⁰ But if you're afraid to go down, then go down — you and your servant Phurah — to the camp ¹¹ and hear what they have to say.¹ Afterwards, your hands shall be strengthened and you shall go down to the camp." So he went down with his servant, Phurah,² to the border of the fifty men who were in the camp. ¹² And Midian and Amalek and all the Easterners³ were lying in the valley like a swarm⁴ of locusts. Their camels are beyond number,⁵ as multitudinous as the sand on the seashore. ¹³ Gideon came and, look, a man was telling his friend about a dream; he said, "I've had⁶ a dream: a round loaf of barley bread was turning this way and that in the Midianites' camp, and it entered the tent, smote it, and the tent^o fell and was turned upside down. The tent had fallen." ¹⁴ His friend replied and said, "This is nothing other than the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, an Israelite. God put Midian and the entire camp in his hand."

¹⁵ When Gideon had heard the dream being told⁷ as well as its interpretation, he bowed down and returned to the Israelites' camp and said, "Get up because the LORD has given you⁸ the Midianites' camp." ¹⁶ He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and gave everyone a trumpet,⁹ an empty jar,¹⁰ and a torch to put in it. ¹⁷ He said to them, "Watch me and do what I do.¹¹ I will come to the edge of the camp, and when I've done that, do the same. ¹⁸ When we¹² blow the trumpet, me and everyone who's with me, blow your trumpets as well all around the camp and say, 'For the LORD and for Gideon.'"

With the lamp in their left hand and the trumpets blowing in their right, they cried out, “The sword of the LORD and of Gideon.” ²¹ The men stood in their places surrounding the camp, the entire camp running, shouted in alarm, fleeing. ²² The three hundred blew their⁴ trumpets and the LORD set every man’s sword against his friend throughout the entire camp. And the camp fled to Beth-shittah towards Zererah, to the border of Abel-meholah towards Tabbath. ²³ Israelites were called⁵ from Naphtali, Asher, and from all of Manasseh to pursue the Midianites. ²⁴ Gideon sent messengers to the mountains⁶ of Ephraim, saying, “Come here to meet Midian. Capture them at the waters by Beth-barah and the Jordan River.” The Ephraimites were summoned and they captured the waters from Beth-barah to the River Jordan. ²⁵ They captured two Midianite officials, Oreb and Zeeb. Naomi's husband and sons die — one of her daughters-in-law, Orpah, leaves — the other, Ruth, promises to stay.

¹ In the days when the judges judged there was a famine in the land. A man of Bethlehem-Judah went to sojourn in the field of Moab¹ — he, and his wife, and his two sons. ² And the name of the man — Elimelech; and the name of his wife — Naomi; and the names of his two sons — Mahlon and Chilion: Ephrathites from Bethlehem-Judah. And they entered the field of Moab and they stayed² there. ³ And Naomi's husband, Elimelech, died, and she was left with³ her two sons. ⁴ And they took to⁴ themselves Moabite wives, the name of the one, Orpah; and the name of the other, Ruth. And they stayed there about ten years. ⁵ Both Mahlon and Chilion died. And the woman was bereft of her two boys and her husband. ⁶ And⁵ she rose up with her daughters-in-law to return to the land of Moab, for she had heard that in the land of Moab the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread. ⁷ She went out from the place where she was with her two daughters-in-law and they went on the road to return to the land of Judah. ⁸ And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law to go return to their mothers' houses. "The LORD will do kindly with you according as ye have done with the dead and myself. ⁹ The LORD will give you rest in your husbands' houses." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept. ¹⁰ But they said to her, "Surely we will return to thy people." ¹¹ But Naomi said, "Return, my daughters. Why would you go with me? Do I yet have sons in my womb that they may be husbands to you? ¹² Return, my daughters, for I have grown too old to have a husband.⁶ If I were to say I have hope, and if I were to have a man tonight, and have sons, ¹³ would you wait for them until they were grown and keep yourselves from a husband? Not so, my daughters, for it grieveth me greatly for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is against me." ¹⁴ They lifted up their voices and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. ¹⁵ And she¹ said, “Your sister-in-law² is returning to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law.” ¹⁶ And Ruth said, “Do not ask me to abandon you nor to turn from following thee: for wherever you go, will I go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people; and your God shall be my God; ¹⁷ and where thou diest, will I die and be buried there: the LORD do to me, and more also, if anything but death parts me and thee.” ¹⁸ When she saw how bold³ she⁴ was to go with her, she ceased speaking with her. ¹⁹ And the two of them went to Bethlehem. And when they got to Bethlehem the city was abuzz about them, saying, “Is this Naomi?” ²⁰ And she said unto them, “Don’t call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty hath treated me harshly. ²¹ I left full, and empty the LORD returned me. Why would you call me Naomi since the LORD hath afflicted me and the Almighty hath broken me in pieces?” ²² And Naomi returned with Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her to the land of Moab and they entered into Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

Ruth gathers gleanings of grain — Boaz asks about Ruth, gives her permission to glean, and has his servants make sure that there will be gleanings to gather.

¹ Naomi got to know one of her husband’s relatives, a man of great substance⁵ from Elimelech’s extended family whose name was Boaz. ² Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Please, let me go to the field and I’ll glean grain⁶ behind the man^o in whose opinion I shall find grace.” And she said to her, “Go, my daughter.” ³ So she went and she came and gleaned behind the harvesters. And it so happened that she came upon one of the fields allotted to Boaz (who is in Elimelech’s extended family). ⁴ Boaz came from Bethlehem and said to the harvesters, “The LORD be with you!” And they said to him, “The LORD bless you!” ⁵ Boaz said to his servant who was in charge of the harvesters, “Who is this girl?”⁷ ⁶ The servant who was in charge of the harvesters answered and said, “The girl is a Moabitess

Also, don’t pass through here, but⁴ stick with my girls.⁵ ⁹ Let your eyes be on the field that is being harvested and go after them. I’ve commanded the servants to not hurt⁶ you, haven’t I? When you’re thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from the water^{o7} the servants draw.” ¹⁰ She fell on her face and bowed to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found grace in your eyes that you recognize me, ⁸a stranger?” ¹¹ And Boaz, answering, said unto her, “I’ve been told about everything you’ve done to your mother-in-law: how you left⁹ your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and you’ve come to a people you’ve never before known. ¹² May the LORD recompense your efforts and may your reward be full¹⁰ from the LORD God of Israel under whose wings you have come to seek refuge.” ¹³ And she said, “May I find grace¹¹ in your eyes for you have been kind to us, and because you have been kind to your maidservant even though I am not like¹² your maidservants.” ¹⁴ And Boaz said to her at mealtime, “Come hither and eat bread and dip the morsel¹³ in vinegar.” And she stayed by the harvesters and he¹⁴ offered¹⁵ her parched¹⁶ grain and she ate, was satiated, and had some left over. ¹⁵ And she stood up to go glean, and Boaz commanded his servants saying, “Let her glean between the sheaves and do not bother¹⁷ her. ¹⁶ And also draw out for her some bundles¹⁸ and leave and

And her mother-in-law saw her and she³ took that which she⁴ had gathered and she brought it out to her and she was satiated. ¹⁹ And her mother-in-law said unto her, “Where did you glean today? And where did you work? May her who helped thee be blessed.” And she told her mother-in-law, “The person with whom I worked today was Boaz.” ²⁰ And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “May he be blessed of the LORD who did not abandon his loving-kindness toward the living nor toward the dead.” And Naomi said to her, “The man that is near to us, he is our levir^{5,6}.” ²¹ And Ruth the Moabite said, “He also said to me, ‘You shall stay with my workers until they have ended my harvests.’” ²² And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “My daughter, it is well that you go out with his maidservants and that they don’t bother you in any other field.” ²³ And she stayed fast by the maidservants of Boaz to glean until the end of the barley and wheat harvests. And she stayed with her mother-in-law.

Naomi has Ruth entreat herself to Boaz, their levir — Boaz tells Ruth that there is another levir who has more immediate responsibility over her than he — he comes up with a plan to redeem her himself — she spends the night and he sends her off.

¹ So Naomi, her mother-in-law, said to her, “My daughter, rest that it may be well for you. ² Is not Boaz our kinsman among whose maidservants you were with? All of my people think that thou art a virtuous woman. ¹² And now, truly I am a levir; however, there’s a levir nearer than I. ¹³ Stay the night. If he redeems you in the morning, great. Then he⁴ went into the city. ¹⁶ And she came to her mother-in-law and Naomi^o said, “How did it go, my daughter?” And then she told her everything that the man had done for her, ¹⁷ saying⁵, “He gave me six measures because he said to me, ‘Don’t go to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’” ¹⁸ Then she said, “Sit, my daughter, until you know how the thing will play out, for the man will not be quiet until he has finished the matter today.”

