PREFACE

THE BIBLE

The Bible is the word of God so far as it is translated correctly. Personally, the belief that the Bible is infallible shows a clear lack of understanding and education since the Bible is rife with poor translations, mistranslations, and even typos. However, having the Bible in as good of condition as we have it today is a miracle — one for which I thank the Lord.

TRANSLATION PHILOSOPHY

Growing up with the King James Version of the Holy Bible was a two-edged sword: on one hand, it's a beautifully written and well-accepted version; on the other hand, it's a poetic translation. Personally, non-idiomatic translations show a lack of understanding on the translator's part as to how language works. Poetic translations are difficult to render, but read beautifully; however, they are non-intuitive and therefore not properly suited for most audiences. Therefore, this translation is a rather idiomatic translation with few liberties taken.

THE TETRAGRAMMATON

The Tetragrammaton (lit., a word having four letters) is the holy name of God, written יהוה. In Orthodox Hebrew culture it is unlawful for this word to be uttered by man but once a year by the High Priest on the Day of Atonement in the Holy of Holies. Traditionally, the Tetragrammaton is rendered LORD (in small caps). This tradition has been adhered to in this edition except in the case of יהוה אֱלֹהֵינוּ¹ where it is usually rendered as “the Lord GOD.”² See further in Appendix E.

TEXTUAL BASIS

This text was translated from the Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia. Inspiration for this translation was taken from the Darby English Bible and Young's Literal Translation. The lexicons used were The Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English

God creates the world — the various acts of the creation enumerated — man and woman created in God's image — dominion of the earth given to man.

[1] In the beginning, God¹ created² the Heavens and Earth. [2] The earth was formless and void — darkness moved upon the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters. [3] God said, “Let there be light!” And there was light. [4] And God saw the light that³ it was good, so God divided the light from the darkness. [5] And God called the light, Day; and the darkness, Night. And there was an evening and a morning: the first day.

[6] And God said, “Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters: let it separate the waters.”⁴ [7] So God made the expanse. And it separated between the waters which are under the expanse and the waters which are above the expanse — and thus it was. [8] And God called the expanse, Heaven. And there was an evening and a morning: the second day.

[9] God said, “Collect the waters under Heaven unto one place, and let the dry land be appear⁵ — and thus it was. [10] And God called the dry land, Earth; and the collection of waters He called, Seas. [11] God said, “Let Earth yield tender grass, seed producing herbs, and fruit trees yielding fruit after their kind (the seed of which is in them) on Earth”: and thus it was. [12] So Earth brought forth grass, seed producing herbs after its kind, and trees yielding fruit (the seed being⁶ in them) after their kind — and God saw that it was good. [13] And there was an evening and a morning: the third day.

¹It is not “the Gods” because every verb is conjugated for the third masculine singular, not plural. אֱלֹהִים is the plural of majesty for God. Theologically, Christ created the Universe under the direction of the Father. Although He had help throughout the planning and construction phases, the honor and glory go to Him and the Father solely, not the rest of the Gods that assisted.

²This verb, בָּרָא, means to create. It does not carry with it the notion of ex nihilo creation, but rather to organize. This can only be done by Deity — mortals cannot בָּרָא.

[14] God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of Heaven to separate¹ the day from the night. Let them be for signs and for seasons, for days and for years, [15] for² lights in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate³ Earth": and thus it was. [16] So God made the two great lights: the greater⁴ light to rule the day and the lesser⁵ light (and the stars) to rule the night; [17] and God placed them in the expanse of Heaven to illuminate Earth, [18] to rule during the day and night, and to separate the light from the darkness — and God saw that it was good. [19] And there was an evening and a morning: the fourth day.

[20] God said, "Let the waters teem with life⁶ and let fowls fly on the earth and before the Heavens." [21] God created the great sea monsters and every living, teeming creature⁷ which are innumerable in the waters after their kind and all the winged birds after their kind. And God saw that it was good. [22] God blessed them, saying, "Be fruitful and multiply. Fill the waters in the sea and let the birds multiply in the earth." [23] And there was an evening and a morning: the fifth day.

[24] God made the wild, untamed animals of the earth after their kind, the wild animals after their kind, the ground reptiles after their kind. And God saw that it was good. [25] God said, "Let Us make man in Our image and according to Our likeness. Give them dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, the wild animals — over the whole earth. And give them dominion⁸ over all the reptiles which creep upon the earth." [26] God created man in His image. In the image of God created He him. Male and female created He them. [27] God blessed them and He⁹ said to them, "Be fruitful. Multiply. Replenish the earth. Subdue¹⁰ it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, the birds in the sky, and on all life that moves on the earth." [28] And God said, "Look, I have given you every seed-bearing herb in the whole world and every tree which has tree-producing seeds. These shall be your food."¹¹ [29] Every wild animal on the earth, every bird in the sky, all the reptiles in the world —

The Lord commands Abram to be perfect — continuation of Abrahamic covenant — name changed to Abraham — Canaan given to Abraham — covenant of circumcision set forth — Sarai changed to Sarah — Isaac promised — covenant to continue through him — Abraham and his household are circumcised.

[1] Abraham was 99 years old when the LORD appeared to him. He said, “I am God Almighty² — walk before Me and be perfect. [2] I will give³ My covenant between us and I will greatly multiply you.” [3] Abraham fell on his face as God spoke with him, saying, [4] “Pay attention. My covenant is with you — you shall be like a father of a multitude of nations. [5] You shall no longer be called Abram, but rather Abraham, for I have made you a father of a multitude of nations. [6] You shall be exceedingly fruitful. You shall become many nations. Kings will be among your posterity.⁴ [7] I will establish a covenant between us and also between your offspring.⁵ It shall be an everlasting covenant: to be the God of you and your children. [8] I will give you and your descendants⁶ the land of your sojournings and the land of Canaan as an everlasting possession for I have become their God.” [9] God said to Abraham, “You and the generations that follow shall honor this covenant. [10] This is My covenant, between Me and you and your progeny,⁷ that you shall observe carefully: every male shall be circumcised.” [11] You shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin as a sign of the covenant between Me and you. [12] Every male in your generations shall be circumcised when they are eight days old: those born in a house and those, not your offspring (the children of a resident alien), that are bought with money. [13] Those born in a house and those bought with your money shall certainly be circumcised. My covenant shall be an everlasting covenant in your flesh. [14] The uncircumcised male, the flesh of whose foreskin is uncircumcised, shall be cut off¹ from My people: he has broken My covenant. [15] God said to Abraham, “Your wife will no longer be known as Sarai, but Sarah. [16] I will bless her. Additionally, I will give you a son from her. I will bless her that she shall become a nation — people’s kings will be among her posterity.” [17] And Abraham fell on his face and laughed. He said in his heart, “Shall a son be born to a hundred year old man? And shall a ninety year old woman bear him?”² [18] Abraham said to God, “O that Ishmael might live in Your presence!” [19] And God said, “On the contrary, your wife, Sarah, shall bear a son. You shall name him Isaac. I will establish My covenant with him and it shall be an everlasting covenant with his descendants. [20] Concerning Ishmael, I have heard you. Look, I will bless him, make him fruitful, greatly multiply him: he shall have³ twelve princes. I will make him a great nation. [21] My covenant shall be with Isaac whom Sarah shall bear to you at an⁴ appointed time next year.” [22] He finished speaking with him and God left⁵ Abraham. [23] Abraham took his son, Ishmael, all who were born in his house, those bought with his money (all of the men in Abraham’s house) and circumcised them⁶ that day like God had told him to. [24] Abraham was ninety-nine years old when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised. [25] His son, Ishmael, was thirteen when the flesh of his foreskin was circumcised. [26] ⁷That same day, Abraham and his son, Ishmael, were circumcised. [27] All of the men in the house — those born in the house and those bought with a resident alien’s money — were circumcised as well.⁸

Abraham commanded to sacrifice his only son, Isaac — Abraham and Isaac both submit to God’s will — continuation of Abrahamic covenant — Rebekah born to Bethuel.

