Preface

The Bible

The Bible is the word of God so far as it is translated correctly. Personally, the belief that the Bible is infallible shows a clear lack of understanding and education since the Bible is rife with poor translations, mistranslations, and even typos. However, having the Bible in as good of condition as we have it today is a miracle — one for which I thank the Lord.

Translation philosophy

Growing up with the King James Version of the Holy Bible was a two-edged sword: on one hand, it's a beautifully written and well-accepted version; on the other hand, it's a poetic translation. Personally, non-idiomatic translations show a lack of understanding on the translator's part as to how language works. Poetic translations are difficult to render, but read beautifully; however, they are non-intuitive and therefore not properly suited for most audiences. Therefore, this translation is a rather idiomatic translation with few liberties taken.

The Tetragrammaton

The Tetragrammaton (lit., a word having four letters) is the holy name of God, written יהוה. In Orthodox Hebrew culture it is unlawful for this word to be uttered by man but once a year by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement in the Holy of Holies. Traditionally, the Tetragrammaton is rendered LORD (in small caps). This tradition has been adhered to in this edition except in the case of יהוה אֱלֹהֵינוּ^a where it is usually rendered as “the Lord GOD.”^b See further

^bTo avoid rendering it as “Lord LORD.”

Textual basis

This text was translated from the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia. Inspiration for this translation was taken from the Darby English Bible and Young's Literal Translation. The lexicons used were The Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon, Holladay's A Concise Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament, and Koehler and Baumgartner's Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament.

Footnotes and appendix

Footnotes are used to show alternate renderings and to provide historical, symbolical, and other, expository notes. An appendix appears in the back of the book and contains notes too long for inclusion in footnotes.

Genesis

Genesis 1

God creates the world — the various acts of the creation enumerated — man and woman created in God's image — dominion of the earth given to man.

1 In the beginning, God^a created^b the Heavens and Earth.

2 The earth was formless and void — darkness moved upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 God said, "Let there be light!" And there was light.

4 And God saw the light that^c it was good, so God divided the light from the darkness.

^aIt is not "the Gods" because every verb is conjugated for the third masculine singular, not plural. אֱלֹהִים is the plural of majesty for God. Theologically, Christ created the Universe under the direction of the Father. Although He had help throughout the planning and construction phases, the honor and glory go to Him and the Father solely, not the rest of the Gods that assisted.

^bThis verb, בָּרָא, means to create. It does not carry with it the notion of ex nihilo creation, but rather to organize. This can only be done by Deity — mortals cannot בָּרָא.

^cfor

5 And God called the light, Day; and the darkness, Night. And there was an evening and a morning: the first day.

6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters: let it separate the waters."^d

7 So God made the expanse. And it separated between the waters which are under the expanse and the waters which are above the expanse — and thus it was.

8 And God called the expanse, Heaven. And there was an evening and a morning: the second day.

9 God said, "Collect the waters under Heaven unto one place, and let the dry land be appear^e — and thus it was.

10 And God called the dry land, Earth; and the collection of waters He called, Seas.

11 God said, "Let Earth yield tender grass, seed producing herbs, and fruit trees yielding fruit after their kind (the seed of which is in them) on Earth":

^dlit., the waters from the waters.
^eseen

and thus it was.

12 So Earth brought forth grass, seed producing herbs after its kind, and trees yielding fruit (the seed being^a in them) after their kind — and God saw that it was good.

13 And there was an evening and a morning: the third day.

14 God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of Heaven to separate^b the day from the night. Let them be for signs and for seasons, for days and for years, 15 for^c lights in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate^d Earth": and thus it was.

16 So God made the two great lights: the greater^e light to rule the day and the lesser^f light (and the stars) to rule the night;

17 and God placed them in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate Earth, 18 to rule during the day and night, and to separate the light from the darkness — and God saw that it was good.

19 And there was an evening and a morning: the fourth day.

20 God said, "Let the waters teem with life^g and let fowls fly on the earth and before the Heavens."

21 God created the great sea monsters and every living, teeming creature^h which are innumerable in the waters after their kind and all the winged birds after their kind. And God saw that it was good.

22 God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the waters in the sea and let the birds multiply in the earth."

23 And there was an evening and a morning: the fifth day.

24 God said, "Let living souls come forth from the earthⁱ after their kind, wild animals,^j reptiles,^k and the wild, untamed animals^l of the earth, after their kind." And thus it was.

25 God made the wild, untamed animals of the earth after their kind, the wild animals after their kind, the ground reptiles after their kind. And God saw that it was good.

26 God said, "Let Us make man in Our image and according to Our likeness. Give them dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, the wild animals — over the whole earth. And give them dominion^m over all the 27 God created man in His image. In the image of God created He him. Male and female created He them.

28 God blessed them and He^a said to them, “Be fruitful. Multiply. Replenish the earth. Subdue^b it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, and on all life that moves on the earth.”

29 And God said, “Look, I have given you every seed-bearing herb in the whole world and every tree which has tree-producing seeds. These shall be your food.”^c 30 Every wild animal on the earth, every bird in the sky, all the reptiles in the world — in which is a living soul — and every green herb: these shall be for food.^d And thus it was.

31 God saw everything that He had made and it was good, very good. And there was an evening and a morning: the sixth day.

2 I will give^f My covenant between us and I will greatly multiply you.”

3 Abraham fell on his face as God spoke with him, saying,

4 “Pay attention. My covenant is with you — you shall be like a father of a multitude of nations.

5 You shall no longer be called Abram, but rather Abraham, for I have made you a father of a multitude of nations.

6 You shall be exceedingly fruitful. You shall become many nations. Kings will be among your posterity.^g

7 I will establish a covenant between us and also between your offspring.^h It shall be an everlasting covenant: to be the God of you and your children.

possession for I have become their God.”