The other levir refuses Ruth because it would hurt him economically — Boaz redeems Ruth and they are married — Ruth gives birth to Obed whom Naomi takes care of — Boaz’s genealogy given to show that David comes from this line.

Redeem my right⁷ to myself for I cannot redeem it.” ⁷ (Now this was the manner of redemption in Israel in order to effect redemption or exchange⁸ in order to establish anything. The man took off his sandal and gave it to his neighbor as a testimony to his neighbor.) ⁸ The levir said to Boaz, “Acquire it for thyself.” And he took off his sandal⁹. ⁹ So Boaz said to the elders and to all of the people, “Today you are all witnesses that I have acquired all that which belonged to Elimelech, Chilion, and Mahlon, from the hand of Naomi. ¹⁰ And also Ruth the Moabite — the wife of Mahlon — have I obtained¹⁰ to be my wife, to raise up the name of the deceased over his inheritance that the name of the deceased be not cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his place: of this ye are witnesses this day.” ¹¹ Then all the people that were within the city limits and the elders said, “We are witnesses. 1 SAMUEL

Samuel commands Saul to annihilate the Amalekites — Saul and the people disobey God, spare Agag, and bring back some of the animals to sacrifice — Saul is sharply reprimanded by Samuel, denies any wrongdoing, and is stripped of his royalty.

¹ And Samuel spake unto Saul, “The LORD didst send me to anoint thee king over His people — over Israel — therefore, now, hearken unto the voice¹ of the words of the LORD:

² Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, ‘I have reviewed² that which Amalek did to Israel, that which he placed for himself in the way going up out of Egypt. ³ Go now, and smite Amalek and all that he hath; show no mercy³. Put to death every man, woman, infant, suckling, ox, sheep, camel, and ass.”

¹⁰ Then the word of the LORD came unto Samuel, saying, ¹¹ “I’m sorry that I made Saul king: he hath forsaken Me in that he did not keep My commandments.” And Samuel was grieved and cried unto the LORD all night. ¹² So Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul. And it was declared to Samuel, saying, “Saul hath come in to Carmel and is setting up to himself a monument. Then he shall go round, pass over, and go down into Gilgal.” ¹³ Samuel came to Saul, and Saul saith to him, “Blessed be thou of the LORD; I have done what the LORD hath said.” ¹⁴ So Samuel said, “Why then do I hear bleating of sheep and the noise of a herd?” ¹⁵ And Saul said, “We brought them from Amalek because the people had pity on the best of the flocks and herds so that we could sacrifice them to the LORD thy God; the rest we destroyed.”

¹⁶ Samuel said to Saul, “Hold on,¹ let me tell you what the LORD told me tonight.” And Saul said, “Go on.”

¹⁷ Samuel said, “When you were little², were you not made head of the tribes of Israel and anointed by the LORD to be king over Israel? ¹⁸ And the LORD sent you on a journey and said, ‘Go and utterly destroy the Amalekites and all that they hath.’ ¹⁹ Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but instead did fly on their spoil and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?”

²⁰ And Saul said to Samuel, “I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD. I went the way the LORD sent me, and I have brought Agag, king of Amalek, and destroyed the Amalekites. ²¹ And the people took the spoil of the flocks and herds³ — the choicest⁴ part of the devoted things⁵ — to sacrifice unto the LORD their God in Gilgal.” ²² And Samuel saith:

:“Doth the LORD delight in sacrifices and burnt offerings So much as He delighteth⁶ in hearkening to the voice⁷ of the LORD?

:Listen! Obedience is better than sacrifice.⁸ Paying attention is more important than ram’s fat. ²³ :Since rebellion is like the sin of witchcraft And stubbornness is like idolatry:

:Because you’ve rejected the word of the LORD He hath you from being king.

²⁴ Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I transgressed the commandment of the LORD⁹ and thy words¹⁰ in that I showed reverence to¹² the people by hearkening¹³ to their voice.¹⁴ ²⁵ Please forgive me¹⁵ and come with me as I bow down before the LORD.” ²⁶ Samuel said to Saul, “No, I’m not

²⁷ Then Samuel turned around to go, but he² caught hold of his³ robe's mantle⁴ and it rent. ²⁸ And Samuel said to him, "The LORD hath rent the Kingdom of Israel from thee today and given it to thy neighbor (who is better than thee). ²⁹ Additionally, the eminence⁵ of Israel⁶ neither lies nor repents for He is not a man, that He is penitent."⁷ ³⁰ And he said, "I have sinned. Come, now, and honor me before the elders of the people⁸ and before Israel. Come with me as I bow down before the LORD." ³¹ So Samuel turned back after Saul as Saul bowed before the LORD.⁹

³² And Samuel said, "Bring Agag, king of Amalek, unto me." And Agag came in unto him delicately and said, "Certainly the bitterness of death has past."

³⁴ Samuel went to Ramath and Saul went to his house in Gibeah of Saul. ³⁵ Samuel never again came to see Saul, even until his death; nevertheless, Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

King David gathers the people together — they take the Ark from Abinadab's house to Obed-Edom's — the cart carrying the Ark rocks, Uzzah tries to steady it and is struck dead — David rejoices and dances about half-naked — Saul's daughter Michal reproves him — David responds like a jerk.

 wroth with Uzzah, so God smote him there for his error that he died there before the ark of God.⁷ ⁸ It was angering to David that the LORD had torn a breach through Uzzah. This place, to this day, is called Perez-Uzzah (the breach of Uzzah).⁸ ⁹ That day, David revered the LORD and said, “Why should the Ark of the LORD come to me?” ¹⁰ But David himself was not willing to remove the Ark of the LORD to the City of

of the Gittite Obed-Edom, for three months. And the LORD blessed Obed-Edom and his family. ¹² This was explained to King David, saying, “The LORD blessed Obed-Edom’s family and everything that he has because of the Ark of God.” So David went and joyfully¹ brought up the Ark of God from Obed-Edom’s house to the City of David. ¹³ When those who were bearing the Ark of the LORD had walked six steps, he sacrificed a ox and a fattened cattle. ¹⁴ David, dressed in a linen ephod, danced before the LORD with all his might. ¹⁵ David and all the people of Israel brought up the Ark of the LORD while shouting and playing the shofar.² ¹⁶ The Ark of the LORD came into the City of David. Michal, Saul’s daughter, looked down from her window and saw King David being nimble and dancing before the LORD. And she thought contemptuously of him in her heart. ¹⁷ They brought the Ark of the LORD and placed it in its spot³ in the tent that David had set up. And David offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before the LORD. ¹⁸ When David completed offering the burnt-offering and the peace-offering, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of Hosts ¹⁹ and allotted to all of the people — the whole crowd of Israel, men and women — to each he allotted^o a ring-shaped loaf^o of bread, a date-cake, a raisin-cake. Elijah prophesies no rain — he stays with the widow of Zarephath — the widow's son dies — the Lord, through Elijah, heals the boy.

² The word of the LORD came to him, saying, ³ “Leave.³ Turn east and hide in the Cherith wadi⁴ which is over by⁵ the Jordan River.° ⁴ You shall drink from the brook. I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.” ⁵ So he went and did according to the LORD’s word. He went and lived by the Cherith wadi which is by the Jordan River. ⁶ In the morning the ravens brought him bread and meat; in the evening they brought him° bread and meat. And he drank from the brook. ⁷ And it came to be after a while⁶ that the brook dried up because there hadn’t been any rain in the land.

⁸ And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, ⁹ “Arise. Go unto Zarephath — that is, unto Zidon — and dwell there. Behold! I have there commanded a widow woman to sustain thee.” ¹⁰ So he arose and went unto Zarephath, came unto the city’s entrance, and lo! there was a widow woman gathering sticks. So he called unto her and said, “Please bring me a little water in a vessel so I can drink.” ¹¹ So she went to bring it and he calleth after her, and said, “Please bring me some bread in thy hand.” ¹² Then she said, “As the LORD thy God liveth, I don’t even have a cake, but only a handful of meal in a pitcher and a little oil in a dish. Behold, I am gathering two sticks so that I can go in, prepare it for myself and my son, so that we can eat it and then die.” ¹³ Elijah said unto her, “Fear not: go and do as I’ve said, only make for me from thence a little cake first and bring it out to me. Then make for thee and thy son last.

” ¹⁵ So she went and did as Elijah had said. And she ate — she, he, and her household — for days. ¹⁶ And the pitcher of meal was not consumed, neither did the oil dish lack, even according to the word of the LORD that He had spoken by the hand of Elijah.