[1] After these things, God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham,” and Abraham replied, “Yes?” [2] He said,

You shall raise him up as a burnt offering upon one of the mountains which I shall tell you.” [3] So Abraham rose early in the morning and saddled his donkey. He took two of his young servants and his son Isaac with him. He chopped up some wood for the burnt offering, rose, and went to the place where God told him to go. [4] On the third day, Abraham looked up³ and saw the place afar off.⁴ [5] Abraham said to his young servants, “Stay here with the donkey while the boy and I go off, worship, and return.” [6] Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and had his son, Isaac, carry it.⁵ He took some fire, a knife, and the both of them went off together. [7] Isaac said to Abraham, “Dad?” and he responded, “Yes, my son?”⁶ “I see the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?” [8] Abraham replied, “My son, God Himself will provide a lamb for the burnt offering,” and they went on together. [9] They came to the place which God had before told them and Abraham built an altar and arranged the wood. Then he bound Isaac and placed him on the wood of the altar. [10] Abraham took the knife in his hand to slay his son. [11] And the messenger of the LORD called to him from the heavens and said, “Abraham! Abraham!” and he said, “Yes?” [12]⁷ “Don’t slay⁸ the boy, neither do anything to him because now I know that you fear God — you have not withheld your son — your only son — from me.” [13] Abraham looked up and saw behind him a ram caught by its horns in an underbrush. So Abraham went and took the ram and offered it as a burnt offering in place of his son. [14] Abraham named that place Jehovah-yireh, and it is said there⁹ today, “The LORD provides on the¹⁰ mountain.” [15] The angel of the LORD called unto Abraham a second time from the heavens [16] and said, “I swear of myself, declares the LORD, that, because you have done this and not held back your son from me¹¹ — your only son — [17] I will richly bless you. [20] After all this, word came to Abraham, saying, “Milcah has birthed sons to your brother, Nahor.” [21] Uz was his first-born, Buz his brother, Kemuel the father of Aram. [22] Chesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph, and Bethuel. [23] And Bethuel fathered Rebecca. Milcah bore these eight sons to Nahor, Abraham’s brother. [24] His concubine, Reumah,¹ she also gave birth to Tebah, Gaham, Thahash, and Ma’acah.

EXODUS

Israel to be a peculiar treasure, a kingdom of priests, a holy nation — they are sanctified — the Lord appears in Sinai.

[1] In the third month since the departure of the children of Israel from the land of Egypt, ¹they came into the Sinai wilderness. [2] They left Rephidim, came into the Sinai wilderness, and camped² before the mountain. [3] And Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain, saying, “Thus shall you say to the children of Jacob and tell to the sons of Israel: [4] ‘You — you’ve seen what I’ve done to the Egyptians, how I bear you on eagles’ wings, and how I have brought you to Myself. [5] And now, if you will truly obey Me and keep³ My commandments, you shall be a treasure^{4,5} from among all people:⁶ for all the earth is Mine. [6] You shall be⁷ a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you shall say to the children of Israel.” [7] So Moses entered in⁸ and called the elders of the people. He laid before them all these things that the LORD had commanded him. [8] Then all the people answered together, saying, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses returned to tell the LORD what the people had said.⁹ [9] The LORD said to Moses, “I will come to you in a thick cloud so that the people may hear my words when I speak with you. So shall they believe you forever.” Then Moses told the words of the people unto the LORD. [10] And the LORD said unto Moses, “Go to the people and sanctify them today and tomorrow. Let them wash their clothes [11] because on the third day the LORD will descend in the eyes of all the people before Mount Sinai. [12] You shall set bounds around the people, saying, ‘Hearken to these words’¹⁰ and don’t go up into the mountain. Anyone touching the base of the mountain will certainly be put to death. [13] No hand shall touch it¹ or he² will surely be stoned or shot:³ whether beast or man, they shall not live while the trumpet sounds⁴ as they approach the mountain.’” [14] So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified⁵ the people and they washed their clothes.⁶ [15] He said to the people, “Prepare yourselves. Do not sleep with⁷ a woman for three days.” [16] On the third morning, when it was morning, there were noises and flashes of lightning, a thick cloud over the mountain, and the tremendously powerful sound of a trumpet:⁸ and all the people in the camp were afraid. [17] Moses brought the people out from the camp to meet God and they stationed themselves at the base of the mountain. [18] All of Mount Sinai was smoking because the LORD descended on it in fire. And the smoke went up like the smoke of a furnace. The whole mountain shook. [19] The sound of the trumpet grew continually louder⁹ while Moses spoke and God answered.¹⁰ [20] The LORD descended on the summit of Mount Sinai and He¹¹ called unto Moses.¹² And Moses went up. [21] The LORD said to Moses, “Go down and solemnly charge the people, otherwise many of them will break through, see the LORD, and perish.”¹³ [22] Also, the priests who come near the LORD shall sanctify themselves, otherwise the LORD will tear them down. [23] Moses said to the LORD, “The people will not be able to come up to Mount Sinai because You have charged us, saying, ‘Make a border around the mount and sanctify it.’” [24] The LORD said unto him, “Go down — you and Aaron with you — and the priests will come up. Don’t let the people break through to come up to the LORD, otherwise His glory will break out against them.” [25] So Moses went down to the people and spoke to them.

Israel, by covenant, accept the Lord — Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and the Seventy see God — the Lord calls Moses to the mountain to receive the stone tablets.

[1] And He saith unto Moses: “Go up unto the LORD — you, Aaron, and seventy of the elders of Israel — and you shall bow down⁸ from afar. [2] And Moses will approach the LORD alone. The people⁹ will not go up with him.” [3] And Moses came and told the people all the words and judgments of the LORD; and all of the people answered with one voice, saying, “All the words that the LORD hath spoken we will do.” [4] Moses wrote all the words of the LORD. Then, he rose early in the morning, and built an altar at the foot of the mountain. He also made¹⁰ twelve memorial stones¹¹ for the twelve tribes of Israel. [5] And he sent lads¹² of the children of Israel and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices, peace offerings, and bulls.¹³ [6] Then Moses took half of the blood and placed it in bowls;¹⁴ and half¹⁵ of the blood he sprinkled¹⁶ on¹⁷ the altar. in the ears¹ of the people and they said, “Everything that the LORD hath said we will do.”² [8] And Moses took the blood and he sprinkled³ it upon the people and said, “This is the blood of the covenant which the LORD hath made with you concerning all these things.” [9] Then Moses, Aaron, Nadab, Abihu, and seventy elders of Israel went up [10] and saw the God of Israel. Under His feet was a slab of sapphire as bright as heaven. [11] He did not lay His hand on the eminent children of Israel. They saw God and they ate and they drank.⁴ [12] The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me in the mountain⁵ and be there. I will give you stone tablets, the Law and the Commandments that I have written for their instruction.” [13] Moses rose up — and Joshua, his minister, too — and Moses went to the mountain of God. [14] To the elders he said, “Wait here⁶ for us until we return for you. And look, Aaron and Hur are here⁷ with you, and whoever has any problems, bring it up with them.”⁸ [15] Moses went up into the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. [16] The glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered the mountain for six days. On the seventh day, He called to Moses from the thick⁹ of the cloud. [17] In the people’s view, the appearance of the LORD in His glory was like fire consuming the peak of the mountain. [18] Moses came into the thick of the cloud and climbed up the mountain. And Moses was in the mountain for forty days and forty nights.

How to deal with lepers — repentance necessary for forgiveness — dealing with women accused of immorality.