9 God said to Abraham, “You and the generations that follow shall honor this covenant.

10 This is My covenant, between Me and you and your progeny,^a that you shall observe carefully: every male shall be circumcised.”

11 You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin as a sign of the covenant between Me and you.

12 Every male in your generations shall be circumcised when they are eight days old: those born in a house and those, not your offspring (the children of a resident alien), that are bought with money.

13 Those born in a house and those bought with your money shall certainly be circumcised. My covenant shall be an everlasting covenant in your flesh.

14 The uncircumcised male, the flesh of whose foreskin is uncircumcised, shall be cut off^b from My people: he has broken My covenant.

15 God said to Abraham, “Your wife will no longer be known as Sarai, but Sarah.

16 I will bless her. Additionally, I will give you a son from her. I will bless her that she shall become a nation — people’s kings will be among her posterity.”

17 And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. He said in his heart, “Shall a son be born to a hundred year old man? And shall a ninety year old woman bear him?”^c

18 Abraham said to God, “O that Ishmael might live in Your presence!”

19 And God said, “On the contrary, your wife, Sarah, shall bear a son. You shall name him Isaac. I will establish My covenant with him and it shall be an everlasting covenant with his descendants.

20 Concerning Ishmael, I have heard you. Look, I will bless him, make him fruitful, greatly multiply him: he shall have^d twelve princes. I will make him a great nation.

21 My covenant shall be with Isaac whom Sarah shall bear to you at an^e appointed time next year.”

22 He finished speaking with him and God left^f Abraham.

23 Abraham took his son, Ishmael, all who were born in his house, those bought with his money (all of the men in Abraham’s house) and circumcised them^g that day like God had told him to.

Genesis 22

Abraham commanded to sacrifice his only son, Isaac — Abraham and Isaac both submit to God's will — continuation of Abrahamic covenant — Rebekah born to Bethuel.

1 After these things, God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham," and Abraham replied, "Yes?"

2 He said, "Please take your son Isaac — your only son — whom you love,^c and get you yonder^d to the land of Moriah. You shall raise him up as a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I shall tell you."

3 So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey. He took two of his young servants and his son Isaac with him. He chopped up some wood for the burnt offering, rose, and went to the place where God told him to go.

4 On the third day, Abraham looked up^e and saw the place afar off.^f

5 Abraham said to his young servants, "Stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go off, worship, and return."

6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and had his son, Isaac, carry it.^g He took some fire, a knife, and the both of them went off together.

7 Isaac said to Abraham, "Dad?" and he responded, "Yes, my son?" ^h"I see the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

8 Abraham replied, "My son, God Himself will provide a lamb for the burnt offering," and they went on together.

9 They came to the place which God had before told them and Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood. Then he bound Isaac and placed him on the wood of the altar.

10 Abraham took the knife in his hand to slay his son.

13 Abraham looked up and saw behind him a ram caught by its horns in an underbrush. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son.

14 Abraham named that place Jehovah-yireh, and it is said there^c today, "The LORD provides on the^d mountain."

15 The angel of the LORD called unto Abraham a second time from the heavens

16 and said, "I swear of myself, declares the LORD, that, because you have done this and not held back your son from me^e — your only son —

17 I will richly bless you. I will greatly multiply your posterity as the stars of the heavens and as the sand of the seashore. Your descendants shall possess the gates of their enemies.

18 Because you have hearkened to my words, through your posterity shall all the nations of the earth be blessed."

19 And Abraham returned to his young servants and they rose up and went together to Be'er Sheva; and Abraham lived in Be'er Sheva.

20 After all this, word came to Abraham, saying, "Milcah has birthed sons to your brother, Nahor."

21 Uz was his first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram.

22 Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel fathered Rebecca. Milcah bore these eight sons to Nahor, Abraham's brother.

Exodus 19

Israel to be a peculiar treasure, a kingdom of priests, a holy nation — they are sanctified — the Lord appears in Sinai.

1 In the third month since the departure of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, ^athey came into the Sinai wilderness.

2 They left Rephidim, came into the Sinai wilderness, and camped^b before the mountain.

3 And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus shall you say to the children of Jacob and tell to the sons of Israel:

4 ‘You — you’ve seen what I’ve done to the Egyptians, how I bear you on eagles’ wings, and how I have brought you to Myself.

5 And now, if you will truly obey Me and keep^c My commandments, you shall be a treasure^{d,e} from among all people:^f for all the earth is Mine.

6 You shall be^g a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you shall say to the children of Israel.”

7 So Moses entered in^h and called the elders of the people. He laid before them all these things that the LORD had commanded him.

8 Then all the people answered together, saying, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses returned to tell the LORD what the people had said.ⁱ

9 The LORD said to Moses, “I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear my words when I speak with you. So shall they believe you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD.

13 No hand shall touch it^b or he^c will surely be stoned or shot:^d whether beast or man, they shall not live while the trumpet sounds^e as they approach the mountain.’”

14 So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified^f the people and they washed their clothes.^g

15 He said to the people, “Prepare yourselves. Do not sleep with^h a woman for three days.”

16 On the third morning, when it was morning, there were noises and flashes of lightning, a thick cloud over the mountain, and the tremendously powerful sound of a trumpet:ⁱ and all the people in the camp were afraid.

17 Moses brought the people out from the camp to meet God and they stationed themselves at the base of the mountain.

18 All of Mount Sinai was smoking because the LORD descended on it in fire. And the smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace. The whole mountain shook.

19 The sound of the trumpet grew continually louder^j while Moses spoke and God answered.^k

20 The LORD descended on the summit of Mount Sinai and He^l called unto Moses.^m And Moses went up.

12 The children of Israel set forth on their journey from the wilderness of Sinai and the cloud rested in the wilderness of Paran.