¹⁷ After these things, the son of the woman (the mistress of the house) became sick. And his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. ¹⁸ And she said unto Elijah, “What’s this to me and thee, O man of God? You came to me to make me remember my iniquity and to kill my son!” ¹⁹ So he said to her, “Give me your son.” And he took him from her bosom, and took him to the upper chamber where he was abiding, and laid him on the bed. ²⁰ Then he cried unto the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, have you really brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn by killing her son?” ²¹ He stretched himself upon the child thrice and cried to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, please let this child’s soul return to him!” ²² And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah and the child’s soul returned and he lived. ²³ And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, “Look, your son lives.” ²⁴ And the woman said to Elijah, “By this I now know that thou art a man of God and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is true.”

God commands Elijah to go meet Ahab — Obadiah and Elijah meet — Obadiah is afraid to tell Ahab about the meeting lest he is killed — Elijah and Ahab meet — Elijah challenges the prophets of Baal to call down fire from Heaven, but they are unsuccessful — Elijah calls down fire from Heaven, commands Israel to follow God, and kills the false prophets — the drought finally ends.

If you find grass,¹ use it^o to keep the horses and mules alive, this so we don’t kill off any of our cattle.” ⁶ They split up the land between themselves in order² to pass through it. Ahab went down one road alone, Obadiah went down another³ road alone. ⁷ Obadiah was in the road and, what do you know, Elijah was there to meet him. He recognized him and fell on his face and said, “Are you he? My master Elijah?” ⁸ He said to him, “I am. Go, tell your master, ‘Elijah’s here!’” ⁹ He replied, “What have I done to be at fault⁴ that you have given your servant into Ahab’s power in order to kill him? ¹⁰ The LORD your God lives. Is⁵ there no nation or kingdom to which my master hasn’t sent you out to seek you there? They say, ‘He is not here.’ The kingdom and the nation swore that they didn’t find you. ¹¹ Yet now you’re saying, ‘Go. ¹⁵ Elijah replied, “As the LORD of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will definitely appear before him today.” ¹⁶ Obadiah went to meet Ahab and announced it all^o to him. So Ahab went to meet Elijah. ¹⁷ When Ahab saw Elijah, Ahab said unto him, “Are you the troubler⁹ of¹⁰ Israel?” ¹⁸ So he¹¹ said, “I have not troubled Israel, rather you and your father’s house have in forsaking the commandments of the LORD and going after Baalim.¹ ¹⁹ Send now and gather all of Israel unto me at Mount Carmel as well as the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table." ²⁰ So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel and gathered all the prophets unto Mount Carmel. ²¹ Elijah drew near to all of the people and said, "How long will you stall between two opinions?² If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him." And the people didn't say a thing. ²² Then Elijah said unto the people, "I alone remain a prophet of the LORD, yet the prophets of Baal are 450 men. ²³ Alright, have them³ bring⁴ two bullocks: they shall choose one bullock for themselves, cut it in pieces, and place it on wood, but they shall not put any fire on it;⁵ and I shall prepare the other bullock, place it on wood, and not light it. ²⁴ You shall call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD⁶. And thus it shall be that the god who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people answered and said, "Sounds good."^{7,8} ²⁵ And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, "Choose a bullock and prepare it first because there are more of you.⁹ But don't put any fire on it, merely call on the name of your god."¹⁰ ²⁶ So they took the bullock given to them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from the morning until noon, saying, "Baal, answer us!" Yet there was no voice¹¹ and no one answered. And they leapt on the altar they had made. ²⁷ And when it was midday, Elijah toyed with them and said, "Call with a loud voice for he is a god and maybe he is meditating or busy or gone on an adventure.¹² Perhaps he is asleep and just waking up!" ²⁸ So they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves (according to their ordinances) with swords and spears until their blood flowed. ²⁹ And when midday had passed, they prophesied until the time of the evening sacrifice, and yet there was neither a voice nor an answer nor any that regarded them. ³⁰ Then Elijah said unto all the people, “Come here.” So all the people drew near as he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. ³¹ And he took twelve stones (according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob — unto whom the word of the LORD was, saying, “Thy name shall be Israel.”) ³² and built an altar from the stones in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench about the space of two measures of seed encircling the altar. ³³ And he arranged the wood, cut the bullock in pieces, and placed it on the wood. ³⁴ ¹ And he said, “Fill four pitchers of water and pour them on the burnt offering and on the wood.” And he told them to do it a second time, and they did it a second time; and he told them to do it a third time, so they did it a third time. ³⁵ ² And the water encircled the altar insomuch that the trench was filled with water. ³⁶ And at eventide, Elijah the prophet drew near and said, “LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel: let it be known today that Thou art God in Israel, that I am Thy servant, and that by Thy word I have done all of these things. ³⁷ Answer me, LORD. Answer me and this people shall know that Thou art the LORD God: that Thou hast turned back their heart.” ³⁸ Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, wood, stones, and dust; it licked up the water that was in the trench. ³⁹ And all the people saw it, fell on their faces, and said, “The LORD is God! The LORD is God!” ⁴⁰ Elijah said unto them, “Seize the prophets of Baal — don’t let one of them escape!” So they seized them. Then Elijah brought them down to the brook⁴ Kishon and slew them there. ⁴¹ ⁵ Elijah said unto Ahab, “Get up. Eat. Drink. You can hear a bunch of rain coming.” ⁴² ⁶ So Ahab went up to eat and drink. 2 KINGS

Elijah is taken by a fiery carriage into heaven — the people doubt him and send a search party out to find his body — they're unsuccessful — the people petition Elisha to make their water potable, which he does — some children mock Elisha and are eaten by bears.

¹ When the LORD took Elijah into Heaven in the gale,¹ Elijah and Elisha departed from Gilgal. ² Elijah said to Elisha, "Please stay here, because the LORD has sent me to Bethel." Elisha responded, "As the LORD lives and as you² live, I will not leave³ you." So they went down to Bethel. ³ The sons of the prophets who were in Bethel came out to Elisha, and said, "Are you aware⁴ that the LORD is taking your master from being in charge⁵ today?" and he said, "I know. Be quiet!"⁶ ⁴ Elijah said to him, "Elisha, please stay here because the LORD has sent me to Jericho." And he responded, "As the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho. ⁵ The prophets' children (in Jericho) approached Elisha, and said to him, "Are you aware that the LORD is taking your master from being in charge today?" and he said, "I know. Be quiet!" ⁶ Elijah said to him, "Please stay here because the LORD has sent me to Jordan." And he responded, "As the LORD lives and as you live, I will not leave you." So they both went on. ⁷ Fifty men, sons of the prophets, went and stood aside, far off; and both of them stood by the Jordan. ⁸ Elijah took his mantle,^{7,8} rolled it up, beat⁹ the water with it, and it divided on this side and the other.¹⁰ And they crossed over on dry ground. ⁹ When they'd crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what you'd have me do for you before I'm taken from you." And Elijah said, "Please let there be a double portion of your spirit upon me." ¹⁰ He said, "You've asked for difficult¹¹ thing. If you see me taken from you, then it shall be so to you; otherwise,¹ it shall not be so.” ¹¹ As they were going about talking, a fiery chariot and fiery horses came² between them both, and Elijah went up in a gale to Heaven. ¹² Elisha saw it and cried out, “My father, my father! The chariot of Israel and its horsemen!”³ And he didn’t see him again. He took hold⁴ of his clothing and ripped it in two.⁵ ¹³ He picked up Elijah’s mantle that had fallen off him and went back and stood on the bank of the Jordan. ¹⁴ He took Elijah’s mantle that had fallen off him, struck the water, and said, “Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah? Where is He?”⁶ He struck the water and it divided here and there, and Elisha crossed over. ¹⁵ The children of the prophets in Jericho, on the opposite bank, saw him and said, “Elijah’s spirit has rested on Elisha!” They came out to meet him and bowed to the ground in front of him. ¹⁶ They said to him, “Please pay attention. There are fifty men with your servants, qualified people⁷ — please let them go. Seek your master lest the Spirit of the LORD takes him and throws him down onto a mountain or into a valley.” And he replied, “You shall not send.”⁸ ¹⁷ They strongly urged him until he was ashamed and said, “Send.” So they sent fifty men who⁹ sought for three days, but didn’t find him. ¹⁸ They returned to him, and he was living in Jericho. He said to them, “Didn’t I tell you, ‘Don’t go?’”

¹⁹ The men of the city said to Elisha, “Look, please, the city’s position is good, as my master sees it, but the water is bad, the land is barren.” ²⁰ He replied, “Bring me a new dish and put salt in it.” So they brought it to him. ²¹ He went out to the water’s source and threw salt in it,¹⁰ and said, “Thus saith the LORD, ‘I’ve made this water drinkable. Death and sterility shall no longer come from it.’” ²² The waters are drinkable even^o until now, according to the words that Elisha had spoken.