[1] The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2] “Command the people of Israel that they send everyone outside the camp who has a skin disease, a discharge,¹ or who has become ritualistically unclean from coming in contact with² a corpse. [3] Send both men and women outside — send them out of the camp so that they don’t make the camp wherein I live ritualistically unclean.” [4] The people of Israel did so and sent them outside the camp. The people of Israel did just as the LORD had told Moses. [5] The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [6] “Speak to the people of Israel. When a man or a woman commits any human sin by being unfaithful³ to the LORD and that person is guilty: [7] they shall confess the sin that they’ve committed, he shall restore his wrong⁴ by its total amount plus one fifth, and give it to the person he wronged. [8] But if the man doesn’t have a redeemer to give the compensating gift to, then the guilt shall be recompensed to the LORD shall be the priest’s in addition to the reconciliatory ram by which the priest makes an atonement for the man. [9] Every tribute offering of any of the holy things of the people of Israel which they present to the priest, these shall be his. [10] Everyone’s sacred things shall be his. Whatever people give to the priest shall be his.” [11] And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, [12] “Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them: ‘If any man’s wife go astray and trespasses against him [13] in that a man lies sensually with her and it is hidden from the eyes⁵ of her husband — kept secret — and she is defiled, but there is no witness against her, neither is she caught in the act: [14] if the spirit of jealousy is passed over him and he suspects her of infidelity and she is defiled, or if the spirit of jealousy passes He² shall bring an offering for her (a tenth of an ephah of barley wheat), but he shall not pour upon it any oil neither will he place incense upon it since it is a memorial offering to bring to mind³ wrongdoing. And the priest shall take it and put it⁴ in the water. [18] And the priest shall make the woman stand before the LORD.⁵ And he will uncover the woman and he shall place in her hands the memorial offering as an offering of jealousy. The bitter waters that cause the curse shall be in the priest's hand. [19] And the priest shall place her under oath and say to the woman, "If no man has laid with thee, and if thou hast not gone astray to be unclean, you will be free from these waters of bitterness that caused the curse."⁶ [20] But if you have gone astray to another besides your husband, or if you have defiled yourself in that a man other than your husband has lain with you,"⁷ [21] the priest shall charge the woman⁸ with an oath of cursing and the priest shall say to the woman, "May the LORD make you a curse and an oath amongst your people." The LORD shall cause your thigh to waste⁹ away and your womb to swell. [22] These cursed waters have come into your intestines and caused your belly¹⁰ to swell and your crotch¹¹ to shrink. The woman shall say, "Surely! Surely!"¹² [23] And the priest shall write these words on a scroll and he shall wash them out into the bitter waters. [24] He will have the woman drink the bitter waters that cause the curse and the waters will enter into her. And the waters of bitterness that caused the curse shall enter into her and her stomach shall swell and her uterus shall waste away and she shall be a curse in the midst of her people. [28] And if the woman is not defiled in that she acted unfaithfully, but she is clean, she shall be guiltless,⁴ and she, conceiving, will give birth to a child.⁵ [29] This is the law concerning those suspected of infidelity (when the wife goes astray while married to her husband and is defiled). [30] When a spirit of jealousy passes over a man and he's jealous of his wife, he shall cause his wife to stand before the LORD and the priest shall do everything in this law to her. [9] If the dead suddenly die because of him, and his consecrated head has become ritualistically unclean, then he shall shave his head on the day of his ritualistic cleansing — he shall shave his head on the seventh day. [10] In the eighth day he shall bring either two turtle doves or two pigeons to the priest at the entrance of the meeting tent. [11] The priest shall offer one as a sin-offering and the other¹ as a burnt-offering to atone for his sin with the dead body. On that same² day he shall reconsecrate³ his head. [12] He shall vow the days of his consecration to the LORD. He shall bring a year-old lamb to be a compensating gift, but the first days shall be forfeited because he was ritualistically unclean. [13] This is the law of the Nazirite. When his time of consecration is complete,⁴ he shall be brought to the entrance of the meeting tent. [14] He shall bring his offerings near to the LORD: a year-old lamb that is free of blemish for the burnt-offering, a year-old ewe lamb that is free of blemish for the sin offering, a ram free of blemish for the peace offering, [15] a basket of matzo, ring-shaped bread moistened with balsam oil, unleavened wafers with balsam oil spread on them, their offering, and their drink-offerings.⁵ [16] The priest shall bring them before the LORD and offer his sin- and burnt-offerings. [17] The ram shall be offered as a peace offering before the LORD along with the basket of matzo; the priest shall offer his sacrifice and his drink-offering. [18] The Nazirite shall shave his consecrated head at the entrance of the meeting tent, take the hair of his consecrated head, and place it on the fire which is under the peace offering. [19] The priest shall take the boiled ram shoulder, one piece of matzo from the basket, and one unleavened wafer and place them on the Nazirite's palms after he has shaved his consecrated head. [20] The priest shall wave them as wave offerings before the LORD; in addition to the brisket of the wave offering and the tribute thigh, it is holy to the priest. Trumpets to be used in calling and assembling Israel — cloud removes from camp — Israel sets forth in their orders — the Ark of the Covenant goes before the people.

[1] The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, [2] “Make two silver trumpets^{1,2} for yourselves. You shall make them of hammered³ metalwork. They shall serve you when the assembly is gathered and when the order of departure for the camp is given. [3] When they blow them, the whole company shall gather to you at the entrance of the meeting tent. [17] The utensils of the tabernacle were taken down, and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari — who carried the tabernacle and its accouterments — set forth. [18] The banner of the camp of Reuben traveled according to their ranks; and over its host was Elizur the son of Shedeur. [19] Over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon: Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. [20] Over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad: Eliasaph the son of Deuel. [21] The carriers of the Holy Place⁴ — the Kohathites — went forth; and they would be the ones to set up the tabernacle at their⁵ coming to a particular spot. [24] Over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin: Abidan the son of Gideoni. [25] The banner of the camp of the children of Dan set forth, which was the rear of all the camps throughout their armies: and over its rank was Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai. [26] Over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher: Pagiel the son of Ocran. [27] Over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali: Ahira the son of Enan. [28] Such were the journeys of the children of Israel according to their ranks when they set forth.” [29] And Moses said to Hobab,¹ the son of Reuel the Midianite, the father-in-law of Moses, “We are setting off to the same place that the LORD said, ‘I will give to you.’ Come with us and we will treat you kindly because the LORD hath dealt kindly with Israel.” [30] But he said, “I will not go; rather, I will go unto mine own land and to mine own home country.” [31] And he² said, “Please don’t leave me because you know how we should encamp in the desert — you shall be our eyes. [32] “If you will go with us, it will be good to you in the same measure as the LORD will be³ with us.” [33] So they set out from the mountain of the LORD a journey of three days, and the Ark of the Covenant of the LORD went before them three days to seek out a place of rest for them. [34] And the LORD, as a cloud, went over them by day when they journeyed from the camp. [35] And when the Ark went forth, Moses said, “Rise up, O LORD, and let thine enemies be scattered; yea, let thine haters flee from before thy face.” [36] And when it rested he said, “Return, O LORD, to the tens of thousands of Israelites.”⁴ ears of the LORD, and the LORD heard it and was angry;¹ and the LORD's fire burned against them and consumed the outer part of the camp. [2] Then the people complained to Moses, so Moses prayed unto the LORD and the fire was quenched. [3] He called the name of the place Taberah for the fire of the LORD burned there among them. [4] And the crowd that was in its midst² as well as the children of Israel lusted and cried again, saying, "Who shall give us flesh to eat? [5] We remember the fish that we would eat in Egypt for no cost;³ and the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions, and garlic — [6] now our souls are dried up for there is nothing that we can see besides manna!" [7] The manna was like coriander⁴ and was the color of bdellium.⁵ [8] The people roamed and they gathered the manna and they ground with millstones, beat in a mortar, and cooked,⁶ or made round loafs. Its taste was like the taste of a cake with olive oil. [9] When the dew descended on the camp at night the manna would likewise descend upon it. [10] Moses heard the people crying according to their tribes⁷ — every man at the opening of his tent — and the anger of the LORD was great. And Moses was displeased. [11] Moses said to the LORD, "Why have you afflicted your servant? How have I not found favor in your sight in that you lay the burden of all this people on me? [12] Have I conceived all this people? Have I given birth to them? You say to me, 'Carry them in your bosom as a nursing father the infant,' to the land which you swore by oath to their fathers. [13] [14] I am not able to bear all this people alone because they are too heavy for me. [15] If you deal thusly with me, just kill me — please — if I have found favor in your eyes, that I may not dwell upon my displeasure." [16] The LORD said unto Moses, "Gather seventy men for me among the elders of Israel whom you know to be elders and overseers of the people. Take them unto the meeting tent⁸ and cause them to stand there with you. [17] I will come down and converse with you there. I will take from the spirit that is upon you⁹ and shall put it upon them. That would be enough to satisfy them.” [23] The LORD said unto Moses, “Is the hand of the LORD shortened? You shall see whether or not My word shall come to pass.” [24] Moses went forth and he spoke the LORD’s words unto the people. He gathered up seventy of the elders of the people and caused them to stand surrounding the tent.¹ [25] The LORD went down in the cloud and spoke unto them. He took of the spirit that was on Moses and he conferred it on the seventy elders and they prophesied without ceasing. [26] Two men remained in the camp. One was named Eldad and the other Medad. They were in the register, but did not go to the tent. When the spirit rested upon them they went into the camp and prophesied. [27] And a youth ran and told Moses, saying, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.” [28] Joshua, the son of Nun and the servant of Moses, answered saying, “My lord, Moses, restrain them!” [29] But Moses said unto him, “Are you jealous on my behalf? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would so place His spirit upon them all.” [30] So Moses gathered himself and the elders of Israel [31] and the spirit of the LORD went forth and drove quails from the sea who passed over and fell on the camp: a day’s journey this way and about a day’s journey that way round about the camp: ten cubits above the face of the earth. [32] The people arose all that day, that night, and the morrow to gather quail. The least gathered ten homers² and they spread out for themselves a place surrounding the camp. [33] While the flesh was still in between their teeth, before it was consumed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people and the LORD smote the people with a great plague. [34] He called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah³ because there they buried the people who had lusted. [35] The people traveled from this place to Hazeroth and they stayed there.