13 And the first went not before the face of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

14 The banner of the camp of Judah set forth first off, according to their ranks; and over its host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

15 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar: Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

16 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun: Eliab the son of Helon.

17 The utensils of the tabernacle were taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari — who carried the tabernacle and its accouterments — set forth.

18 The banner of the camp of Reuben traveled according to their ranks; and over its host was Elizur the son of Shedeur.

19 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

20 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

21 The carriers of the Holy Place^a — the Kohathites — went forth; and they would be the ones to set up the tabernacle at their^b coming to a particular spot.

22 The banner of the camp of the children of Ephraim traveled according to their ranks; and over its host was Elishama the son of Ammihud.

23 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh: Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

24 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni.

25 The banner of the camp of the children of Dan set forth, which was the rear of all the camps throughout their armies: and over its rank was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

26 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ocran.

27 Over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan.

28 Such were the journeys of the children of Israel according to their ranks when they set forth.

29 And Moses said to Hobab,^c the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, “We are setting off to the same place that the LORD said, ‘I will give to you.’ Come with us and we will treat you kindly because the LORD hath dealt kindly with Israel.”

30 But he said, “I will not go; rather, I will go unto mine own land and to mine own home country.”

31 And he^d said, “Please don’t leave me because you know how we should encamp in the desert — you shall be our eyes.

32 “If you will go with us, it will be good to you in the same measure as the LORD will be^e with us.”

33 So they set out from the mountain of the LORD a journey of three days, and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD went before them three days to seek out a place of rest for them.

36 And when it rested he said, "Return, O LORD, to the tens of thousands of Israelites."^a

The Lord destroys the rebels with fire — Israel complains about manna — Moses cannot take the burden alone — the Lord commands Moses to call the Seventy — meat will be given until it is loathsome — Seventy are called and chosen — Eldad and Medad prophesy — the people lust — many are destroyed by a plague.

1 And the people complained that which is evil^b in the ears of the LORD, and the LORD heard it and was angry;^c and the LORD's fire burned against them and consumed the outer part of the camp.

12 Have I conceived all this people?
Have I given birth to them? You say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom people alone because they are too heavy for me.

15 If you deal thusly with me, just kill me — please — if I have found favor in your eyes, that I may not dwell

16 The LORD said unto Moses, "Gather seventy men for me among the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders and overseers of the people.
Take them unto the meeting tent^a and cause them to stand there with you.

17 I will come down and converse with you there. I will take from the spirit that is upon you^b and shall put it upon them. They shall bear the load with you — you shall not bear it alone.

18

22 Shall we slay all the flock and cattle for them? That would suffice.
Or should we gather all the fish in the sea for them? That would be enough to satisfy them."

23 The LORD said unto Moses, "Is the hand of the LORD shortened? You shall see whether or not My word shall come to pass."

24 Moses went forth and he spoke the LORD's words unto the people. He gathered up seventy of the elders of the people and caused them to stand surrounding the tent.^c

25 The LORD went down in the cloud and spoke unto them. He took of the spirit that was on Moses and he conferred it on the seventy elders and they prophesied without ceasing.

26 Two men remained in the camp.
One was named Eldad and the other Medad. They were in the register, but did not go to the tent. When the spirit rested upon them they went into the camp and prophesied.

27 And a youth ran and told Moses, saying, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp."

servant of Moses, answered saying,

32 The people arose all that day, that night, and the morrow to gather quail. The least gathered ten homers^a and they spread out for themselves a place surrounding the camp.

33 While the flesh was still in between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people and the LORD smote the people with a great plague.

5 Then the LORD went down in the pillar of a cloud and stood in the door of the tent. He called for Aaron and Miriam and they both came out.

TEXT.

1 All the congregation raised their voices and the people cried on that night.

2 All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron. The entire congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt. Or would that we had died in this desert.

3 Why did the LORD bring us to this land? To fall by the sword? That our wives and little ones become prey?
Wouldn’t it be better for us to return to Egypt?”

4 Everyone said to their brother,
“We will choose a leader and return
to Egypt.”

5 So Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire congregation of the people of Israel.

6 Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, from among the explorers of the land, rent their clothes.

7 They said to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, saying,
“The land that we have explored is really good.

8 If the LORD is pleased with us and brings us to this land, then He will give it to us: the land that is flowing with milk and honey.

9 Only, don’t rebel against the LORD. Do not fear the people of the land for they shall be our food. Their shadow is turned away and the LORD is with us. Don’t be afraid of them.”

6 PREFACE. I am the LORD your God. I brought you out from the land of Egypt — from the house of captivity.

7 I. There will be no other gods in preference to me.

8 II. Never make for yourselves graven images, or any image,^a in the heavens above, neither that is in the earth nor the waters underneath the earth.

9 Never bow down to them or worship^b them because I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God: I visit the punishment^c unto the third and fourth generation of my haters

10 Showing mercy unto thousands who love me and obey my commandments.

11 III. Never take the name of the LORD thy God with vain purpose for the LORD shall not hold him guiltless who uses His name to vain purpose.

12 IV. Keep the Sabbath day holy, just as the LORD your God has commanded you.

13 You shall work and perform all your responsibilities^d in six days, 14 but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God: you shouldn't work, neither your son, daughter, handmaid, ox, donkey, any of your cattle, nor an outsider who's living in Israel. This so that your manservant and maidservant may rest just like you.

15 Remember when you were slaves in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God brought you from there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm.^e Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

16 v. Take your mom and dad seriously just as the LORD your God has commanded you. This that your days may be lengthened and in order that it may be well for you upon the land which the LORD your God is going to give you.

17 vi. Don't murder.

18 vii. Don't commit adultery.

19 viii. And don't steal.

20 ix. Never give a vain witness against your neighbor.