²³ And he went from there up to Bethel, and as he was going up on the highway, little boys came out of the city and mocked him, saying unto him, “Go up, bald head! Go up, bald head!” ²⁴ And he turned back, faced them, and cursed them

Naaman, an Aramæan, beseeches Elisha to cure him of his skin disease — Elisha, through his servant, commands Naaman to wash seven times in the Jordan River — at first, he disbelieves, but after being prompted by his own servant, he obeys and is healed — Naaman tries to give a gift to Elisha, is refused — Elisha's servant accepts and is struck with a similar skin condition.

¹ And Naaman the head of the king of Aram's¹ army was a great and honorable man before the his superior officer² because through him the LORD delivered Aram. Yea, he was a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. ² And the Aramæans had gone forth in bands and captured a little maid from out of the land of Israel; and she waited upon Naaman's wife. ³ And she said unto her maidservant, "I wish that my lord was in the presence of the prophet in Samaria! Then he might be healed of his leprosy." ⁴ So he went and told his lord, saying, "Thus and thus said the maid that is from the land of Israel." ⁵ The king of Aram said, "Go! I will send a letter to the king of Israel." So he went and took ten talents of silver,³ six thousand gold pieces, and ten changes of clothes with him⁴ ⁶ He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now, as this letter comes to you, see that I have sent my servant, Naaman, to you that he may cure your skin disease." ⁷ When the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his garments and said, "Am I God? Can I° kill and give life? Because this man° has sent me to heal a man of his skin condition. Please be concerned about this and see because he's presenting himself to me." ⁸ When Elisha, the man of God, had heard that the king of Israel had rent his garments, he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you rent your clothes? Please let him come to me and he shall know that there's a prophet in Israel." ⁹ So Naaman came with his horse and chariot and stood in the doorway of Elisha's house. ¹⁰ Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go.  and heal the skin condition. ¹² Aren’t the Abana⁴ and Pharpar⁵ not⁶ just^o wash in them and be clean?” And he turned and left in a fury.⁷ ¹³ His servant came near, spoke to him, said, “My father,⁸ if^o the prophet had commanded you to do some great thing, wouldn’t you have done it? How much more then when he tells you, ‘Wash, and be clean?’ ” ¹⁴ He went down and dipped in the Jordan River seven times according to the words of the man of God. His skin became⁹ like a young man’s¹⁰ skin. He was clean. ¹⁵ He and his entire company returned to the man of God. He came and stood before him and said, “Please look.

 I know that there is no god in the entire world except in Israel.
 Now, please receive¹¹ a blessing from your servant.” ¹⁶ He said,
 “As the LORD, before whom I stand, lives, I cannot receive it.”
 He strongly urged him to take it, but he refused. ¹⁷ Naaman said, “If not, then please let a mule team’s load of earth be given to your servant because he¹² shall make no more burnt-offerings and sacrifices to other gods, only to the LORD. ¹⁸ In this matter, may^o the LORD forgive your servant. When my master comes to the house in Rimmon,¹³ bows himself there, and leans on my hand as I bow in the house of Rimmon — when I bow in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD please forgive your servant in this matter.” ¹⁹ He said to him, “Go in peace,” and he went

And Naaman saw someone running after him and he got down from his chariot to meet him, and said, “Is everything alright?”² ²² And he said, “Everything’s alright.³ My master has sent me, saying, ‘Pay attention to this right now.’⁴ Two young men from Mount Ephraim, sons of the prophets, are coming to me. Please give them a talent of silver⁵ and two changes of clothes.’” ²³ Naaman said, “Agree to take two talents,”⁶ and he urged him and tied up two talents of silver in two bags,⁷ two changes of clothes, and gave it to two of his servants who bore it before him. ²⁴ When he came to the Ophel,⁸ he took them out of their possession⁹ and put them away in the house. He sent the men away and they left. ²⁵ He entered and stood before his master. And Elisha said to him, “Where did you come from,¹⁰ Gehazi?” And he replied, “Your servant didn’t go here nor there.” ²⁶ He said to him, “My heart didn’t go when the man turned from his chariot to meet you. Is it time to take silver? To take clothes? Olive yards, vineyards, sheep, oxen, servants, maids? ²⁷ Naaman’s skin condition shall cling¹¹ to you and your posterity forever.” So he went out from his presence, suffering from a skin eruption like snow.

Elisha miraculously causes an ax head to float — the Syrian king surrounds Elisha on a hill — Elisha’s servant is afraid so Elisha prays for his eyes to be opened and the servant sees angelic hosts surrounding and protecting them — Samaria is besieged and the people suffer — the Syrian king commands Elisha’s head to be struck from his body, but Elisha is forewarned.

So he said, "Go." ³ One of them^o said, "Please agree and go with your servants," and he said, "I will go." ⁴ He went with them and they came to the Jordan River^o and cut down the trees. ⁵ As one of them^o was felling the beam, the iron fell into the water, and he cried out and said, "Ah!² My master! It was borrowed!" ⁶ The man of God said, "Where did it fall?" And he showed him the place. He cut a stick and threw it out there and made the iron float. ⁷ He said, "Pick it up."³ And he stretched out his hand and took it.

⁸ The king of Aram⁴ hath been fighting against Israel and took counsel with his servants, saying, "My encamping is wherever."⁵ ⁹ The man of God sent unto the king of Israel, saying, "Beware of passing through this place for the Aramæans are coming down thence." ¹⁰ So the king of Israel sent to the place of which the man of God had told and warned him. And he⁶ stayed on guard. This happened not once, but twice. ¹¹ And the heart of the king of Aram was troubled because of this thing⁷, so he called his servants and saith unto them, "Will you not tell me which of us is for the king of Israel?"⁸ ¹² One of the servants said, "None, my lord the king. However, Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the things you have spoken in private."⁹ ¹³ Then he said, "Go and see where he is. Then I will send for and fetch him." It was then told him, saying, "He is in Dothan." ¹⁴ So he sent forth horses, chariots, and a great host, and they came by night and surrounded the city. ¹⁵ And the man of God's servant arose early and went out, and lo! an army, horses and chariots, surrounded the city. Then his servant said unto him, "My lord, what shall we do?"¹⁰ ¹⁶ And he said, "Don't be afraid — there are more with us than with them."¹¹ ¹⁷ And Elisha prayed and said, "LORD, I pray that thou wilt open his eyes and let him see." opened the servant's eyes and he saw, and lo! the mountain was full of fiery horses and chariots surrounding Elisha. ¹⁸ They went down to him and Elisha prayed to the LORD and said, "Please smite this nation with blindness." And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. ¹⁹ Elisha said to them, "This is not the way. This is not the city. Follow me and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." And he led them to Samaria. ²⁰ When they entered Samaria, Elisha said, "O LORD, open their eyes so that they can see!" And the LORD opened their eyes and they saw. And they were in the midst of Samaria. ²¹ When the king of Israel saw them, he said to Elisha, "My father, shall I certainly smite them?" ²² He said, "Don't smite them. Would you smite those whom you've taken captive with your sword and your bow? Place bread and water before them so that they can eat and drink and return to their master." ²³ He prepared many provisions for them, and they ate and drank. He sent them and they returned to their master and the Aramæan robbers¹ never again came² into the land of Israel.

²⁴ After this, Ben-hadad, king of Aram, assembled his entire army, went up, and besieged Samaria. ²⁵ There was a great famine in Samaria and they besieged it until a donkey head was worth^o eighty pieces of silver and a fourth of a cav^{3,4} of doves' dung⁵ was worth^o five silver pieces.⁶ ²⁶ As the king of Israel passed from one side of the wall to the other, a woman cried to him, saying, "O King! ⁵Some translations render this as "seed pods" (NIV) or "wild onions" (NJB), but the KB states that it is "doves' dung" (note that it is given as plural possessive where other translations render it as singular possessive). "The Geneva Bible posits that the dung was used as a fuel for fire. Jewish historian Josephus suggested that dove's dung could have been used as a salt substitute. An alternative view is that 'dove's dung' was a popular name for some other food, such as Star-of-Bethlehem or falafel. A third position, based on amending the Hebrew text, is that the passage actually refers to locust-beans, the fruit of the carob tree" (Wikipedia). The Hebrew here is חֲרִיּוֹנִים (the footnote gives חֲרִי יוֹנִים), meaning "doves' dung."