The Lord destroys the rebels with fire — Israel complains about manna — Moses cannot take the burden alone — the Lord commands Moses to call the Seventy — meat will be given until it is loathsome — Seventy are called and chosen — Eldad and Medad prophesy — the people lust — many are destroyed by a plague.

[3] Now, the man (Moses) was incredibly unassuming² — more than any other man on the face of the earth.³ [4] The LORD spoke suddenly unto Moses, Aaron, and Miriam, “The three of you shall go forth unto the tent of meeting.” So the three of them went forth. [5] Then the LORD went down in the pillar of a cloud and stood in the door of the tent. He called for Aaron and Miriam and they both came out. [6] He said, “Heed my words: if you have a prophet the LORD will reveal Himself unto him in a vision. I will speak unto him in a dream. [7] Is it not true that Moses is My servant? That of all My house he is faithful? [8] I speak to him face to face: visibly. Not in riddles. He has seen the form of the LORD. Why weren’t you hesitant to speak against my servant Moses?” [9] [10] The cloud turned away from the tent⁴ and Miriam was leprous⁵ as snow. Aaron turned to face Miriam and she was leprous. [11] Moses said, “My LORD, please do not lay this sin upon us that we foolishly sinned. [12] ” [13] Moses cried unto the LORD, saying, “Oh God, please heal her!”⁶ [14] So the LORD said to Moses, “If her father had spat in her face, would she not be in disgrace for seven days? Let her be removed from the rest of the people and after that⁷ she shall be received.”⁸ [15] Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not travel until she was received back into the camp. [16] Then the people up and left Hazeroth and camped in the desert of Paran.

[1] All the congregation raised their voices and the people cried on that night. [2] All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron. The entire congregation said to them, "Would that we had died in the land of Egypt. Or would that we had died in this desert. [3] Why did the LORD bring us to this land? To fall by the sword? That our wives and little ones become prey? Wouldn't it be better for us to return to Egypt?" [4] Everyone said to their brother, "We will choose a leader and return to Egypt." [5] So Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before the entire congregation of the people of Israel. [6] Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, from among the explorers of the land, rent their clothes. [7] They said to the whole congregation of the people of Israel, saying, "The land that we have explored is really good. [8] If the LORD is pleased with us and brings us to this land, then He will give it to us: the land that is flowing with milk and honey. [9] Only, don't rebel against the LORD. Do not fear the people of the land for they shall be our food. Their shadow is turned away and the LORD is with us. Don't be afraid of them." [10] All the congregation said to stone them¹ with stones. But the glory of the LORD appeared over the tabernacle² in front of all of the people of Israel. [11] The LORD said to Moses, "For how long will this people despise Me? How long will they not believe Me despite all the signs that I have performed in their midst? [12] I

[21] And yet, even as I live, the whole earth will be filled with the glory of the LORD. [22] All mankind⁴ who see My glory and signs that I have done in Egypt and the desert, those who have tested Me these ten times and have not hearkened to My voice: [23] surely they shall not see the land that I have sworn to their fathers. Everyone who has provoked me shall not see it. [24] My servant Caleb, because there was another spirit in him and because he fully follows⁵ Me: I shall bring him into the land that he has entered. [37] Even those men who brought an evil report of the land died by the plague before the LORD. [38] Joshua, the son of Nun, and Caleb, the son of Jephunneh, survived all the men who went out to explore the land. [39] Moses spake these words to all the people of Israel and the people mourned exceedingly. [40] They rose early in the morning and went up to the top of the mountain, saying “Here we are. Because we have sinned, we have come up to the place that the LORD told us.” [41] Moses said, “Why is this? All of you are transgressing the LORD’s commands. It shall not succeed.² [42] Don’t go up! The LORD is not in your midst and all of you are not smitten before your enemies. Never make for yourselves graven images, or any image,¹ in the heavens above, neither that is in the earth nor the waters underneath the earth. [9] Never bow down to them or worship² them because I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God: I visit the punishment³ unto the third and fourth generation of my haters [10] Showing mercy unto thousands who love me and obey my commandments. [11] III. Never take the name of the LORD thy God with vain purpose for the LORD shall not hold him guiltless who uses His name to vain purpose. [12] IV. Keep the Sabbath day holy, just as the LORD your God has commanded you. [13] You shall work and perform all your responsibilities⁴ in six days, [14] but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the LORD your God: you shouldn't work, neither your son, daughter, handmaid, ox, donkey, any of your cattle, nor an outsider who's living in Israel. This so that your manservant and maidservant may rest just like you. [15] Remember when you were slaves in the land of Egypt and the LORD your God brought you from there with a strong hand and an outstretched arm.⁵ Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to keep the Sabbath day. [16] v. Take your mom and dad seriously just as the LORD your God has commanded you. This that your days may be lengthened and in order that it may be well for you upon the land which the LORD your God is going to give you. [17] VI. Don't murder. [18] VII. Don't commit adultery. [19] VIII. And don't steal. [20] IX. Never give a vain witness against your neighbor. [21] x. TEXT.