21 x. Don't desire your neighbor's wife or his house, field, bondman, handmaid, ox, donkey, or anything that's his.

14 During the people's journey from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests bore the ark of the covenant before the people.

15 And when those bearing the ark came to the Jordan, the feet of the priests bearing the ark dipped into the extremity of the waters (the Jordan being full over all its banks all the days of harvest)

16 and the flowing waters stood and rose up in a heap, far above the city Adam (which is beside Zaretan); and those going down by the sea of the plain — the Salt Sea — were completely cut off. And the people passed through to Jericho.

17 And the priests bearing the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood established on the dry ground in the midst of the Jordan. And all Israel passed over on dry ground, even until the whole nation had completely passed over the Jordan.

Ruth

1 In the days when the judges judged there was a famine in the land. A man of Bethlehem-Judah went to sojourn in the field of Moab^a — he, and his wife, and his two sons.

2 And the name of the man — Elimelech; and the name of his wife — Naomi; and the names of his two sons — Mahlon and Chilion: Ephrathites from Bethlehem-Judah. And they entered the field of Moab and they stayed^b there.

3 And Naomi's husband, Elimelech, died, and she was left with^c her two sons.

4 And they took to^d themselves Moabite wives, the name of the one, Orpah; and the name of the other, Ruth. And they stayed there about ten years.

5 And the two of them, viz.,

Mahlon and Chilion, died.^e And the woman was bereft of her two boys and her husband.

6 And^f she rose up with her daughters-in-law to return to the land of Moab, for she had heard that in the land of Moab the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread.

7 She went out from the place where she was with her two daughters-in-law and they went on the road to return to the land of Judah.

8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law to go return to their mothers' houses. "The LORD will do kindly with you according as ye have done with the dead and myself.

9 The LORD will give you rest in your husbands' houses." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

10 But they said to her, "Surely we will return to thy people."

11 But Naomi said, "Return, my daughters. Why would you go with me? Do I yet have sons in my womb 13 would you wait for them until they were grown and keep yourselves from a husband? Not so, my daughters, for it grieveth me greatly for your sakes that the hand of the LORD is against me.”

14 They lifted up their voices and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

15 And she^b said, “Your sister-in-law^c is returning to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law.”

16 And Ruth said, “Do not ask me to abandon you nor to turn from following thee: for wherever you go, will I go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people; and your God shall be my God;

17 and where thou diest, will I die and be buried there: the LORD do to me, and more also, if anything but death parts me and thee.”

20 And she said unto them, “Don’t call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty hath treated me harshly.

21 I left full, and empty the LORD returned me. Why would you call me Naomi since the LORD hath afflicted me and the Almighty hath broken me in pieces?”

22 And Naomi returned with Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her to the land of Moab and they entered into Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

1 Samuel

1 Samuel 15

xxxx.

1 And Samuel spake unto Saul, “The LORD didst send me to anoint thee king over His people — over Israel — therefore, now, hearken unto the voice^a of the words of the LORD:

2 Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, ‘I have reviewed^b that which Amalek did to Israel, that which he placed for himself in the way going up out of Egypt.

3 Go now, and smite Amalek and all that he hath; show no mercy^c. Put to death every man, woman, infant, suckling, ox, sheep, camel, and ass.”

4 So Saul summoned the people and inspected them in Telaim: 200,000 footmen and 10,000 men of Judah.

5 Then Saul came unto the city of Amalek and waited in a valley.

6 And Saul saith to the Kenite, “Go, turn aside. Leave from the midst of Amalek lest I consume thee as well, for thou didst show kindness unto the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenite turned aside from the midst of Amalek.

7 Then Saul smote Amalek from Havilah to Shur (on the borders of Egypt).

8 He caught Agag, king of Amalek, alive; but all the people were destroyed by the sword.

9 But Saul — and the people as well — had pity on Agag, the best of the flocks, herds, garments, rams, and all that was beautiful and they would not destroy them.

10 Then the word of the LORD came unto Samuel, saying,

11 “I’m sorry that I made Saul king: he hath forsaken Me in that he did not keep My commandments.” And Samuel was grieved and cried unto the LORD all night.

12 So Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul. And it was declared to Samuel, saying, “Saul hath come in to Carmel and is setting up to himself a monument. Then he shall go round, pass over, and go down into Gilgal.”

13 Samuel came to Saul, and Saul saith to him, “Blessed be thou of the LORD; I have done what the LORD hath said.”

14 So Samuel said, “Why then do I: hear bleating of sheep and the noise of a herd?”

15 And Saul said, “We brought them from Amalek because the people had: pity on the best of the flocks and herds so that we could sacrifice them to the LORD thy God; the rest we destroyed.”

16 Samuel said to Saul, “Hold on,^a let me tell you what the LORD told me tonight.” And Saul said, “Go on.”

17 Samuel said, “When you were little^b, were you not made head of the tribes of Israel and anointed by the LORD to be king over Israel?”

18 And the LORD sent you on a journey and said, ‘Go and utterly destroy the Amalekites and all that they hath.’

19 Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but instead did fly on their spoil and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?”

20 And Saul said to Samuel, “I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD. I went the way the LORD sent me, and I have brought Agag, king of Amalek, and destroyed the Amalekites.

21 And the people took the spoil of the flocks and herds^c — the choicest^d part of the devoted things^e — to sacrifice unto the LORD their God in Gilgal.”

22 And Samuel saith:

“Doth the LORD delight in sacrifices and burnt offerings So much as He delighteth^f in hearkening to the voice^g of the LORD?

Listen! Obedience is better than sacrifice^h. Paying attention is more important than ram’s fat.

^jThis is horribly pretentious on Saul’s part: if Samuel wouldn’t bow down to the LORD with Saul, why in the world would he honor him before the elders of the people and all of Israel? It’s like Saul doesn’t think before he speaks.