Then I said to her the next day, ‘Give me your son and we’ll eat him,’ but she hid her son.” ³⁰ When the king had heard the woman’s words, he rent his garments. He passed from one side of the wall to the other and he saw the people and they were covered in sackcloth. ³¹ He said, “Thus does God do to me and more if Shaphat’s son Elisha’s head remain on him today!” ³² Meanwhile, Elisha sat in his house and the elders sat with him. A man was sent before him, but before the messenger got to him, he said to the elders, “Do you see that this murderer’s son has sent someone^o to remove my head? Watch for^o when the messenger comes. Thus saith the LORD: ‘About this^o time tomorrow, a seah⁸ of fine-ground wheat flour⁹ shall be a shekel and two seah of barley shall be a shekel in the gate of Samaria.’” ² The captain on whose hand the king had depended,¹⁰ answered the man of God and said, “Look, if the LORD made windows¹¹ in Heaven, would this thing happen?” He said, “You shall see it^o with your eyes, but you shall not eat from it.”

³ There were four men with a skin condition at the gateway¹ and they said one to another, “What? Are we going to sit here until we die?” ⁴ If we say, “Let’s go into the city,”² then the famine is³ in the city and we die there. If we stay here, we die. So now,⁴ come and let’s invade^{5,6} the Aramæan camp — if we live, we live; if we die, we die. ⁵ So they got up before sunrise⁷ to go to the Aramæan camp. When^o they came to the outposts of the Aramæan camp, there wasn’t a man there. ⁶ The Lord made the Aramæan army hear the sound of chariots and horses and a great army, and they said one to another, “The king of Israel has hired the king of the Hittites and the king of the Egyptians against us, to come against us!” ⁷ So they got up and fled⁸ before sunrise and left their tents, horses, donkeys — they left^o the camp as it was and ran⁹ for their lives. ⁸ The men with the skin condition came to the edge of the camp, went into a¹⁰ tent, ate, drank, and took silver, gold, and garments from there, and they went and hid it. Then they came back, entered another tent, took stuff^o from it, and went and hid it. ⁹ They said one to another, “We aren’t doing right. Today is a day of good news¹¹ and yet^o we stay silent. If we wait for the morning light, the iniquity will find us. So now, let us go and come in and declare it^o to the king’s household.” ¹⁰ They came and called the city gatekeepers and told them,¹² “We came into the Aramæan camp and no one was there, not even^o the sound of a man; but the horses were tied up, the donkeys were tied up, the tents were as they should be.”^o ¹¹ He called the gatekeepers and they told it to the king’s house inside. ¹² The king got up in the night and said to his servants, “Let¹³ me tell you what the Aramæans have done to us: they know we’re hungry and they’ve gone out of the camp and hidden in the field, saying, ‘When they come out of the Let's send them and see." ¹⁴ So they took two chariots and their horses, and the king sent them after the Aramæan army, saying, "Go and see." ¹⁵ They went after them to the Jordan River.^o The entire road was full of garments and equipment³ that the Aramæans had thrown out in their hurriedness.⁴ The messengers returned and told the king. ¹⁶ The people set out and plundered the Aramæan camp. A measure of fine flour was a shekel and two measures of barley were a shekel, just as the LORD had said. ¹⁷ The king appointed the adjutant⁵ — upon whose hand he leaned — in charge of the gate. The people trampled him down in the gate and he died, just as the man of God had spoken, which he had said when the king came down to him. ¹⁸ It happened just as the man of God had said to the king: ⁶ "Two measures of barley shall be a shekel; a measure of fine flour shall be a shekel. So shall it be this time tomorrow in the gate of Samaria." ¹⁹ The adjutant answered the man of God, and said, "If the LORD made windows in Heaven, would this thing happen?" And he replied, "Look, you'll see this with your^o own eyes, but you won't eat of it." ²⁰ And so it happened to him: the people trampled him down in the gate and he died.

On the third day, go up to the House of the LORD ⁶ and I will add fifteen years to your life.⁶ I will deliver you and this city from out of the hand of the king of Assyria — I will protect this city for My sake and for the sake of My servant, David.’” ⁷ Isaiah said, “Take fig cakes.” So they took and laid them on the inflamed spots⁷ and he lived.

⁸ Hezekiah said to Isaiah, “What is the sign that the LORD has healed me? That I shall go up to the House of the LORD on the third day?” ⁹ Isaiah said, “This shall be your sign⁸ from the LORD: the LORD shall do the thing that He’s said he’ll do:^o will the shadow of the sundial⁹ go forward ten or backwards ten?” ¹⁰ Hezekiah said, “It is easy for the shadow to go down ten degrees; rather, let the shadow go¹⁰ backwards ten degrees!” ¹¹ The prophet Isaiah cried to the LORD and He brought the shadow back by the amount it had gone down on Ahaz’s sundial: ten degrees backwards.

³ Uzziah was sixteen years old when he became king. He ruled in Jerusalem for fifty-two years. His mother's name was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. ⁴ He did what was right in the eyes of GOD like everything that his father Amaziah had done. ⁵ He worshiped⁴ God in the days of Zechariah (who understood⁵ the visions of God). In the days he worshiped the LORD, God made him prosper.

⁶ He went and fought⁶ against the Philistines and made a breach in⁷ the wall of Gath, the wall of Jabneh, the wall of Ashdod. He built cities in Ashdod and Philistia. ⁷ God came to his aid⁸ against the Philistines, the Arabians living in Gur-Baal, and the Maonites. ⁸ The Ammonites gave a present to Uzziah and his name went to the entrance of Egypt because he became incredibly⁹ strong. ⁹ Uzziah built towers¹⁰ in Jerusalem by the corner gate, the valley gate, and at the corner, and he fortified¹¹ them. ¹⁰ He built towers in the desert and hewed out¹² many wells because he had a lot of cattle, both in the lowland and in the plains;¹³ he had^o serfs¹⁴ and wine-growers¹⁵

Rehum, Shimshai, and others conspire against Israel to halt the building of the temple — they write a letter to Artaxerxes who commands that the construction cease.

¹ Judah and Benjamin's oppressors¹ heard that the exiles² were building a temple for the LORD, the God of Israel, ² and they approached Zerubbabel and the chief fathers, and said to them, "Allow us to build with you because, like you, we worship³ your God; and we haven't sacrificed since the time⁴ of Esarhaddon, king of Asshur, who brought us up here." ³ Zerubbabel, Jeshua, and the chief fathers of Israel said to them, "It's not for you, but for us, to build a house to our God, because only we⁵ shall build to the LORD God of Israel, as was commanded by King Cyrus, king of Persia." ⁴ And so the people of the land discouraged⁶ the ⁷people of Judah and terrified⁸ them in building. ⁵ They bribed counselors against them to frustrate⁹ their plans¹⁰ throughout the days of Cyrus, king of Persia, until the reign of Darius, king of Persia. ⁶ During the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation¹¹ against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

¹² “Let it be known to the king that the Jews that have come up from you to us have gone into Jerusalem. They’re building the rebellious and evil city¹ and are finishing the walls and laying² the foundations. ¹³ Let it be known to the king that if this city is built and its walls completed, they will not give tax, toll, or custom. ²³ Then, from the time that a copy of king Artaxerxes’ letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews and stopped them by force.¹

²⁴ The work of the house of God in Jerusalem ceased and remained stopped until the second year of king Darius of Persia’s reign.

Haggai and Zechariah prophesy — Zerubbabel and others begin construction of the temple — Tatnai, Shethar-boznai, and others write a letter to King Darius asking for an order to stop the Jews.

¹ Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo prophesied in the name of the God of Israel concerning the Jews in Judah and in Jerusalem.

² Then Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, son of Jozadak, rose and began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets supported them. ³ At that time, Tatnai, the governor on the other side of the river, came to them with Shethar-boznai and their companions; and they said to them, “Who gave you orders to build this house² and to finish this wall?”

⁴ They then said thus unto them, “What are the names of the men who are building this house?” ⁵ The eye of their God had been upon the elders³ of the Jews and they had not caused them to stop until the matter went to Darius. They then sent back a letter concerning this.

⁶ A copy of the letter that Tatnai the governor on the other side of the river, Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites⁴ who are on the other side of the river sent unto Darius the king. ⁷ In the letter they sent to him was written: “Peace be unto Darius the king.

square stones, wood is placed in the walls, and this work is done speedily. This work prospers in their hand.

⁹ Then we asked these elders — thus did we ask them: ‘Who hath made a decree for you for this house to be built and this wall to be completed?’ ¹⁰ Additionally, we asked them for their names, to make it known unto you, so we can write the names of their leaders.¹

¹¹ Thus have they returned the word, saying, ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We have been building the house for many years’² and that a great king of Israel had built and finished it. ¹² But after that, they made the God of heaven angry and He delivered them into the hands of the Chaldean Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who demolished this house and removed the other people to Babylon.

¹⁶ Then did Sheshbazzar come and lay the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From then until now it has been being built and is not finished. ¹⁷ And now, if it be good to the king, let an investigation⁴ be made into the treasury of the house of the king in Babylon whether it be that Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king’s will concerning this be sent to us.”