[1] In the days when the judges judged there was a famine in the land. A man of Bethlehem-Judah went to sojourn in the field of Moab¹ — he, and his wife, and his two sons. [2] And the name of the man — Elimelech; and the name of his wife — Naomi; and the names of his two sons — Mahlon and Chilion: Ephrathites from Bethlehem-Judah. And they entered the field of Moab and they stayed² there. [3] And Naomi's husband, Elimelech, died, and she was left with³ her two sons. [4] And they took to⁴ themselves Moabite wives, the name of the one, Orpah; and the name of the other, Ruth. And they stayed there about ten years. [5] And the two of them, viz., Mahlon and Chilion, died.⁵ And the woman was bereft of her two boys and her husband. [6] And⁶ she rose up with her daughters-in-law to return to the land of Moab, for she had heard that in the land of Moab the LORD had visited His people by giving them bread. [7] She went out from the place where she was with her two daughters-in-law and they went on the road to return to the land of Judah. [8] And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law to go return to their mothers' houses. "The LORD will do kindly with you according as ye have done with the dead and myself. [9] The LORD will give you rest in your husbands' houses." Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept. [10] But they said to her, "Surely we will return to thy people." [11] But Naomi said, "Return, my daughters. Why would you go with me? Do I yet have sons in my womb that they may be husbands to you? [12] Return, my daughters, for I have grown too old to have a husband ⁷. If I were to say I have hope, and if I were to have a man tonight, and have sons, [13] would you wait for them until they were grown and keep yourselves from a husband? [15] And she¹ said, “Your sister-in-law² is returning to her people and to her gods. Return after your sister-in-law.” [16] And Ruth said, “Do not ask me to abandon you nor to turn from following thee: for wherever you go, will I go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people; and your God shall be my God; [17] and where thou diest, will I die and be buried there: the LORD do to me, and more also, if anything but death parts me and thee.” [18] When she saw how bold³ she⁴ was to go with her, she ceased speaking with her. [19] And the two of them went to Bethlehem. And when they got to Bethlehem the city was abuzz about them, saying, “Is this Naomi?” [20] And she said unto them, “Don’t call me Naomi. Call me Mara, for the Almighty hath treated me harshly. [21] I left full, and empty the LORD returned me. Why would you call me Naomi since the LORD hath afflicted me and the Almighty hath broken me in pieces?” [22] And Naomi returned with Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her to the land of Moab and they entered into Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

[1] And Samuel spake unto Saul, “The LORD didst send me to anoint thee king over His people — over Israel — therefore, now, hearken unto the voice¹ of the words of the LORD: [2] Thus saith the LORD of Hosts, ‘I have reviewed² that which Amalek did to Israel, that which he placed for himself in the way going up out of Egypt. [3] Go now, and smite Amalek and all that he hath; show no mercy³. Put to death every man, woman, infant, suckling, ox, sheep, camel, and ass.”’ [4] So Saul summoned the people and inspected them in Telaim: 200,000 footmen and 10,000 men of Judah. [5] Then Saul came unto the city of Amalek and waited in a valley. [6] And Saul saith to the Kenite, “Go, turn aside. Leave from the midst of Amalek lest I consume thee as well, for thou didst show kindness unto the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenite turned aside from the midst of Amalek. [7] Then Saul smote Amalek from Havilah to Shur (on the borders of Egypt). [8] He caught Agag, king of Amalek, alive; but all the people were destroyed by the sword. [9] But Saul — and the people as well — had pity on Agag, the best of the flocks, herds, garments, rams, and all that was beautiful and they would not destroy them. [10] Then the word of the LORD came unto Samuel, saying, [11] “I’m sorry that I made Saul king: he hath forsaken Me in that he did not keep My commandments.” And Samuel was grieved and cried unto the LORD all night. [12] So Samuel rose early in the morning to meet Saul. And it was declared to Samuel, saying, “Saul hath come in to Carmel and is setting up to himself a monument. Then he shall go round, pass over, and go down into Gilgal.” [13] Samuel came to Saul, and Saul saith to him, “Blessed be thou of the LORD; I have done what the LORD hath said.” [14] So Samuel said, “Why then do I hear bleating of sheep and the noise of a herd?” [15] And Saul said, “We brought them from Amalek because the people had pity on the best of the flocks and herds so that we could sacrifice them to the LORD thy God; the rest we destroyed.” [16] Samuel said to Saul, “Hold on,¹ let me tell you what the LORD told me tonight.” And Saul said, “Go on.” [17] Samuel said, “When you were little², were you not made head of the tribes of Israel and anointed by the LORD to be king over Israel? [18] And the LORD sent you on a journey and said, ‘Go and utterly destroy the Amalekites and all that they hath.’ [19] Why then did you not obey the voice of the LORD, but instead did fly on their spoil and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?” [20] And Saul said to Samuel, “I have hearkened to the voice of the LORD. I went the way the LORD sent me, and I have brought Agag, king of Amalek, and destroyed the Amalekites. [21] And the people took the spoil of the flocks and herds³ — the choicest⁴ part of the devoted things⁵ — to sacrifice unto the LORD their God in Gilgal.” [22] And Samuel saith: :“Doth the LORD delight in sacrifices and burnt offerings So much as He delighteth⁶ in hearkening to the voice⁷ of the LORD? :Listen! Obedience is better than sacrifice⁸. Paying attention is more important than ram’s fat. [23] :Since rebellion is like the sin of witchcraft And stubbornness is like idolatry: :Because you’ve rejected the word of the LORD He hath you from being king. [24] Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned, for I transgressed the commandment of the LORD⁹ and thy words¹⁰ in that I showed reverence to¹² the people by hearkening¹³ to their voice.¹⁴ [25] Please forgive me¹⁵ and come with me as I bow down before the LORD.” [26] Samuel said to Saul, “No, I’m not going with you¹⁶ because you’ve rejected the word of the LORD and because the LORD hath rejected you from being king over Israel.” [27] Then Samuel turned around to go, but he¹

[29] Additionally, the eminence⁴ of Israel⁵ neither lies nor repents for He is not a man, that He is penitent."⁶ [30] And he said, "I have sinned. Come, now, and honor me before the elders of the people⁷ and before Israel. Come with me as I bow down before the LORD." [31] So Samuel turned back after Saul as Saul bowed before the LORD.⁸ [32] And Samuel said, "Bring Agag, king of Amalek, unto me." And Agag came in unto him delicately and said, "Certainly the bitterness of death has past." [33] Samuel said, "As thy sword hath bereaved women, even so shall thy mother be bereaved among women," and Samuel hewed Agag into pieces before the LORD in Gilgal. [34] Samuel went to Ramath and Saul went to his house in Gibeah of Saul. [35] Samuel never again came to see Saul, even until his death; nevertheless, Samuel mourned for Saul. And the LORD was sorry that he had made Saul king over Israel.

Elijah prophesied no rain — Elijah stays with the widow of Zarephath — the widow's son dies — the Lord heals the lad.

[1] [2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [8] And the word of the LORD came unto him, saying, [9] “Arise. Go unto Zarephath — that is, unto Zidon — and dwell there. Behold! I have there commanded a widow woman to sustain thee.” [10] So he arose and went unto Zarephath, came unto the city’s entrance, and lo! there was a widow woman gathering sticks. So he called unto her and said, “Please bring me a little water in a vessel so I can drink.” [11] So she went to bring it and he calleth after her, and said, “Please bring me some bread in thy hand.” [12] Then she said, “As the LORD thy God liveth, I don’t even have a cake, but only a handful of meal in a pitcher and a little oil in a dish. Behold, I am gathering two sticks so that I can go in, prepare it for myself and my son, so that we can eat it and then die.” [13] Elijah said unto her, “Fear not: go and do as I’ve said, only make for me from thence a little cake first and bring it out to me. Then make for thee and thy son last. [14] “For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, ‘The pitcher of meal shall not be consumed and the oil dish shall not be lacking until the day the LORD makes it rain on the face of the land.’ ” [15] So she went and did as Elijah had said. And she ate — she, he, and her household — for days. [16] And the pitcher of meal was not consumed, neither did the oil dish lack, even according to the word of the LORD that He had spoken by the hand of Elijah. [17] After these things, the son of the woman (the mistress of the house) became sick. And his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him. [18] And she said unto Elijah, “What’s this to me and thee, O man of God? You came to me to make me remember my iniquity and to kill my son!” [19] So he said to her, “Give me your son.” And he took him from her bosom, and took him to the upper chamber where he was abiding, and laid him on the bed. [20] Then he cried unto the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, have you really brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn by killing her son?” [21] He stretched himself upon the child thrice and cried to the LORD and said, “O LORD my God, please let this child’s soul return to him!” [22] And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah and the child's soul returned and he lived. [23] And Elijah took the child and brought him down from the upper room into the house and gave him to his mother. And Elijah said, "Look, your son lives." [24] And the woman said to Elijah, "By this I now know that thou art a man of God and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is true."