Elijah prophesied no rain — Elijah stays with the widow of Zarephath — the widow's son dies — the Lord heals the lad.

8 And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying,

9 “Arise. Go unto Zarephath — that is, unto Zidon — and dwell there. Behold! I have there commanded a widow woman to sustain thee.”

10 So he arose and went unto Zarephath, came unto the city's entrance, and lo! there was a widow woman gathering sticks. So he called unto her and said, “Please bring me a little water in a vessel so I can drink.”

11 So she went to bring it and he calleth after her, and said, “Please bring me some bread in thy hand.”

12 Then she said, “As the LORD thy God liveth, I don't even have a cake, but only a handful of meal in a pitcher and a little oil in a dish. Behold, I am gathering two sticks so that I can go in, prepare it for myself and my son, so that we can eat it and then die.”

13 Elijah said unto her, “Fear not: go and do as I've said, only make for me from thence a little cake first and bring it out to me. Then make for thee and thy son last.

14 “For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ‘The pitcher of meal shall not be consumed and the oil dish shall not be lacking until the day the LORD makes it rain on the face of the land.’ ”

15 So she went and did as Elijah had said. And she ate — she, he, and her household — for days.

16 And the pitcher of meal was not consumed, neither did the oil dish lack, even according to the word of the LORD that He had spoken by the hand of Elijah.

17 After these things, the son of the woman (the mistress of the house) became sick. And his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in

him. 1
 18 And she said unto Elijah, 2
 “What’s this to me and thee, O man 3 of God? You came to me to make me 4 remember my iniquity and to kill my 5
 son!” 6

19 So he said to her, “Give me your 7 son.” And he took him from her 8 bosom, and took him to the upper 9 chamber where he was abiding, and 10 laid him on the bed. 11

20 Then he cried unto the LORD and 12 said, “O LORD my God, have you 13 really brought evil upon the widow 14 with whom I sojourn by killing her 15
 son?” 16

21 He stretched himself upon the 17 child thrice and cried to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, please let this child’s soul return to him!”

22 And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah and the child’s soul returned and he lived.

23 And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, “Look, your son lives.”

24 And the woman said to Elijah,
 “By this I now know that thou art a man of God and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is true.”

of Israel and gathered all the prophets unto Mount Carmel.

21 Elijah drew near to all of the people and said, "How long will you stall between two opinions?^a If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him." And the people didn't say a thing.

22 Then Elijah said unto the people, "I alone remain a prophet of the LORD, yet the prophets of Baal are 450 men.

23 Alright, have them^b bring^c two bullocks: they shall choose one bullock for themselves, cut it in pieces, and place it on wood, but they shall not put any fire on it;^d and I shall prepare the other bullock, place it on wood, and not light it.

24 You shall call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD^e. And thus it shall be that the god who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people answered and said,

"Sounds good."^{f, g}

25 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, "Choose a bullock and prepare it first because there are more of you.^h But don't put any fire on it, merely call on the name of your god."ⁱ

26 So they took the bullock given to them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from the morning until noon, saying, "Baal, answer us!" Yet there was no voice^j and no one answered. And they leapt on the altar they had made.

27 And when it was midday, Elijah toyed with them and said, "Call with a loud voice for he is a god and maybe he is meditating or busy or gone on an adventure.^k Perhaps he is asleep and just waking up!"

28 So they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves (according to their ordinances) with swords and spears until their blood flowed.

neither a voice nor an answer nor any that regarded them.

30 Then Elijah said unto all the people, "Come here." So all the people drew near as he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

31 And he took twelve stones (according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob — unto whom the word of the LORD was, saying, "Thy name shall be Israel.")

32 and built an altar from the stones in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench about the space of two measures of seed encircling the altar.

33 And he arranged the wood, cut the bullock in pieces, and placed it on the wood.

34 ^a And he said, "Fill four pitchers of water and pour them on the burnt offering and on the wood." And he told them to do it a second time, and they did it a second time; and he told them to do it a third time, so they did it a third time.

35 ^b And the water encircled the altar insomuch that the trench was filled with water.

36 And at eventide, Elijah the prophet drew near and said, "LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel: let it be known today that Thou art God in Israel, that I am Thy servant, and that by Thy word I have done all of these things.

37 Answer me, LORD. Answer me and this people shall know that Thou art the LORD God: that Thou hast turned back their heart."^c 38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, wood, stones, and dust; it licked up the water that was in the trench.

39 And all the people saw it, fell on their faces, and said, "The LORD is God! The LORD is God!"

40 Elijah said unto them, "Seize the prophets of Baal — don't let one of them escape!" So they seized them. Then Elijah brought them down to the brook^d Kishon and slew them there.^e

41 Elijah said unto Ahab, "Get up. Eat. Drink. You can hear a bunch of rain coming."^f

42 So Ahab went up to eat and drink. Elijah went up to the summit of Carmel, bowed down on the earth, and put his face between his knees.

43 Then he said unto his servant, "Go up^g and look at the sea." So he went up, looked, and said, "There's 45 In the meantime the heavens blackened with clouds and wind, and there was a great pouring of rain. And Ahab got on his chariot and went to Jezreel.

22 And be warned of doing this negligence: why should hurt come to the detriment of the kings?"

23 Then, from the time that a copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem against the Jews and stopped them by force.^a 24 The work of the house of God in Jerusalem ceased and remained stopped until the second year of king Darius of Persia's reign.

Ezra 5

Haggai and Zechariah prophesy — Zerubbabel and others begin construction of the temple — Tatnai, Shethar-boznai, and others write a letter to King Darius asking for an order to stop the Jews.

1 Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo prophesied in the name of the God of Israel concerning the Jews in Judah and in Jerusalem.

2 Then Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, son of Jozadak, rose and began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets supported them.