Darius starts an investigation to find if sanctions were ever given to the Jews to build a temple — evidence is found that Cyrus gave sanctions through a decree — Darius states that this decree is still in effect — he commands that the Jews be provided with whatever they need to build the temple — the temple is completed and dedicated.

¹ King Darius then made a decree and they investigated in the records house where the treasures of Babylon were laid

⁶ And now, Tatnai, governor of the trans-Euphrates,² Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites³ of the trans-Euphrates, stay away from this.⁴ ⁷ Leave behind the work of the house of God; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of Judah build this house of God in its place. ⁸ From me I give an order regarding what you should do to the work of those elders of Judah and the building of this house of God: the riches of the king which are on the other side of the river, the expenses be speedily given to these men that their work cease not. ⁹ What they need, both young bullocks, rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the saying of the Levite priest who is in Jerusalem, let it be given to them daily without negligence ¹⁰ so that they can offer sweet odors to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons. ¹¹ From me I give a command to anyone⁵ who changes this decree: let wood be pulled out from their house and let them be impaled⁶ and their house shall be made a dunghill for this. ¹² God caused His name to dwell there. and cause His hand to change and hurt this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made a decree — let it be done with all diligence.”¹

¹³ Then Tatnai, the governor of the trans-Euphrates, Shethar-boznai, and their companions speedily did as King Darius had sent. ¹⁴ The elders of the Jews were continuing to build and prosper because of the prophecies of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. Since the decree of the God of Israel, Cyrus, Darius, and Xerxes² king of Persia, they built and finished.³ ¹⁵ This house was completed on the third day of the month Adar which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius.

¹⁶ The sons of Israel, the priests, Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity made a joyous dedication to this house of God. ¹⁷ They brought one hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and twelve young goats (for a sin offering for all Israel according to the number of tribes of Israel) near to this temple of God for its dedication. ¹⁸ They put their priests in their divisions, the Levites in their courses over the work of God that is in Jerusalem according to the writing in the scroll of Moses.

¹⁹ The exiles⁴ held⁵ Passover on the fourteenth of the first month ²⁰ because the priests and the Levites together⁶ were ritualistically clean. They were all clean. They slaughtered the Paschal lamb for all of the exiles, for all of their brethren the priests, for themselves. ²¹ The children of Israel — the ones returning from exile, everyone who had separated themselves from the⁷ state of ritualistic uncleanness of the nations of the land — to worship the LORD, the God of Israel, ate.⁸ ²² They held with joy a festival of unleavened bread for seven days, for the LORD had made them happy.⁹ The LORD^o made the ¹ And when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies had heard¹ that I had built the wall and that there was no breach in it (also, up until that time² I had not set up the gates) ² that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, “Come, and we shall meet together in the villages of³ the valley of Ono,” but they were thinking of doing me wrong.⁴ ³ So I sent messengers unto them, saying, “I am doing a great work so I cannot come down. Why should the work cease⁵ while I leave it and come down to you?” ⁴ So they sent unto me — as I’ve said⁶ — four times, and I told them likewise.

⁵ So Sanballat sent his servant unto me — as I’ve said — the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, ⁶ and it was written therein: “It hath been heard among the nations, and Gashmu hath said, ‘You and the Jews are thinking of rebelling. Therefore, you are building the wall and hast been a king unto them. Even according to these words! ⁷ Moreover, thou hast appointed prophets who⁷ call for thee in Jerusalem, saying, ‘A king is in Judah!’” Now, it hath been heard by the king, even according to these words. Come now and let us reason together.”

⁸ So I sent unto him, saying, “No, it hath not been as thou hast said⁸ because you’ve made this up⁹ from thine own heart. ⁹ For all of them are making us afraid, saying, ‘Their hands are too weak¹⁰ for the work — that’s why it’s not done.’ O God, strengthen my hands!”¹¹ ¹⁰ Then I entered the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah (son of Mehetabeel), who was shut up,¹² and he said, ¹¹Some slight eisegesis to get “O God” into this clause, but other translations seem to agree with me. Logic: why would he be asking his enemies to strengthen his hands?

¹²locked in, under house arrest, not going outside

“Let us meet at the House of God, inside the temple.
 So we shall shut the doors of the temple because they are coming to slay thee.
 Even by night are they coming to slay thee.”

¹¹ And I said, “Would a man like me flee?¹ And who, like me, would go in unto the temple to² live? I will not go.”³ ¹² And I perceived that lo! God had not sent him because he had prophesied this word against me: Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.⁴ ¹³ He was hired to frighten me.⁵ That I might do so: sin — that I might have something to go off of to spread an evil report so that they could reproach me.

¹⁴ My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat according to these, their works. And also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid. ¹⁵ So the wall was finished in fifty-two days: on the twenty-fifth of Elul.

¹⁶ And when all of our enemies had heard it, and when all the nations round about us were afraid (and much cast down in their own perception) for they knew that this work was brought to pass by our God. ¹⁷ Additionally, in those days, the noblemen of Judah sent a lot of letters to Tobiah, so those who are with Tobiah came to them. ¹⁸ For there are many in Judah sworn to him: ⁶he hath a son-in-law of Shechaniah, son of Arah; his son Johanan hath married the daughter of Meshullam, son of Berechiah. ¹⁹ They also spoke before me of his goodness and then reported my words to him. So Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

¹A man such as I (or, like me) — would he flee?

Those who follow the Lord are blessed and happy — the Lord knows the way.

¹Happy¹ is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked.

Who doesn't stand in the way of sinners and doesn't sit in the assembly² of scorners.

²Truly his joy² is in the law of the LORD — he ponders³ day and night on His law.

³He is like a tree, planted by streams of water,² which gives fruit in its season; its leaves will not wither.²
He will succeed in everything he does.

⁴The wicked aren't so!²
Because they are like chaff, driven by the wind.²

Rabshakeh comes to besieged Jerusalem, blasphemes against the Lord, implores the people to not listen to King Hezekiah.

The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it." ' ' ¹¹ Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic¹ because we can understand it. But don't speak to us in Hebrew² while in earshot of the people on the wall." ¹² And Rabshakeh said, "Did my master send me to speak these words to just you and your master and not to the men who sit on the wall so that they can eat their own feces and drink their own piss with you?"³ ¹³ Rabshakeh stood and cried in Hebrew with a loud voice⁴ and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴ Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; he is not able to deliver you. ¹⁵ And don't let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD shall certainly deliver us. He will not let this city be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." ¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah.' Thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make a deal with me: come out to me and everyone shall eat of his own vine and his own fig tree and drink from their own cisterns ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like your own land — a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. ¹⁸ Don't let Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Have any of the Gentile gods delivered their land from the hand of the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from out of my hand? ²⁰ Who are they among the gods of the land that have delivered their own land from out of my hand that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from out of my hand?" ²¹ They kept silent and did not answer him a word for the king's commandment was, saying, "Don't answer him." ²² Eliakim (the son of Hilkiah) who is in charge of the house, Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the clerk came in to Hezekiah with rent clothes and reported to him the words of Rabshakeh.

¹⁹ The LORD’s words came to Jeremiah, saying, “xxxx” ²⁰ “Thus says the LORD: ‘If you break my covenant during the day or during the nighttime so that xxxx¹ there’s not day and night when there’s supposed to be.’ ²¹ Additionally, my covenant will be broken with my servant David such that one of his sons shall not sit on his throne. xxxx ²² I will multiply the progeny of my servant David and my Ministers the Levites as unnumbered as the hosts of Heaven and as unmeasurable as the sand of the sea.’”

Nebuchadnezzar has a dream and calls in the magicians and Chaldeans to interpret it — he refuses to tell them what the dream was because they will lie to him about its interpretation — Daniel is called in and interprets the king's dream — Nebuchadnezzar praises the God of Heaven — Daniel is promoted and made great in the land.

¹ In the second year of Nebuchadnezzar's reign, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed¹ multiple^o dreams and his mind² was disturbed and he couldn't sleep.³ ² The king ordered the soothsayer-priests, the conjurers, the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans to be called in^o to tell⁴ the king what his dreams meant.⁵ So they came in and stood before the king. ³ The king said to them, "I have dreamed a dream and my mind is troubled to understand⁶ the dream." ⁴ The Chaldeans spoke to the king in Aramaic:⁷ "O King! Live forever! Tell your servants the dream and we'll make its^o interpretation known to you." ⁵ The King answered and said to the Chaldeans, "The spoken word is promulgated by me. If you don't let me know⁸ the dream and its interpretation, you will be dismembered⁹ and your houses will be pulled down as punishment.¹⁰ ⁶ If you let me know the dream and its interpretation, you'll receive gifts and presents¹¹ and great honor¹² from before me.  before the king and said, “There isn’t a man in the world who is able to make the king’s matter known. Therefore, there isn’t a king or chief, mighty and powerful, who has required¹¹ such a thing from any magician, conjurer, or Chaldean. ¹¹ The thing u that the king asks for^o is difficult. There isn’t anyone else¹² who can make it known before the king except for the gods, but they don’t dwell in the flesh.”¹³ ¹² Because of this, the king became u angry and super¹⁴ furious and ordered that^o all the wise men of Babylon be slain. ¹³ The order¹⁵ went out that the wise men were to be killed, so they requested Daniel and his companions to kill them.