[1] [2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [8] [9] [10] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] It was so that when Ahaz saw Elijah, Ahaz said unto him, "Are you the troubler¹ of² Israel?" [18] So he³ said, "I have not troubled Israel, rather you and your father's house have in forsaking the commandments of the LORD and going after Baalim.⁴ [19] Send now and gather all of Israel unto me at Mount Carmel as well as the 450 prophets of Baal and the 400 prophets of Asherah who eat at Jezebel's table." [20] So Ahaz sent unto all the children of Israel and gathered all the prophets unto Mount Carmel. [21] Elijah drew near to all of the people and said, "How long will you stall between two opinions?⁵ If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him." And the people didn't say a thing. [22] Then Elijah said unto the people, "I alone remain a prophet of the LORD, yet the prophets of Baal are 450 men. [23] Alright, have them⁶ bring⁷ two bullocks: they shall choose one bullock for themselves, cut it in pieces, and place it on wood, but they shall not put any fire on it;⁸ and I shall prepare the other bullock, place it on wood, and not light it. [24] You shall call on the name of your god and I will call on the name of the LORD⁹. And thus it shall be that the god who answers by fire, He is God." And all the people answered and said, "Sounds good."^{10,11} [25] And ¹¹This brings up an interesting thought: either the prophets of Baal had before been able to call down fire from heaven or they knew that since they couldn't do it that Elijah couldn't either, and they would use that in the soon to come (or so they thought) argument.

Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, “Choose a bullock and prepare it first because there are more of you.¹ But don’t put any fire on it, merely call on the name of your god.”² [26] So they took the bullock given to them, prepared it, and called on the name of Baal from the morning until noon, saying, “Baal, answer us!” Yet there was no voice³ and no one answered. And they leapt on the altar they had made. [27] And when it was midday, Elijah toyed with them and said, “Call with a loud voice for he is a god and maybe he is meditating or busy or gone on an adventure.⁴ Perhaps he is asleep and just waking up!” [28] So they cried with a loud voice and cut themselves (according to their ordinances) with swords and spears until their blood flowed. [29] And when midday had passed, they prophesied until the time of the evening sacrifice, and yet there was neither a voice nor an answer nor any that regarded them. [30] Then Elijah said unto all the people, “Come here.” So all the people drew near as he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down. [31] And he took twelve stones (according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob — unto whom the word of the LORD was, saying, “Thy name shall be Israel.”) [32] and built an altar from the stones in the name of the LORD. And he made a trench about the space of two measures of seed encircling the altar. [33] And he arranged the wood, cut the bullock in pieces, and placed it on the wood. [34]⁵ And he said, “Fill four pitchers of water and pour them on the burnt offering and on the wood.” And he told them to do it a second time, and they did it a second time; and he told them to do it a third time, so they did it a third time. [35]⁶ And the water encircled the altar insomuch that the trench was filled with water. [36] And at eventide, Elijah the prophet drew near and said, “LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel: let it be known today that Thou art God in Israel, that I am Thy servant, and that by Thy word I have done all of these things. [37] Answer me, LORD. Answer me and this people shall know that Thou art the LORD God: that Thou hast turned back their heart.”⁷ [38] Then the fire of the LORD fell and consumed the burnt offering, wood, stones,

The LORD is God!” [40] Elijah said unto them, “Seize the prophets of Baal — don’t let one of them escape!” So they seized them. Then Elijah brought them down to the brook¹ Kishon and slew them there.² [41] Elijah said unto Ahab, “Get up. Eat. Drink. You can hear a bunch of rain coming.”³ [42] So Ahab went up to eat and drink. Elijah went up to the summit of Carmel, bowed down on the earth, and put his face between his knees. [43] Then he said unto his servant, “Go up⁴ and look at the sea.” So he went up, looked, and said, “There’s nothing.”⁵ So Elijah said, “Go again seven times.” [44] And on the seventh time he said, “Behold! There is a cloud — small as a man’s hand — rising up out of the sea!” And he⁶ said, “Go up and say to Ahab, ‘Prepare⁷ and go down that the rains do not restrain thee.’” [45] In the meantime the heavens blackened with clouds and wind, and there was a great pouring of rain. And Ahab got on his chariot and went to Jezreel. [46] Thus the hand of the LORD was upon Elijah, and he girded up his loins and ran before Ahab to the border of Jezreel.

Haggai and Zechariah prophesy — Zerubbabel and others begin construction of the temple — Tatnai, Shethar-boznai, and others write a letter to King Darius asking for an order to stop the Jews.

[1] Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo prophesied in the name of the God of Israel concerning the Jews in Judah and in Jerusalem. [2] Then Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, son of Jozadak, rose and began to rebuild the house of God in Jerusalem. And the prophets supported them. [3] At that time, Tatnai, the governor on the other side of the river, came to them with Shethar-boznai and their companions; and they said to them, “Who gave you orders to build this house¹ and to finish this wall?” [4] They then said thus unto them, “What are the names of the men who are building this house?” [5] The eye of their God had been upon the elders² of the Jews and they had not caused them to stop until the matter went to Darius. They then sent back a letter concerning this. [6] A copy of the letter that Tatnai the governor on the other side of the river, Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites³ who are on the other side of the river sent unto Darius the king. [7] In the letter they sent to him was written: “Peace be unto Darius the king. [8] Be it known to the king that we have gone to the province of Judah, to the great temple of God, and it is build with square stones, wood is placed in the walls, and this work is done speedily. This work prospers in their hand. [9] Then we asked these elders — thus did we ask them: ‘Who hath made a decree for you for this house to be built and this wall to be completed?’ [10] Additionally, we asked them for their names, to make it known unto you, so we can write the names of their leaders.⁴ [11] Thus have they returned the word, saying, ‘We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth. We have been building the house for many years⁵ and that a great king of Israel had built and finished it. [12] But after that, they made the God of heaven angry and He delivered them into the hands of the Chaldean Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, who demolished this house and removed the other people to Babylon. [13] But in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, Cyrus, the king, gave an order to build this house of God. [14] Furthermore, the gold and silver vessels from the house of God that Nebuchadnezzar removed from the temple in Jerusalem and brought to the temple in Babylon, Cyrus, the king, removed them from the temple in Babylon and brought them to Sheshbazzar whom he had appointed as governor. [15] He¹ said to him, “Lift up these vessels and go and put them in the temple in Jerusalem. Let the house of God be build on its place.” [16] Then did Sheshbazzar come and lay the foundations of the house of God in Jerusalem. From then until now it has been being built and is not finished. [17] And now, if it be good to the king, let an investigation² be made into the treasury of the house of the king in Babylon whether it be that Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God in Jerusalem. Let the king’s will concerning this be sent to us.”

Darius starts an investigation to find if sanctions were ever given to the Jews to build a temple — evidence is found that Cyrus gave sanctions through a decree — Darius states that this decree is still in effect — he commands that the Jews be provided with whatever they need to build the temple — the temple is completed and dedicated.