3 At that time, Tatnai, the governor on the other side of the river, came to them with Shethar-boznai and their companions; and they said to them, "Who gave you orders to build this house^b and to finish this wall?"

4 They then said thus unto them, "What are the names of the men who are building this house?"

5 The eye of their God had been upon the elders^c of the Jews and they had not caused them to stop until the matter went to Darius. They then sent back a letter concerning this.

6 A copy of the letter that Tatnai the governor on the other side of the river, Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites^d who are on the other side of the river sent unto Darius the king.

7 In the letter they sent to him was written: "Peace be unto Darius the king.

9 Then we asked these elders — thus did we ask them: ‘Who hath made a decree for you for this house to be built and this wall to be completed?’

10 Additionally, we asked them for their names, to make it known unto you, so we can write the names of their leaders.^a 11 Thus have they returned the word, saying, ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We have been building the house for many years’^b and that a great king of Israel had built and finished it.

12 But after that, they made the God of heaven angry and He delivered them into the hands of the Chaldean Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who demolished this house and removed the other people to Babylon.

13 But in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, Cyrus, the king, gave an order to build this house of God.

14 Furthermore, the gold and silver vessels from the house of God that Nebuchadnezzar removed from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple in Babylon, Cyrus, the king, removed them from the temple in Babylon and brought them to Sheshbazzar whom he had appointed as governor.

15 He^c said to him, “Lift up these vessels and go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem. Let the house of God be build on its place.”

16 Then did Sheshbazzar come and lay the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From then until now it has been being built and is not finished.

17 And now, if it be good to the king, let an investigation^d be made into the treasury of the house of the king in Babylon whether it be that Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king’s will concerning this be sent to us.”

Ezra 6

Darius starts an investigation to find if sanctions were ever given to the Jews to build a temple — evidence is found that Cyrus gave sanctions through a decree — Darius states that this decree is still in effect — he commands that the Jews be provided with whatever they need to build the temple — the temple is completed and dedicated.

12 Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the perfect God of heaven,^c and so forth:

13 "From me has a declaration been made to all of the people of Israel in my kingdom: any priest or Levite who is willing to go to Jerusalem with them shall go.

14 Because that from before the king and his seven counselors you are sent to investigate concerning the Jews and Jerusalem with the law of God which is in your hand.

^dThe root of this word means "a dwelling place" in all the provinces of Babylon with the donations^a of the people and of the priests shall be freely offered^b to the house of their God which is in Jerusalem.

17 Therefore, you shall speedily buy with this money^c bullocks, rams, lambs, and their presents and libations, and bring them to the altar which is in the house of their God in Jerusalem.

18 That which is good to you and your brethren with the rest of the silver and gold to do according to the will of your God, that shall you do.

19 The vessels which are given to you for the service of your God's house — completely finish it before the God of Jerusalem.

20 The remainder of the needful things of your God's house which have fallen to you to give, give them^d from the treasure house of the king.

21 From me, I, Artaxerxes the king, an order is made to all treasures of the trans-Euphrates that all the requirements of Ezra the priest, scribe of the law of the God of heaven, let them be diligently done

22 unto one hundred talents of silver, one hundred cords of wheat, one hundred baths of wine, and one hundred baths of oil. And salt without writing.^e

23 All that is from the decree of the God of heaven, let it be done with zeal^f to the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath upon the kingdom of the king and his sons?

24 We are informing you that there is no officer to lift a tribute or tax upon all the priests, Levites, singers, gate keepers, sanctuary servants, and servants of this house of God.

25 You, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your God which is in your hand, place judges and magistrates who will judge all the people of the trans-Euphrates and all who know the laws of your God; and unto those who don't know, teach them.

26 All who will not do the law of your God and the law of the king with exactness, let judgment come upon the, whether to death, banishment, or a fine of riches and a bond."

Nehemiah 6

TEXT.

1 And when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies had heard^a that I had built the wall and that there was no breach in it (also, up until that time^b I had not set up the gates)

2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, “Come, and we shall meet together in the villages of^c the valley of Ono,” but they were thinking of doing me wrong.^d

3 So I sent messengers unto them, saying, “I am doing a great work so I cannot come down. Why should the work cease^e while I leave it and come down to you?”

4 So they sent unto me — as I’ve said^f — four times, and I told them likewise.

^aWhen it was heard by ^buntil then

^dthinking to do evil unto me.

^e*sabbath* is used here. That is the concept being conveyed.

^faccording to this word

5 So Sanballat sent his servant unto me — as I’ve said — the fifth time with an open letter in his hand,

6 and it was written therein: “It hath been heard among the nations, and Gashmu hath said, ‘You and the Jews are thinking of rebelling. Therefore, you are building the wall and hast been a king unto them. Even according to these words!’

7 Moreover, thou hast appointed prophets who^g call for thee in Jerusalem, saying, “A king is in Judah!”” Now, it hath been heard by the king, even according to these words. Come now and let us reason together.”

8 So I sent unto him, saying, “No, it hath not been as thou hast said^h because you’ve made this upⁱ from thine own heart.

9 For all of them are making us afraid, saying, ‘Their hands are too weak^j for the work — that’s why it’s not done.' O God, strengthen my hands!"^a 10 Then I entered the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah (son of Mehetabeel), who was shut up,^b and he said,

^gto

:"Let us meet at the House of God, Inside the temple.

:So we shall shut the doors of the temple Because they are coming to slay thee.

:Even by night are they coming to slay thee."

11 And I said, "Would a man like me flee?^c And who, like me, would go in unto the temple to^d live? I will not go."^e

12 And I perceived that lo! God had not sent him because he had prophesied this word against me: Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.^f

13 He was hired to frighten me.^g That I might do so: sin — that I might have something to go off of to spread an evil report so that they could reproach me.