¹⁴ Then Daniel answered Arioch, the chief of the king’s executioners,¹⁶ — who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon — with counsel and good sense.¹⁷ ¹⁵ He answered and said to the king’s officer Arioch, “Why is the decree from before

¹⁷ Then Daniel went to his house and made this^o thing known to his companions Hananiah, Mishael, Azariah. ¹⁸ They requested compassion from before the God of the Heavens concerning the secret — that Daniel and his companions not be killed along with the wise men of Babylon. ¹⁹ The secret was then revealed¹ to Daniel in a nighttime vision, and Daniel then blessed the God of the Heavens. ²⁰ Daniel answered and said, u

Let the name of God be blessed for ever and ever Because wisdom and might are His!

²¹ He alters times and seasons. He removes kings and appoints kings.

He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to the insightful.²

²² He reveals deep³ and hidden things. He knows what's in the darkness,

And now, You've caused me to know what we've requested from You — You've made the king's matter known to us.

²⁵ Then Arioch brought Daniel in before the king in a hurry, and he⁷ said the following to him: “I have found a man⁸ among the sons of the exiles of Judah who can make the interpretation known to the king.” ²⁶ The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name is Belteshazzar, “Are you able to make the dream that I've seen and its interpretation known to me?” ²⁷ Daniel answered before the king and said, “The secret that the king asks for is unable to be shown to the king by the wise men, conjurers, magicians, astrologers.¹ ²⁸ However,² there is a God in the Heavens who can reveal secrets and make known to King Nebuchadnezzar what is to happen in the last³ days. Your dream and the visions of your head on your bed are these:

²⁹ You, O King, your thoughts on your bed regarding^o what should happen⁴ and what should^o be after this: He who reveals secrets has made known to you what is to be. ³⁰ This secret has been revealed to me, not because^o of any wisdom that I have⁵ more than any living thing, but in order that the interpretation be made known to the king: so that you can understand the thoughts of your heart. ³¹ O King, you looked and, whoa — a great statue! That statue was great and had extraordinary complexion. It stood before you and its appearance was frightening. ³² This statue's head was good gold; its chest⁶ and arms were silver; its stomach⁷ and upper thigh were copper;⁸ ³³ its legs, iron; its feet part iron, part clay. ³⁴ You saw until^{9,10} a stone was cut out¹¹ without hands and it struck the statue's iron and clay feet and broke it into pieces. ³⁵ The iron, clay, brass, silver, and gold were then broken into small pieces and became as the chaff of the summer threshing floor and were carried away in the wind and no trace could be found of them. However, the stone that struck the image because a great mountain and filled the whole earth. ³⁶ This was the dream. We will now tell its interpretation before the king. ³⁷ You, O king, king of kings to whom the God of Heaven has given the kingdom, might, power, and glory. ³⁸ Wherever the sons of men dwell, He has given the beasts of the field and the birds in the air into your hand, and caused you to rule over all of them: you are the head of

And yet another (third) kingdom of bronze shall rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰ Then there shall be a fourth kingdom — strong as iron — which shall arise. It shall break to pieces and shatter all things because it's iron. And like iron, which crushes all these, it shall break and crush. ⁴¹ The part made of potter's clay with part iron feet and toes which you saw, it shall be a divided kingdom. But some of the firmness of iron shall be in it — as you saw — iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴² The partially iron and partially clay toes of the feet mean that the kingdom shall be part strong and part brittle. ⁴³ The iron mixed with miry clay which you saw, they shall mix offspring, but they will not hold together: just as iron does not mix with clay. ⁴⁴ In those kings' days, the God of Heaven will set up a kingdom and a sovereignty which shall never be destroyed. It shall not be left to another people. It shall break in pieces and bring to an end all of those kingdoms. Yea, it shall live forever. ⁴⁵ Just as you saw a stone that was cut from the mountain, but not by hands, and it broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold in pieces, a great God has made known to the king what shall be hereafter: the dream is certain and its interpretation is sure."

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and paid homage to Daniel and commanded that an offering of incense be offered to him. ⁴⁷ The king answered and said to Daniel, "Truly your God is a God of gods, a lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery!" ⁴⁸ The king then made Daniel great, gave him many great gifts, and made him a ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ Daniel requested the king that he appoint Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province. And Daniel was in the court of the king.

King Nebuchadnezzar sets up a golden statue and commands everyone to pay homage to it whenever the stringed instruments play — Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego do not pay homage to the statue and are tattled on by some Chaldean men — King Nebuchadnezzar commands them to pay homage to the golden statue, lest they be thrown into the fiery, burning furnace — they boldly refuse while testifying of God, are thrown in, and are miraculously saved — xxx.

¹ King Nebuchadnezzar made a golden statue sixty cubits¹ tall and six cubits² wide, and he stood it up in the Dura plain in the province of Babylon. ² King Nebuchadnezzar sent to assemble the Apharsachites,³ the prefects,⁴ the governors,⁵ the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police officers,⁶ and all the provincial administrators to come to the dedication of the statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ³ Then, the Apharsachites, the prefects, the governors, the counselors, the treasurers, the judges, the police officers, and all the provincial administrators gathered⁷ to the dedication of the image that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up, and they stood before the statue that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴ The herald cried out with force: “They say to you: ‘O people, nations, and languages! ⁵ As soon as⁸ you hear the sound of the horn and the pipe and the kithara⁹ and the lyre¹⁰ and the harp¹¹ and the harmony¹² and all sorts of stringed music, you shall fall down and pay homage to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁶ Whoever doesn’t fall down and pay homage in that moment shall be thrown into¹³ the fiery, burning furnace.’”

⁷ Then, at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the horn and the pipe and kithara and the lyre and the harp and all sorts of stringed music, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and paid homage to the golden statue that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁸ Then, at that time, Chaldean men drew near and slandered¹⁴ the Jews. ⁹ They answered and said to King Nebuchadnezzar, “O King, live forever! ¹⁰ You, O King, have given an order that everyone who hears the sound of the horn

NOTES ON PSALM 110

Psalm 110 deals with the endowment of a king in ancient Israel. Kings and priests were in different orders of Priesthood, kings having a higher order. What is interesting about this is that the differences in the rites for becoming a king or a priest are not that different.

It is assumed that David wrote this psalm before he was crowned (i.e., when Saul was king). As a side note, one remarkable thing about David is that he was consistently obedient to the crown: he served the position, not the person.

The Aaronic, or Levitical, Priesthood was known anciently as כֹּהֵנִי.¹ This priesthood was for Aaron and his descendants: “And Aaron and his sons shalt thou appoint that they may attend to their priest’s office” (Numbers 3:10, DARBY). However, the higher priesthood, דָּבָרָה,² was given to prophets and kings. The assumption is that all who reigned in Israel had this latter order of priesthood.

This higher authority allowed those in its possession to enter the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies without particular regard to worthiness, as compared to those of the Aaronic order who had to be ritualistically and ethically clean, among other prerequisites. However, an interesting story is found in 2 Chronicles chapter 26 where king Uzziah (the ruler at the time of Isaiah) assumed that he had this authority and walked into the Holy of Holies.³ He was struck with leprosy.⁴ One possible explanation for this is that Uzziah was king of Judah, not Israel, and this may not have been sufficient for him to be of the higher order of priesthood.

²As found in Psalm 110:4 as על־דְּבָרָתִי מִלְכִּי־צֶדֶק

³While it is not explicitly stated in 2 Chronicles 26 that he entered the Holy of Holies, it is stated that he went to burn incense before the Lord — something that is done in the Holy of Holies.

⁴Most likely some skin disease (צָרוּעַ) and not necessarily leprosy. KB states that it is “not leprosy: leucoderma & related diseases.”

NOTES ON ISAIAH

Most of the prophetic writings are either in judgment or hope for the people; they are not usually neutral. One theory postulates that there are two Isaiahs: one comprising Isaiah 1–39 and dealing with judgment, the other Isaiah 40–66 and dealing with hope (and possibly a third comprising just 56–66). However, there is plenty of hope in the first section and plenty of judgment in the second section which may controvert this theory.

ISAIAH 2:16

Sailing in antiquity was a dangerous activity — it was taking your life in your hands. Sailors would go as close to the coast as possible so that if the ship breaks up (cf. Jonah 1:4) they could live through the incident by swimming to shore.

The Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament by Koehler and Baumgartner defines שָׂכִיָּה as follows:

Ug. tkt (Gordon Textbook §19:2680; Aistleitner 2862; Driver *Myths*² 160a; cf. Fisher Parallels 2: p. 8 entry 5) < Eg. skty ship (Erman-G. 4:315), see Lambdin Loan Words 154f; Ellenbogen Foreign Words 154; cf. also Wildberger BK 10:94: ship Is 2₁₆. †

The following is from Ellenbogen's Foreign Words in the Old Testament:

שָׂכִיָּה – Ships Egyptian – sk.tj  (ship)
Isa. 2:16 -

The LXX translation of the phrase החמדה ועל כל-שכיות, which runs: ἐπὶ πᾶσαν θεᾶν πλοίων κάλλους, is very remarkable; it incorporates both what seems to be the real meaning of the term שָׂכִיָּה, namely, πλοισιν “ship,” and also what is required by the traditional understanding of the word, namely θεᾶ “sight, view.” The Vulgate renders שָׂכִיָּה by visus,¹ and the Peshitta by “view.” Rashi has a note saying that שָׂכִיָּה refers to palaces whose floors are paved with marble mosaics. This seems to be purely conjectural, and possibly based on the Targum's rendering of the term (בִּרְנַתָּא “castle”).

¹Prob. “views”

The Verses Isa. 2:13, 14, 15, and 17 contain parallelisms, so it would appear reasonable to assume that Verse 2:16 also contains a parallelism that would match the word אֲנוֹיֹת “ships,” so Budde-Begrich (ZATW 49, p.198) are apparently right in seeing in Hebrew שְׂכוֹיֹת the borrowed Egyptian term šk.tj, a word which is attested from the days of the New Kingdom. [See Erman-Grapow, WB IV, p.315.] The Egyptian derivation of שְׂכוֹיֹת was also accepted by Albright (Bertholet Festschrift, p.5) who mentions that H.L. Ginsberg identifies Ugaritic tkt with Hebrew שְׂכוֹיֹת.

Note that the Septuagint allows for the rendering found in the King James Version.

RABSHAKEH

Rabshakeh was possibly an ex-Jew who was sent to Jerusalem because he spoke Hebrew. Some justification for this conclusion comes from the fact that he refers to the Lord by His ineffable name. abshakeh has a hatred within him that is common in people who have left their faith. In Isaiah 36:15, he gives an example of something that Hezekiah would say, but says it in a truly Hebrew manner.

COVENANTS IN ANTIQUITY

יָדַע — TO KNOW

The verb יָדַע has three senses in BH. First, it means “to know (a fact).”; for instance, “To know the time.” Second, it is used with a sexual connotation (to have sexual relations). Lastly, it is used in a covenantal sense — to enter a covenant (or treaty) with someone. Examples of this usage include:

- “And there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph” (Exodus 1:8, DARBY, emphasis added). In other words, a king came to succession who had not covenanted with Joseph: “I didn’t know him, so all bets are off.”
- “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee” (Jeremiah 1:4, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “[A]nd then will I avow unto them, I never knew you” (Matthew 7:23, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “...if thou art God, wilt thou make thyself known unto me, and I will give away all my sins to know thee” (Alma 22:18, emphasis added).

BH does not have a sense of knowing a person, like the French connaître. The closest to that sense is נָכַר which means, in the hiphil, to be acquainted.

In ancient Israelite marriages, covenants were made to God, not to the other person. Therefore, the breaker of the covenant must answer to God.

OATH TAKING SYNTAX

The syntax of oath taking:

“I will not give your grain any longer as food for your enemies” is literally “If I give your food to your enemies and [understood: you will kill me].”

“If I don’t do this, may my throat be slit just as the throat of this animal.”

cf. Alma 46:22–24. “Preserved” is a Muslim, not an Israelite, tradition.

APODICTIC AND CASUISTIC LAW

Exodus 20 and on is all part of a covenant making ceremony.

Apodictic law is the “thou shalt not.” Casuistic law contains situations in which things happen (e.g., if someone does such and such, then such will happen).

MISCELLANEOUS HEBREW TIDBITS

י means that things are supposed to be considered together (like a list).

TABERNACLES AND TEMPLES

Numbers 10:11 contains the phrase מִשְׁכַּן הָעֵדֻת which is difficult to translate. The word מִשְׁכַּן is classically rendered tabernacle, but Koehler-Baumgartner says the following:

dwelling-place, home of Y.¹

It can also mean tomb, sanctuary (especially the central sanctuary of Israel while in the desert), or tabernacle. The word הָעֵדֻת is classically rendered testimony, but Koehler-Baumgartner says this about it:

warning signs, reminders, urgings

Making an idiomatic rendering of this proves difficult because the sense of “the home of the LORD” is important, but also stating that it is a home that is to serve as a reminder or an urging (most likely to be righteous).

In Numbers 12, the term tent is interchangeable with tabernacle. It is also this way in most of the Pentateuch.

¹meaning “the LORD”

NAMES OF THE LORD

ETYMOLOGY

To help prevent people from speaking the ineffable name of God, the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) was sometimes voweled with the same vowel points as אֲדֹנָי (Adonai). More commonly it is written יְהוָה.

The English transliteration is Jehovah, as follows:

יהוה > hw̄y = yhw̄ > jhw̄ > jhvh > Jehovah

The ך was substituted for a j because y is a weak phoneme. The ם, anciently pronounced as w, was changed to the stronger v. Thus did these changes make Jehovah out of the original Yahweh.

SANCTITY

Ezra is one of the founders of modern Judaism — an ethnic religion practiced by a monotheistic people, the Judahites. It is the only surviving ethnic religion in the world besides Hinduism. This religion observed the sanctity of the Tetragrammaton by not pronouncing it. This practice became so strong that individuals who pronounced it would be put to death. The Romans allowed the Jews to stone those who uttered the ineffable name. Christ may very well have pronounced this when He declared, “Before Abraham was I AM” (John 8:58).

This practice continued through the 5th and 6th centuries AD. It is still considered sacrilegious by very observant Jews, so much so that even אֱלֹהִים is pronounced by Hasidic Jews as אֱלֹקִים. In writing, “G-d” or “G_d” is substituted for “God.” However, this practice is not peculiar to Judaism as Parley P. Pratt would write “G-d” when quoting blasphemers.

When reading, observant Jews will say “Adonai” (master, master of the universe, master of an individual) or “Hashem” (lit., the name) in place of Yahweh.

Some Orthodox Jews will not write יהוה because things containing this cannot be burned, erased, or destroyed. For this reason there is a place in the synagogue known as the גִּנְזָה (genizah, pl. genizot) which is used for the disposal of sacred writings. Unfortunately, many גִּנְזוֹת were destroyed in the Middle Ages by fire (either arson or accidental). Fortunately, the גִּנְזָה in the ben-Asher synagogue in Cairo, Egypt (built in the 10th century AD) has never burned. The Damascus scroll, likely part of the Dead Sea Scrolls, was found there because some of the documents belonging to the Qumran community were left there.

Sometimes, especially in the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Tetragrammaton is rendered in the Paleo-Hebrew: 𐤄𐤅𐤄𐤅 .

It is shocking how often the people of Israel, especially in the Pentateuch, blaspheme against the Lord and His servants while using the (according to them) ineffable name of God. Although the third commandment refers to swearing an oath, the higher law incorporates using His name with respect and reverence (cf. D&C 107:4), something the rebellious Israelites clearly disobeyed, possibly helping justify their terrible punishments.

Not much is known on this name. What follows is only preliminary work¹ and is in no way meant to be authoritative.

Ahman, possibly related to אֱמֵן , meaning to be true, to be faithful, or to be realized. May also refer to faith or veracity.

Could possibly be related to the Book of Mormon name אֱמֵן (Omni) which means either faith in me or my faith, אֱמֵן being either a subjective or objective genitive.

DIFFERENT VOWELINGS OF Adonai

¹From Professor Stephen D. Ricks in Heb 432R (Biblical Hebrew Syntax), Summer term 2013.

HEBREW IDIOMS

In Genesis 22:1, Abraham says “הִנְנִי” which means anything from “Behold!” to “I am here” to “Pay attention.” It’s a pretty all inclusive word with “Yes?” being an appropriate, idiomatic response.

AMEN

KB for אָמֵן: surely!, solemn formula by wh. the hearer a) accepts the validity of a curse or oath, b) accepts a salutary message, or c) joins himself to a doxology.

“CALLED HIM”

When it says “called him” it’s always (in the Hebrew) “called his name,” but this rendering just plain doesn’t work in idiomatic English.