[1] King Darius then made a decree and they investigated in the records house where the treasures of Babylon were laid up. [2] A scroll was found in Achmetha, a fortress in the province of Media, in the midst of which was written a record: [3] “In the first year of Cyrus, the king, King Cyrus made an order regarding the house of God in Jerusalem: let the house be built in the place where they are sacrificing sacrifices. Let its foundations be strongly laid: its height sixty cubits and its breadth sixty cubits. [4] ³Three layers of square stones and a layer of new wood. Let the expense be charged⁴ to the king’s house. [5] Additionally, the gold and silver of the house of God which Nebuchadnezzar removed from the Jerusalem temple and brought to Babylon, let it be returned to the Jerusalem temple: you shall put it in the house of God. [6] And now, Tatnai, governor of the trans-Euphrates,⁵ Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites⁶ of the trans-Euphrates, stay away from this.⁷ [7] Leave behind the work of the house of God; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of Judah build this house of God in its place. [8] From me I give an order regarding what you should do to the work of those elders of Judah and the building of this house of God: the riches of the king which are on the other side of the river, the expenses be speedily given to these men that their work cease not. [9] What they need, both young bullocks, rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the saying of the Levite priest who is in Jerusalem, let it be given to them daily without negligence [10] so that they can offer sweet odors to the God of heaven and pray for the life of the king and his sons. [11] From me I give a command to anyone¹ who changes this decree: let wood be pulled out from their house and let them be impaled² and their house shall be made a dunghill for this. [12] God caused His name to dwell there. He overthrew all the kings and people who try and cause His hand to change and hurt this house of God in Jerusalem. I, Darius, have made a decree — let it be done with all diligence.”³ [13] Then Tatnai, the governor of the trans-Euphrates, Shethar-boznai, and their companions speedily did as King Darius had sent. [14] The elders of the Jews were continuing to build and prosper because of the prophecies of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. Since the decree of the God of Israel, Cyrus, Darius, and Xerxes⁴ king of Persia, they built and finished.⁵ [15] This house was completed on the third day of the month Adar which was in the sixth year of the reign of King Darius, [16] and the sons of Israel, the priests, Levites, and the rest of the sons of the captivity made a joyous dedication to this house of God. [17] They brought one hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and twelve young goats (for a sin offering for all Israel according to the number of tribes of Israel) near to this temple of God for its dedication. [18] They put their priests in their divisions, the Levites in their courses over the work of God that is in Jerusalem according to the writing in the scroll of Moses. [19] [20] [21] [22]

[1] And when Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies had heard¹ that I had built the wall and that there was no breach in it (also, up until that time² I had not set up the gates) [2] that Sanballat and Geshem sent unto me, saying, “Come, and we shall meet together in the villages of³ the valley of Ono,” but they were thinking of doing me wrong.⁴ [3] So I sent messengers unto them, saying, “I am doing a great work so I cannot come down. Why should the work cease⁵ while I leave it and come down to you?” [4] So they sent unto me — as I’ve said⁶ — four times, and I told them likewise. [5] So Sanballat sent his servant unto me — as I’ve said — the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, [6] and it was written therein: “It hath been heard among the nations, and Gashmu hath said, ‘You and the Jews are thinking of rebelling. Therefore, you are building the wall and hast been a king unto them. Even according to these words! [7] Moreover, thou hast appointed prophets who⁷ call for thee in Jerusalem, saying, “A king is in Judah!”’ Now, it hath been heard by the king, even according to these words. Come now and let us reason together.” [8] So I sent unto him, saying, “No, it hath not been as thou hast said⁸ because you’ve made this up⁹ from thine own heart. [9] For all of them are making us afraid, saying, ‘Their hands are too weak¹⁰ for the work — that’s why it’s not done.’ O God, strengthen my hands!”¹¹ [10] Then I entered the house of Shemaiah, son of Delaiah (son of Mehetabeel), who was shut up,¹ and he said, :“Let us meet at the House of God, Inside the temple. :So we shall shut the doors of the temple Because they are coming to slay thee. :Even by night are they coming to slay thee.” [11] And I said, “Would a man like me flee?² And who, like me, would go in unto the temple to³ live? I will not go.”⁴ [12] And I perceived that lo! God had not sent him because he had prophesied this word against me: Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.⁵ [13] He was hired to frighten me.⁶ That I might do so: sin — that I might have something to go off of to spread an evil report so that they could reproach me. [14] My God, remember Tobiah and Sanballat according to these, their works. And also the prophetess Noadiah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid. [15] So the wall was finished in fifty-two days: on the twenty-fifth of Elul. [16] And when all of our enemies had heard it, and when all the nations round about us were afraid (and much cast down in their own perception) for they knew that this work was brought to pass by our God. [17] Additionally, in those days, the noblemen of Judah sent a lot of letters to Tobiah, so those who are with Tobiah came to them. [18] For there are many in Judah sworn to him: ⁷he hath a son-in-law of Shechaniah, son of Arah; his son Johanan hath married the daughter of Meshullam, son of Berechiah. [19] They also spoke before me of his goodness and then reported my words to him. So Tobiah sent letters to make me afraid.

[1] In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah,⁴ king of Judah, the Assyrian king, Sennacherib, came up against all the fortifications of Judah and conquered them. [2] The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh^{5,6} with a strong force from Lachish to Jerusalem unto King Hezekiah. He stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool on the highway of the fuller's field. [3] He then came unto Eliakim, son of Hilkiah (who's over the household affairs), Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph (the chronicler). [4] Rabshakeh said to them, "Please say to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What is this confidence in which you trust? [5] You say, 'It's just lip service,'⁷ but there is strength for war. Now, who do you rely on that you have revolted against me?⁸ [6] You trust in the staff of a broken reed — on Egypt — whom if a man leans it goes into his hand and pierces it: such is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to his allies. [7] If you say to me, 'We rely upon the LORD our God' — is it not he whose high places and altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar'?" [8] And now, I pray thee, make a bargain that my master, the king of Assyria, and I will give you up to two thousand horses if you're able to put riders on them.⁹ [9] How then will you turn away the face of the least of my master's servants when you trust in Egypt for chariots and horsemen? [10] And now, have I come up against this land without the LORD to destroy it? The LORD said to me, "Go up against this land and destroy it."'" Thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make a deal with me: come out to me and everyone shall eat of his own vine and his own fig tree and drink from their own cisterns [17] until I come and take you away to a land like your own land — a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. [18] Don't let Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Have any of the Gentile gods delivered their land from the hand of the king of Assyria? [19] Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from out of my hand? [20] Who are they among the gods of the land that have delivered their own land from out of my hand that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem from out of my hand?" [1] For behold! the day comes — Burning as a furnace: All the proud And all that work wickedness shall be stubble. : “The day that is coming shall burn them up,” saith the LORD of Hosts. : “It shall leave them neither Root nor branch. [2] “The Sun of Righteousness hath risen Unto those² who fear My name with healing in His wings. : And ye shall go forth. You shall grow up As calves of the stall. [3] Ye shall tread down the wicked for they shall be ashes Under the soles of thine feet : In the day that I shall do this,” Saith the LORD of Hosts. [4] “Remember the Law of Moses, my servant, That I commanded him : In Horeb for all Israel: The judgments and statutes. [5] Behold! I will send unto you Elijah the prophet : Before the advent of the Great and dreadful day of the LORD. [6] He shall turn the fathers’ hearts unto the children And the children’s hearts unto their fathers : Otherwise I will come and smite The earth with a curse.”

NOTES ON PSALM 110

Psalm 110 deals with the endowment of a king in ancient Israel. Kings and priests were in different orders of Priesthood, kings having a higher order. What is interesting about this is that the differences in the rites for becoming a king or a priest are not that different.

It is assumed that David wrote this psalm before he was crowned (i.e., when Saul was king). As a side note, one remarkable thing about David is that he was consistently obedient to the crown: he served the position, not the person.

The Aaronic, or Levitical, Priesthood was known anciently as כֹּהֵנִי.¹ This priesthood was for Aaron and his descendants: “And Aaron and his sons shalt thou appoint that they may attend to their priest’s office” (Numbers 3:10, DARBY). However, the higher priesthood, דִּבְרָה,² was given to prophets and kings. The assumption is that all who reigned in Israel had this latter order of priesthood.

This higher authority allowed those in its possession to enter the Holy Place and the Holy of Holies without particular regard to worthiness, as compared to those of the Aaronic order who had to be ritualistically and ethically clean, among other prerequisites. However, an interesting story is found in 2 Chronicles chapter 26 where king Uzziah (the ruler at the time of Isaiah) assumed that he had this authority and walked into the Holy of Holies.³ He was struck with leprosy.⁴ One possible explanation for this is that Uzziah was king of Judah, not Israel, and this may not have been sufficient for him to be of the higher order of priesthood.

²As found in Psalm 110:4 as עֲלֵי־דִבְרֹתַי מִלְכִּי־צֶדֶק

³While it is not explicitly stated in 2 Chronicles 26 that he entered the Holy of Holies, it is stated that he went to burn incense before the Lord — something that is done in the Holy of Holies.