14 My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat according to these, their works. And also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

15 So the wall was finished in fifty-two days: on the twenty-fifth of Elul.

16 And when all of our enemies had heard it, and when all the nations round about us were afraid (and much cast down in their own perception) for they knew that this work was brought to pass by our God.

17 Additionally, in those days, the noblemen of Judah sent a lot of letters to Tobiah, so those who are with Tobiah came to them.

18 For there are many in Judah sworn to him: ^hhe hath a son-in-law of Shechaniah, son of Arah; his son Johanan hath married the daughter of Meshullam, son of Berechiah.

19 They also spoke before me of his goodness and then reported my words to him. So Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

^aSome slight eisegesis to get "O God" into this clause, but other translations seem to agree with me. Logic: why would he be asking his enemies to strengthen his hands?

^blocked in, under house arrest, not going outside

13	37 You, O king, king of kings to

16	38 Wherever the sons of men dwell,
17	He has given the beasts of the field and

20	you are the head of gold.
21	39 Another, lower kingdom shall

(third) kingdom of bronze shall rule over all the earth.

40 Then there shall be a fourth kingdom — strong as iron — which shall arise. It shall break to pieces and shatter all things because it's iron. And like iron, which crushes all these, it shall break and crush.

41 The part made of potter's clay with part iron feet and toes which you saw, it shall be a divided kingdom. But some of the firmness of iron shall be in it — as you saw — iron mixed with miry clay.

42 The partially iron and partially clay toes of the feet mean that the kingdom shall be part strong and part brittle.

43 The iron mixed with miry clay which you saw, they shall mix off-spring, but they will not hold together: just as iron does not mix with clay.

44 In those kings' days, the God of Heaven will set up a kingdom and a sovereignty which shall never be destroyed. It shall not be left to another people. It shall break in pieces and bring to an end all of those kingdoms. Yea, it shall live forever.

45 Just as you saw a stone that was cut from the mountain, but not by hands, and it broke the iron, bronze, clay, silver, and gold in pieces, a great God has made known to the king what shall be hereafter: the dream is certain and its interpretation is sure."

46 Then King Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face and payed homage to Daniel and commanded that an offering of incense be offered to him.

47 The king answered and said to Daniel, "Truly your God is a God of gods, a lord of kings, and a revealer of mysteries, for you have been able to reveal this mystery!"

48 The king then made Daniel great, gave him many great gifts, and made him a ruler over the whole province of Babylon and chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon.

49 Daniel requested the king that he appoint Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego over the affairs of the province. And Daniel was in the court of the king.

Appendix A: Notes on Psalm 110

Psalm 110 deals with the endowment of a king in ancient Israel. Kings and priests were in different orders of Priesthood, kings having a higher order. What is interesting about this is that the differences in the rites for becoming a king or a priest are not that different.

It is assumed that David wrote this psalm before he was crowned (i.e., when Saul was king). As a side note, one remarkable thing about David is that he was consistently obedient to the crown: he served the position, not the person.

The Aaronic, or Levitical, Priesthood was known anciently as כֹּהֵנָה.^a This priesthood was for Aaron and his descendants: “And Aaron and his sons shalt thou appoint that they may attend to their priest’s office” (Numbers 3:10, DARBY). However, the higher priesthood, דְּבָרָה,^b was given to prophets and kings. The assumption is that all who reigned in Israel had this latter order of priesthood.

This higher authority allowed those in its possession to enter the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies without particular regard to worthiness, as compared to those of the Aaronic order who had to be ritualistically and ethically clean, among other prerequisites. However, an interesting story is found in 2 Chronicles chapter 26 where king Uzziah (the ruler at the time of Isaiah) assumed that he had this authority and walked into the Holy of Holies.^c He was struck with leprosy.^d One possible explanation for this is that Uzziah was king of Judah, not Israel, and this may not have been sufficient for him to be of the higher order of priesthood.

^afrom the root כהן, meaning priest.

^bAs found in Psalm 110:4 as עַל־דְּבָרָתִי מִלְכִּי־צֶדֶק

^cWhile it is not explicitly stated in 2 Chronicles 26 that he entered the Holy of Holies, it is stated that he went to burn incense before the Lord — something that is done in the Holy of Holies.

^dMost likely some skin disease (צָרוּעַ) and not necessarily leprosy

Appendix B: Notes on Isaiah

Most of the prophetic writings are either in judgment or hope for the people; they are not usually neutral. One theory postulates that there are two Isaiahs: one comprising Isaiah 1–39 and dealing with judgment, the other Isaiah 40–66 and dealing with hope (and possibly a third comprising just 56–66). However, there is plenty of hope in the first section and plenty of judgment in the second section which may controvert this theory.

Isaiah 2:16

Sailing in antiquity was a dangerous activity — it was taking your life in your hands. Sailors would go as close to the coast as possible so that if the ship breaks up (cf. Jonah 1:4) they could live through the incident by swimming to shore.

The Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament by Koehler and Baumgartner defines שְׂכִיָּה as follows:

Ug. tkt (Gordon Textbook §19:2680; Aistleitner 2862; Driver *Myths*² 160a; cf. Fisher Parallels 2: p. 8 entry 5) < Eg. śkty ship (Erman-G. 4:315), see Lambdin Loan Words 154f; Ellenbogen Foreign Words 154; cf. also Wildberger BK 10:94: ship Is 2₁₆. †

The following is from Ellenbogen's Foreign Words in the Old Testament:

שְׂכִיָּה – Ships

Egyptian – śk.tj  (ship)

Isa. 2:16 -

The LXX translation of the phrase וְעַל כָּל־שְׂכִיּוֹת הַחֲמָדָה, which runs: ἐπὶ πᾶσαν θέαν πλοίων κάλλους, is very remarkable; it incorporates both what seems to be the real meaning of the term שְׂכִיָּה, namely, πλοῖον “ship,” and also what is required by the traditional understanding of the word, namely θέα “sight, view.” The Vulgate renders שְׂכִיָּה by visus,^a and the Peshitta by “view.” Rashi has a note saying that שְׂכִיָּה refers to palaces whose floors are paved with marble mosaics. This seems to be purely conjectural, and possibly based on the Targum's rendering of the term (בִּירְנַתָּא "castle").

The Verses Isa. 2:13, 14, 15, and 17 contain parallelisms, so it would appear reasonable to assume that Verse 2:16 also contains a parallelism that would match the word אֲנִיּוֹת "ships," so Budde-Begrich (ZATW 49, p.198) are apparently right in seeing in Hebrew שְׂכוֹת the borrowed Egyptian term šk.tj, a word which is attested from the days of the New Kingdom. [See Erman-Grapow, WB IV, p.315.] The Egyptian derivation of שְׂכוֹת was also accepted by Albright (Bertholet Festschrift, p.5) who mentions that H.L. Ginsberg identifies Ugaritic tkt with Hebrew שְׂכוֹת.

Note that the Septuagint allows for the rendering found in the King James Version.

Appendix C: Aramaic in the Old Testament

Appendix D: Covenants in Antiquity

יָדַע — to know

The verb יָדַע has three senses in BH. First, it means “to know (a fact).”; for instance, “To know the time.” Second, it is used with a sexual connotation (to have sexual relations). Lastly, it is used in a covenantal sense — to enter a covenant (or treaty) with someone. Examples of this usage include:

- “And there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph” (Exodus 1:8, DARBY, emphasis added). In other words, a king came to succession who had not covenanted with Joseph: “I didn’t know him, so all bets are off.”
- “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee” (Jeremiah 1:4, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “[A]nd then will I avow unto them, I never knew you” (Matthew 7:23, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “...if thou art God, wilt thou make thyself known unto me, and I will give away all my sins to know thee” (Alma 22:18, emphasis added).

BH does not have a sense of knowing a person, like the French connaître. The closest to that sense is נָכַר which means, in the hiphil, to be acquainted.

In ancient Israelite marriages, covenants were made to God, not to the other person. Therefore, the breaker of the covenant must answer to God.

Oath taking syntax

The syntax of oath taking:

“I will not give your grain any longer as food for your enemies” is literally “If I give your food to your enemies and [understood: you will kill me].”

“If I don’t do this, may my throat be slit just as the throat of this animal.”
cf. Alma 46:22–24. “Preserved” is a Muslim, not an Israelite, tradition.

In Numbers 12, the term tent is interchangeable with tabernacle. It is also this way in most of the Pentateuch.

The Tetragrammaton

Etymology

To help prevent people from speaking the ineffable name of God, the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) was sometimes voweled with the same vowel points as אֲדֹנָי (Adonai). More commonly it is written יְהוָה.

The English transliteration is Jehovah, as follows:

יהוה > hwhy = yhwh > jhwh > jhvh > Jehovah

The ך was substituted for a j because y is a weak phoneme. The ך, anciently pronounced as w, was changed to the stronger v. Thus did these changes make Jehovah out of the original Yahweh.

Sanctity

Ezra is one of the founders of modern Judaism — an ethnic religion practiced by a monotheistic people, the Judahites. It is the only surviving ethnic religion in the world besides Hinduism. This religion observed the sanctity of the Tetragrammaton by not pronouncing it. This practice became so strong that individuals who pronounced it would be put to death. The Romans allowed the Jews to stone those who uttered the ineffable name. Christ may very well have pronounced this when He declared, “Before Abraham was I AM” (John 8:58).

This practice continued through the 5th and 6th centuries AD. It is still considered sacrilegious by very observant Jews, so much so that even אֱלֹהִים is pronounced by Hasidic Jews as אֱלֹקִים. In writing, “G-d” or “G_d” is substituted for “God.” However, this practice is not peculiar to Judaism as Parley P. Pratt would write “G-d” when quoting blasphemers.

When reading, observant Jews will say “Adonai” (master, master of the universe, master of an individual) or “Hashem” (lit., the name) in place of Yahweh.

Some Orthodox Jews will not write יהוה because things containing this cannot be burned, erased, or destroyed. For this reason there is a place in the synagogue known as the גִּנְזָה (genizah, pl. genizot) which is used for the disposal of sacred writings. Unfortunately, many גִּנְזוֹת were destroyed in the Middle Ages by fire (either arson or accidental). Fortunately, the גִּנְזָה in the ben-Asher synagogue in Cairo, Egypt (built in the 10th century AD) has never burned. The Damascus scroll, likely part of the Dead Sea Scrolls, was found there because some of the documents belonging to the Qumran community were left there.

Sometimes, especially in the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Tetragrammaton is rendered in the Paleo-Hebrew: טיףטל.

It is shocking how often the people of Israel, especially in the Pentateuch, blaspheme against the Lord and His servants while using the (according to them) ineffable name of God. Although the third commandment refers to swearing an oath, the higher law incorporates using His name with respect and reverence (cf. D&C 107:4), something the rebellious Israelites clearly disobeyed, possibly helping justify their terrible punishments.

Ahman

Not much is known on this name. What follows is only preliminary work^a and is in no way meant to be authoritative.

Ahman, possibly related to אֱמֵן, meaning to be true, to be faithful, or to be realized. May also refer to faith or veracity.

Could possibly be related to the Book of Mormon name אֱמֵנִי (Omni) which means either faith in me or my faith, אֱמֵנִי being either a subjective or objective genitive.

הִנֵּנִי

In Genesis 22:1, Abraham says “הִנֵּנִי” which means anything from “Behold!” to “I am here” to “Pay attention.” It’s a pretty all inclusive word with “Yes?” being an appropriate, idiomatic response.