⁴Most likely some skin disease (צָרוּעַ) and not necessarily leprosy

NOTES ON ISAIAH

Most of the prophetic writings are either in judgment or hope for the people; they are not usually neutral. One theory postulates that there are two Isaiahs: one comprising Isaiah 1–39 and dealing with judgment, the other Isaiah 40–66 and dealing with hope (and possibly a third comprising just 56–66). However, there is plenty of hope in the first section and plenty of judgment in the second section which may controvert this theory.

ISAIAH 2:16

Sailing in antiquity was a dangerous activity — it was taking your life in your hands. Sailors would go as close to the coast as possible so that if the ship breaks up (cf. Jonah 1:4) they could live through the incident by swimming to shore.

The Hebrew and Aramaic Lexicon of the Old Testament by Koehler and Baumgartner defines שָׂכִיָּה as follows:

Ug. tkt (Gordon Textbook §19:2680; Aistleitner 2862; Driver *Myths*² 160a; cf. Fisher Parallels 2: p. 8 entry 5) < Eg. skty ship (Erman-G. 4:315), see Lambdin Loan Words 154f; Ellenbogen Foreign Words 154; cf. also Wildberger BK 10:94: ship Is 2₁₆. †

The following is from Ellenbogen's Foreign Words in the Old Testament:

שָׂכִיָּה – Ships Egyptian – sk.tj  (ship)
Isa. 2:16 -

The LXX translation of the phrase הַחֲמָדָה וְעַל כָּל־שָׂכִיָּה, which runs: ἐπὶ πᾶσαν θῆαν πλοίων κάλλους, is very remarkable; it incorporates both what seems to be the real meaning of the term שָׂכִיָּה, namely, πλοῖον “ship,” and also what is required by the traditional understanding of the word, namely θέα “sight, view.” The Vulgate renders שָׂכִיָּה by visus,¹ and the Peshitta by “view.” Rashi has a note saying that שָׂכִיָּה refers to palaces whose floors are paved with marble mosaics. This seems to be purely conjectural, and possibly based on the Targum's rendering of the term (בִּירְנָתָא "castle").

The Verses Isa. 2:13, 14, 15, and 17 contain parallelisms, so it would appear reasonable to assume that Verse 2:16 also contains a parallelism that would match the word אֲנִיּוֹת "ships," so Budde-Begrich (ZATW 49, p.198) are apparently right in seeing in Hebrew שְׂכוּת the borrowed Egyptian term sk.tj, a word which is attested from the days of the New Kingdom. [See Erman-Grapow, WB IV, p.315.] The Egyptian derivation of שְׂכוּת was also accepted by Albright (Bertholet Festschrift, p.5) who mentions that H.L. Ginsberg identifies Ugaritic tkt with Hebrew שְׂכוּת.

Note that the Septuagint allows for the rendering found in the King James Version.

RABSHAKEH

Rabshakeh was possibly an ex-Jew who was sent to Jerusalem because he spoke Hebrew. Some justification for this conclusion comes from the fact that he refers to the Lord by His ineffable name. abshakeh has a hatred within him that is common in people who have left their faith. In Isaiah 36:15, he gives an example of something that Hezekiah would say, but says it in a truly Hebrew manner.

COVENANTS IN ANTIQUITY

יָדַע — TO KNOW

The verb יָדַע has three senses in BH. First, it means “to know (a fact).”; for instance, “To know the time.” Second, it is used with a sexual connotation (to have sexual relations). Lastly, it is used in a covenantal sense — to enter a covenant (or treaty) with someone. Examples of this usage include:

- “And there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph” (Exodus 1:8, DARBY, emphasis added). In other words, a king came to succession who had not covenanted with Joseph: “I didn’t know him, so all bets are off.”
- “Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee” (Jeremiah 1:4, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “[A]nd then will I avow unto them, I never knew you” (Matthew 7:23, DARBY, emphasis added).
- “...if thou art God, wilt thou make thyself known unto me, and I will give away all my sins to know thee” (Alma 22:18, emphasis added).

BH does not have a sense of knowing a person, like the French connaître. The closest to that sense is נָכַר which means, in the hiphil, to be acquainted.

In ancient Israelite marriages, covenants were made to God, not to the other person. Therefore, the breaker of the covenant must answer to God.

OATH TAKING SYNTAX

The syntax of oath taking:

“I will not give your grain any longer as food for your enemies” is literally “If I give your food to your enemies and [understood: you will kill me].”

“If I don’t do this, may my throat be slit just as the throat of this animal.”

cf. Alma 46:22–24. “Preserved” is a Muslim, not an Israelite, tradition.

TABERNACLES AND TEMPLES

In Numbers 12, the term tent is interchangeable with tabernacle. It is also this way in most of the Pentateuch.

NAMES OF THE LORD

THE TETRAGRAMMATON

Etymology

To help prevent people from speaking the ineffable name of God, the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) was sometimes voweled with the same vowel points as אֲדֹנָי (Adonai). More commonly it is written יהוה.

The English transliteration is Jehovah, as follows:

יהוה > hwhy = yhwh > jhwh > jhvh > Jehovah

The י was substituted for a j because y is a weak phoneme. The ו, anciently pronounced as w, was changed to the stronger v. Thus did these changes make Jehovah out of the original Yahweh.

Sanctity

Ezra is one of the founders of modern Judaism — an ethnic religion practiced by a monotheistic people, the Judahites. It is the only surviving ethnic religion in the world besides Hinduism. This religion observed the sanctity of the Tetragrammaton by not pronouncing it. This practice became so strong that individuals who pronounced it would be put to death. The Romans allowed the Jews to stone those who uttered the ineffable name. Christ may very well have pronounced this when He declared, “Before Abraham was I AM” (John 8:58).

This practice continued through the 5th and 6th centuries AD. It is still considered sacrilegious by very observant Jews, so much so that even אֱלֹהִים is pronounced by Hasidic Jews as אֱלֹקִים. In writing, “G-d” or “G_d” is substituted for “God.” However, this practice is not peculiar to Judaism as Parley P. Pratt would write “G-d” when quoting blasphemers.

When reading, observant Jews will say “Adonai” (master, master of the universe, master of an individual) or “Hashem” (lit., the name) in place of Yahweh.

Some Orthodox Jews will not write יהוה because things containing this cannot be burned, erased, or destroyed. For this reason there is a place in the synagogue known as the גִּנְזָה (genizah, pl. genizot) which is used for the disposal of sacred writings. Unfortunately, many גְּנוּזֹת were destroyed in the Middle Ages by fire (either arson or accidental). Fortunately, the גְּנוּזָה in the ben-Asher synagogue in Cairo, Egypt (built in the 10th century AD) has never burned. The Damascus scroll, likely part of the Dead Sea Scrolls, was found there because some of the documents belonging to the Qumran community were left there.

Sometimes, especially in the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Tetragrammaton is rendered in the Paleo-Hebrew: 𐤅𐤕𐤅𐤔.

It is shocking how often the people of Israel, especially in the Pentateuch, blaspheme against the Lord and His servants while using the (according to them) ineffable name of God. Although the third commandment refers to swearing an oath, the higher law incorporates using His name with respect and reverence (cf. D&C 107:4), something the rebellious Israelites clearly disobeyed, possibly helping justify their terrible punishments.

AHMAN

Not much is known on this name. What follows is only preliminary work¹ and is in no way meant to be authoritative.

Ahman, possibly related to אֱמֵן, meaning to be true, to be faithful, or to be realized. May also refer to faith or veracity.

Could possibly be related to the Book of Mormon name אֱמֵנִי (Omni) which means either faith in me or my faith, אֱמֵנִי being either a subjective or objective genitive.

HEBREW IDIOMS

הִנְנִי

In Genesis 22:1, Abraham says “הִנְנִי” which means anything from “Behold!” to “I am here” to “Pay attention.” It’s a pretty all inclusive word with “Yes?” being an appropriate, idiomatic response.

AMEN

KB for אָמֵן: surely!, solemn formula by wh. the hearer a) accepts the validity of a curse or oath, b) accepts a salutary message, or c) joins himself to a doxology.
